COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 699/77

of 30 March 1977

on transitional measures concerning the application of certain monetary compensatory amounts in trade between Ireland and the United Kingdom

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 557/76 of 15 March 1976 on the exchange rates to be applied in agriculture [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 651/77 [2], and in particular Article 3 thereof,

Whereas Regulation (EEC) No 651/77 fixed for different sectors a new representative rate for the Irish pound to take effect from 1 April 1977;

Whereas the fixing of the new rate has led to a considerable change in the monetary compensatory amounts applicable in trade between Ireland and the United Kingdom; whereas, in view of this change, speculation is likely to occur in certain particularly sensitive sectors, leading to a deflection of trade;

Whereas, to avoid such deflection, provision should be made in respect of those products which are likely to give rise to speculation for the monetary compensatory amounts in force on 31 March 1977 to continue to be applied after that date to the products concerned;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinions of the relevant management committees,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

1. By way of derogation from the Regulations fixing the monetary compensatory amounts to take effect from 1 April 1977, the monetary compensatory amounts in force on 31 March 1977 for the products listed in the Annex shall continue to be applied:

(a) to products exported from Ireland to the United Kingdom in respect of which customs export formalities are completed within a period of two months beginning on 1 April 1977;

(b) to products as referred to in (a) imported into the United Kingdom in respect of which customs formalities for release to the market are completed within a period of two months beginning on 1 April 1977.

2. However, paragraph 1 shall not apply to products in respect of which proof is furnished that they were:

— obtained in Ireland,

— obtained from pigs or bovine animals slaughtered in Ireland, or — imported into Ireland before 29 March or on or after 1 April 1977.

3. Ireland shall adopt such measures as are necessary with regard to the documents acceptable as proof for the purposes of paragraph 2, including the appropriate control measures.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 1 April 1977.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.
