Whereas Article 3 of Regulation (EEC) No 1796/81 referred to above provides that the quantities which may be imported without payment of the additional amount must be allocated between the supplying countries with due regard for traditional trade flows and new suppliers; whereas it is necessary to lay down and allocate these quantities for the period 1 October to 31 December 1981;

Whereas, since the Commission may obtain additional information after the date of entry into force of this Regulation concerning imports carried out during the first three quarters, provision should be made at present for possible revision of the quantities fixed;
