COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 2966/81

of 15 October 1981

regarding that the market in apples is in a state of serious crisis

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 1035/72 of 18 May 1972 on the common organization of the market in fruit and vegetables [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1116/81 [2], and in particular Article 19 (1) thereof,

Whereas, under Article 19 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 1035/72, if, for a given product on one of the representative markets referred to in Article 17 (2) of that Regulation, the prices communicated to the Commission pursuant to paragraph 1 of that same Article remain below the buying-in price for three consecutive market days, the Commission shall without delay record that the market in the product in question is in a state of serious crisis, if the Member State in which the situation has arisen so requests;

Whereas this situation has arisen in Greece for apples; whereas it should consequently be recorded that the market in apples is in a state of serious crisis,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

It is recorded that the market in apples is in a state of serious crisis.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 16 October 1981.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 15 October 1981.

For the Commission

Poul DALSAGER

Member of the Commission
