COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 2463/84

of 20 August 1984

laying down for the 1983/84 wine-growing year detailed rules for the application of the additional measures applicable to holders of long-term storage contracts for table wine

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 337/79 of 5 February 1979 on the common organization of the market in wine (1), as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1208/84 (2), and in particular Articles 12a (5) and 65 thereof,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 1223/83 of 20 May 1983 on the exchange rates to be applied in agriculture (3), as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 855/84 (4), and in particular Article 2 (2) thereof,

Whereas the measures employed to support the wine market have not yielded the desired results; whereas, in particular, the representative prices for table wines of types A I, A II, A III, R I and R II have remained lower than the respective activating prices since the beginning of the wine-growing year; whereas, therefore, the first condition required under Article 12a (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79 for the adoption of additional measures applicable to holders of long-term storage contracts is satisfied; whereas the second condition, namely that the representative price should remain lower than the activating price for three consecutive weeks, is likely to be fulfilled for table wines of types A I, A II, A III, R I and R II during the reference period;

Whereas these measures should provide for the possibility of removing from the market by distillation a certain quantity of wine and for the possibility of delaying for several months the marketing of the remaining quantity held by holders of long-term storage contracts, in anticipation of a recovery of the market; whereas, however, this latter measure might not achieve the desired objective; whereas provision for any further measures which may be necessary should therefore be made;

Whereas, pursuant to Article 12a (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79, the distillation provided for by this Regulation may not exceed 18 % of the total quantity of the table wine produced by each holder for the marketing year in which the long-term contract was concluded; whereas, in order to determine the said total quantity, reference should be made to the declarations provided for by Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2408/83 of 25 August 1983 on harvest and stock declarations relating to wine-sector products (5), as amended by Regulation (EEC) No 62/84 (6), and to the entries in the records provided for by Commission Regulation (EEC) No 1153/75 of 30 April 1975 prescribing the form of accompanying documents and specifying the obligations of wine producers and traders other than retailers (7), as last amended by the Act of Accession of Greece;

Whereas the distillation provided for by this Regulation should take place in accordance with the provisions of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2179/83 of 25 July 1983 laying down general rules for distillation operations involving wine and the by-products of wine-making (8); whereas, pursuant to Articles 4, 5 and 26 of that Regulation, time limits should be fixed for the submission of applications for approval of supply contracts and declarations, for approval by the intervention agencies and for the distillation operations; whereas Article 8 of that Regulation specifies that the amount of the aid to be paid is to be fixed using the criteria set out therein;

Whereas additional information which should appear in the supply contract and in the declaration should also be specified;

Whereas Article 9 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 2179/83 introduced a system of securities with a view to bringing forward the payment of aid while guaranteeing intervention agencies against the risk of undue payment; whereas, therefore, the time limits for advance payment should be specified as well as the time limits and procedures for releasing the security;

Whereas some of the wines delivered for distillation under this Regulation may be made into fortified wine; whereas the provisions applicable to distillation operations should therefore be adjusted in conformity with the rules laid down in Articles 25 and 26 of Regulation (EEC) No 2179/83;

Whereas the intervention agencies and the Commission should be informed of the progress of distillation operations and should in particular be aware of the quantities of wine distilled and the quantities of alcohol obtained;

Whereas storage contracts must be concluded in accordance with Commission Regulation (EEC) No 1059/83 of 29 April 1983 on storage contracts for table wine, grape must, concentrated grape must and rectified concentrated grape must [1], as amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1997/84 [2];

Whereas during the storage period there is a neutral alteration in the volatile acidity of the wine which might exceed the limit provided for in Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3676/82 of 23 December 1983 authorizing the conclusion of long-term private storage contracts for certain table wines for the 1983/84 wine year [3], which was laid down with a storage period of nine months in view; whereas it seems appropriate to permit that, when a storage contract is concluded for four months, and provided the wine covered by the new contract is the same as the wine covered by the previous contract, the wine should be considered to have fulfilled the required conditions even if the volatile acidity content is higher than that laid down by the said Regulation, provided that the limit laid down for table wine of the type in question has not been exceeded and that all other administrative and technical conditions are complied with;

Whereas to allow for market development, it should be possible to terminate contracts;

Whereas, since the storage contracts referred to in this Regulation were concluded during the 1983/84 wine-growing year, the last representative rate applicable during the said wine-growing year should be used;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Wine,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

This Regulation lays down detailed rules for the application of additional measures, as provided for in Article 12a of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79, in respect of holders of long-term storage contracts for table wine for the 1983/84 wine-growing year.

2. If the decision referred to in Article 12a (5) of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79 is adopted, holders of long-term storage contracts for the types of table wine in respect of which the decision is adopted and for wines in close economic relationship with such wines may:

(a) for a quantity of wine subject to contract not exceeding a percentage to be determined of the total quantity of table wine which they have produced during the 1983/84 wine-growing year, undertake distillation under the conditions referred to in Articles 3 to 9;

(b) for a quantity of wine subject to contract to be determined and which is not subject to the measure provided for at point (a), conclude a storage contract under the conditions referred to in Article 9, for a period to be determined.

3. The total quantity of table wine to which the percentage referred to in Article 12a (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79 is to apply shall be:

— for producers subject during the 1983/84 wine-growing year to the obligation referred to in Article 3 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 2408/83, the total of the quantities given in their harvest declarations and of the quantities given in the records referred to in Article 14 of Regulation (EEC) No 1153/75 and obtained by themselves after the date of submission of the harvest declaration, from products listed in the said declaration, — for producers who were not subject during the 1983/84 wine-growing year to the obligation referred to in the first indent, the quantity given in the records referred to in Article 14 of Regulation (EEC) No 1153/75 and obtained by themselves by vinification of purchased products.

4. Other additional measures applicable to holders of the storage contracts referred to in paragraph 2 (b) in respect of a given type of wine or a wine in close economic relationship therewith may be taken if the representative price for that type of table wine has remained lower than the activating price during the period between the date of adoption of the decision referred to in Article 12a (5) of Regulation (EEC) No 337/79 and 15 January 1985.
