COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 4101/86

of 23 December 1986

amending Regulation (EEC) No 3321/82 as regards the sizes of sardine and anchovy eligible for the carry-over premium

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 3796/81 of 29 December 1981 on the common organization of the market in fishery products [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 2315/86 [2], and in particular Article 14 (7) thereof,

Whereas Council Regulation (EEC) No 2203/82 of 28 July 1982 laying down general rules for the granting of a carry-over premium for certain fishery products [3], as amended by the Act of Accession, provides that once the special arrangements provided for in Article 14 (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 3796/81 have expired, Mediterranean sardines and anchovies may qualify for the carry-over premium;

Whereas, with the accession of Spain and Portugal, Atlantic sardines and anchovies became eligible for the carry-over premium;

Whereas, therefore, sizes should be fixed for these products by amending Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3321/82 of 9 December 1982 laying down detailed rules for the granting of a carry-over premium for certain fishery products [4], as amended by Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3587/85 [5];

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Fishery Products,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Annex I to Regulation (EEC) No 3321/82 is replaced by the Annex to this Regulation.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 1 January 1987.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 23 December 1986.
