COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 627/86

of 28 February 1986

derogating, in the case of olive oil, from Regulation (EEC) No 410/86 on transitional measures to be adopted on account of the accession of Spain and Portugal, in respect of trade in agricultural products

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to the Act of Accession of Spain and Portugal, and in particular Articles 90 (1) and 257 (1) thereof,

Whereas Commission Regulation (EEC) No 410/86 of 24 February 1986 on transitional measures to be adopted on account of the accession of Spain and Portugal, in respect of trade in agricultural products [1] provides, inter alia, that products exported from Spain or Portugal before 1 March 1986 and imported into the Community as from that date are, in certain cases, no longer subject to the presentation of an import licence; whereas, in the light of the import arrangements for olive oil, the import levy payable cannot be determined without that licence; whereas accordingly, provision should be made for derogating from Article 6 of Regulation (EEC) No 410/86;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Oils and Fats,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

By way of derogation from Article 6 of Regulation (EEC) No 410/86, imports of olive oil falling within subheading 15.07 A of the Common Customs Tariff shall, where the customs export formalities were completed in Spain or Portugal on or before 28 February 1986, and where importation into the Community as constituted at 31 December 1985 effectively takes place from 1 March 1986 onwards, be subject to the presentation of an import licence in accordance with the provisions of Council Regulation (EEC) No 2751/78 [2].

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

It shall apply with effect from 1 March 1986.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 28 February 1986.
