COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 2293/87

of 30 July 1987

amending Regulation (EEC) No 602/87 as regards certain detailed rules for applying compulsory distillation as referred to in Article 39 of Council Regulation (EEC) No 822/87

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 822/87 of 16 March 1987 on the common organization of the market in wine [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1972/87 [2], and in particular Article 39 (5), third subparagraph, and (9) thereof,

Whereas a relatively large number of producers have not complied with the time limits for notification laid down in Article 10 (1) of Commission Regulation (EEC) No 854/86 [3], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1410/87 [4]; whereas, in such circumstances, it seems appropriate, in order to achieve the result anticipated for this measure for the 1986/87 marketing year, to provide that producers who made such notification belatedly, but who deliver the wine normally, may regularize their position as regards the right to intervention measures in the following marketing year by increasing the quantity that they are required to deliver; whereas, in order to enable, in particular, the abovementioned producers to deliver the additional amounts required, the time limit for delivery of the wine and for distillation should be extended; whereas Commission Regulation (EEC) No 602/87 [5] should be adapted accordingly;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Wine,
