COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC) No 561/87

of 23 February 1987

laying down special measures for imports of olive oil originating in Tunisia

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community, and in particular Article 113 thereof,

Having regard to Council Regulation No 136/66/EEC of 22 September 1966 on the establishment of a common organization of the market in oils and fats [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 1454/86 [2], and in particular Article 36 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas the situation on the Community market is such as to allow a limited quantity of olive oil originating in Tunisia to be imported in coming months without the risk of serious disturbance;

Whereas under Articles 97 and 295 of the 1985 Act of Accession, preferential arrangements, be they contractual or autonomous, applied by the Community with regard to third countries in the olive oil sector, do not apply to Spain or to Portugal; whereas provision should be made for measures to avoid the possibility of olive oil originating in Tunisia being entered for consumption in Spain or in Portugal whilst benefiting from a reduced levy; whereas these measures should be specified in the detailed rules of application of this Regulation;

Whereas provision should accordingly be made for general rules for the issue of import licences in order to guarantee equal access to that quota for importers of olive oil,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

1. A special levy of 5 ECU per 100 kilograms shall be charged on imports of olive oil which has not undergone any refining process, falling within subheadings 15.07 A I a) and b) of the Common Customs Tariff, obtained entirely in Tunisia and transported directly therefrom to the Community as constituted on 31 December 1985.

2. The special levy shall apply to a maximum quantity of 10 000 tonnes of olive oil in respect of imports for which an application for the licence referred to in Article 2 has been lodged within 30 days from the date of entry into force of this Regulation.

Article 2

1. In order to qualify for the special levy referred to in Article 1, importers must submit an import licence application to the competent authorities of the Member States. That application must be accompanied by a copy of the purchase contract concluded with the Tunisian exporter.

2. Import licence applications must be submitted on Mondays or Tuesdays of each week. Member States shall notify the Commission, on Wednesdays, of the data in licence applications received.

3. Each week the Commission shall draw up a total of the quantities for which import licence applications have been submitted. It shall authorize the Member States to issue licences until the quota is exhausted; where there is a risk of the quota being exhausted, the Commission shall authorize the Member States to issue import licences in proportion to the quantity available.

Article 3

The import licences referred to in Article 2 shall be valid for 90 days. The provisions of Regulation (EEC) No 2041/75 [3] regarding import licences without advance fixing of the levy, shall apply in respect of the securities and the period for issuing the licences.

Article 4

Detailed rules for the application of this Regulation, in particular those intended to avoid deflection of trade, shall be adopted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Article 38 of Regulation No 136/66/EEC.

Article 5

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.
