COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 2163/88

of 20 July 1988

on the issue of import licences for certain products processed from sour cherries and originating in Yugoslavia

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 1201/88 of 28 April 1988 establishing import mechanisms for certain processed products obtained from sour cherries and originating in Yugoslavia [1], and in particular Article 4 thereof,

Whereas Yugoslavia has undertaken to limit its exports of those products to the Community to an annual quantity of 19 900 tonnes ; whereas Regulation (EEC) No 1201/88 provides that the Commission is to suspend the issue of import licences once imports exceed the abovementioned quantity ;

Whereas Commission Regulation (EEC) No 743/87 lays down special detailed rules for the application of the system of import licences for products processed from fruit and vegetables [2] ;

Whereas at present the quantities which are the subject of applications for import licences for certain products processed from sour cherries and originating in Yugoslavia amount to 19 900 tonnes ; whereas, in view of the term of validity of such certificates lasting a period of three months from the date of the actual issue, the issue of certificates for such products should be suspended until 31 October 1988 in order to verify quantities actually imported,
