COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 327/91

of 11 February 1991

amending Regulation (EEC) No 3815/90 as regards the period of validity of certain STM licences in respect of Portugal

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to the Act of Accession of Spain and Portugal, and in particular Article 83 thereof,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 569/86 of 25 February 1986 laying down general rules for the application of the supplementary mechanism applicable to trade [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 3296/88 [2], and in particular Article 7 (1) thereof,

Whereas Article 8 of Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3815/90 of 19 December 1990 laying down detailed rules for the application of the supplementary mechanism to trade in certain beef and veal products intended for Portugal [3] provides that STM licences are to be valid for 18 days from the actual date of issue;

Whereas, by virtue of the island status and remote situation of the regions of the Azores and Madeira, the period of validity of STM licences in respect of Portugal for products released tothe market in the Azores and Madeira should be extended;

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Beef and Veal,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The following subparagraph is added to Article 8 of Regulation (EEC) No 3815/90:

'However, STM licences shall be valid for 30 days if the products are released to the market in the Azores or Madeira.'

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 11 February 1991.
