COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 623/91

of 14 March 1991

amending Regulation (EEC) No 3816/90 laying down detailed rules for the application of the supplementary trade mechanism for certain products in the pigmeat sector destined for Portugal

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 569/86 of 25 February 1986 laying down general rules for the application of supplementary mechanism applicable to trade [1], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 3296/88 [2], and in particular Article 7 (1) thereof,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 3792/85 of 20 December 1985 laying down the arrangements applying to trade in agricultural products between Spain and Portugal [3], as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No 3296/88, and in particular Article 13 thereof,

Whereas Article 6 of Commission Regulation (EEC) No 3816/90 [4], as amended by Regulation (EEC) No 266/91 [5], lays down that STM licences and STM import licences shall be valid for 18 days from the actual date of issue ;

Whereas, due to the insularity and remoteness of the regions of the Azores and Madeira it is appropriate to prolong the period of validity of STM licences and STM import licences for products put into circulation in the Azores and Madeira.

Whereas the measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Pigmeat,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION :

Article 1

The following paragraph is added to Article 6 of Regulation (EEC) No 3816/90 :

'However, STM licences and STM import licences shall be valid for 30 days if the products are put into circulation in Madeira, and 45 days if they are put into circulation in the Azores.'

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

It shall apply equally to those STM licences and STM import licences delivered before its entry into force and in respect of which the period of validity has not expired.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.
