COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No 1653/92

of 26 June 1992

determining to what extent applications for import licences for calves not exceeding 80 kilograms lodged under Regulation (EEC) No 1350/92 can be met

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Commission Regulation (EEC) No 1350/92 of 26 May 1992 introducing management measures for imports of certain bovine animals for 1992 [1], and in particular Article 5 (1) thereof,

Whereas Article 2 (3) of Regulation (EEC) No 1350/92 provides for the quantities reserved to customary importers to be assigned in proportion to their imports at the full levy during 1989, 1990 and 1991 ;

Whereas allocation of the quantities available to operators covered by point (b) in Article 2 (2) is to be made in proportion to the quantities applied for ; whereas since the quantities applied for exceed those available, a fixed percentage reduction should be set,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION :

Article 1

Applications for import licences for live animals of the bovine species weighing not more than 80 kilograms shall be met to the following extent :

(a) for importers covered by (a) in Article 2 (2) of Regulation (EEC) No 1350/92, 10,030 % of the quantity imported in 1989, 1990 and 1991 ;

(b) for importers covered by (b) in Article 2 (2) of Regulation (EEC) No 1350/92, 0,574 % of the quantity applied for.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 1 July 1992.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 26 June 1992.
