COMMISSION REGULATION (EC) No 1652/96

of 16 August 1996

regarding that the market in nectarines is in a state of serious crisis

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No 1035/72 of 18 May 1972 on the common organization of the market in fruit and vegetables [1], as last amended by Regulation (EC) No 1363/95 [2], and in particular Article 19 (1) thereof,

Whereas, under Article 19 (1) of Regulation (EEC) No 1035/72, if, for a given product on one of the representative markets referred to in Article 17 (2) of that Regulation, the prices communicated to the Commission pursuant to paragraph 1 of that same Article remain below the buying-in-price, for three consecutive market days, the Commission shall without delay record that the market in the product in question is in a state of serious crisis if the Member State in which the situation has arisen so requests;

Whereas the situation has arisen in Spain for nectarines; whereas it should consequently be recorded that the market in this product is in a state of serious crisis,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

It is recorded that the market in nectarines is in a state of serious crisis.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 17 August 1996.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 16 August 1996.

For the Commission

Martin BANGEMANN

Member of the Commission
