COMMISSION REGULATION (EC) No 316/96

of 21 February 1996

determining to what extent applications for the right to import for cows and heifers of certain mountain breeds lodged under Regulation (EC) No 207/96 can be met

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Commission Regulation (EC) No 207/96 of 2 February 1996 laying down for the first six months of 1996 the detailed rules for the application of a tariff quota for cows and heifers of various mountain breeds, other than those intended for slaughter, originating in certain third countries [1], and in particular Article 5 thereof,

Whereas Article 2 (2) of Regulation (EC) No 207/96 provides for the quantities reserved to traditional importers to be assigned in proportion to their imports during the period 1 July 1992 to 30 June 1995;

Whereas allocation of the quantities available to operators covered by Article 2 (3) of the abovementioned Regulation is to be made in proportion to the quantities applied for; whereas since the quantities applied for exceed those available, a fixed percentage reduction should be set,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Every application for the right to import lodged in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 207/96 shall be granted to the following extent:

(a) for importers covered by (a) in Article 2 (1) of Regulation (EC) No 207/96, 2,756 % of the quantities imported during the period 1 July 1992 to 30 June 1995;

(b) for importers covered by (b) in Article 2 (1) of Regulation (EC) No 207/96, 2,189 % of the quantities applied for.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on 22 February 1996.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 21 February 1996.
