(1) Whereas pursuant to Commission Regulation (EEC) No 1859/93 ([5]), as amended by Regulation (EC) No 1662/94 ([6]), the release for free circulation in the Community of garlic imported from third countries is subject to presentation of an import licence;

(2) Whereas Article 1(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1040/1999, restricts the issue of import licences for garlic originating in China to a maximum monthly quantity in the case of applications lodged from 1 June 1999 to 31 May 2000;

(3) Whereas given the criteria laid down in Article 1(2) of that Regulation and the import licences already issued, the quantity applied for on 2 December 1999 is in excess of the maximum quantity given in the Annex to that Regulation for the months of December 1999 and January 2000; whereas it is therefore necessary to determine to what extent import licences may be issued in response to these applications; whereas the issue of licences in response to applications lodged after 2 December 1999 and before 1 February 2000 should be refused,
