COMMISSION REGULATION (EC) No 2017/2001
of 15 October 2001
concerning the issue of A licences for the import of garlic

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Commission Regulation (EC) No 1047/2001 of 30 May 2001 introducing a system of import licences and certificates of origin and establishing the method for managing the tariff quotas for garlic imported from third countries [1], as last amended by Regulation (EC) No 1865/2001 [2],

Whereas:

(1) Article 8(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1047/2001 provides that if quantities covered by applications for A licences exceed the quantities available, the Commission is to fix a simple reduction percentage and suspend the issue of such licences covered by subsequent applications.

(2) Quantities applied for on 8 and 9 October 2001 under Article 4(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1047/2001 for products originating in Argentina exceed the quantities available. The extent to which A licences can be issued, and whether the issue of those licences should be suspended for any subsequent applications, should therefore be determined,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

A import licences covered by applications under Article 1(1), of Regulation (EC) No 1047/2001 for products originating in Argentina on 8 and 9 October 2001 and forwarded to the Commission on 10 October 2001 shall be issued, with the entry referred to in Article 1(2) of that Regulation, at the rate of:

— 65,527 % of the quantity applied for, for traditional importers,

— 2,915 % of the quantity applied for, for new importers.

Article 2

The issue of A import licences relating to the quarter running from 1 December 2001 to 28 February 2002 covered by applications under Regulation (EC) No 1047/2001 for products originating in Argentina is hereby suspended for applications lodged after 9 October 2001. Applications for the quarter running from 1 March 2002 to 31 May 2002 may be lodged from 14 January 2002.

Article 3

This Regulation shall enter into force on 16 October 2001.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 15 October 2001.
