17. For general stationery, postage, telegrams, telephone calls, bank charges and miscellaneous expenses	Actual and necessary cost.

II In an uncontested election, for all necessary preliminary work the amount shall be the same as the amount specified for corresponding work in a contested election, except that for all clerical and other assistance employed by the returning officer, deputy returning officer, acting returning officer or deputy acting returning officer for the purposes of the election, including charges for day subsistence expenses and for superannuation contributions where payable, the amount shall not be more than one-quarter of the amount specified under paragraph I. 4 of this part of the Schedule.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations revoke and replace the European Assembly Elections (Returning Officers' Expenses) Regulations 1979. They prescribe for England, Scotland and Wales a revised scale increasing the maximum charges in respect of services rendered and expenses incurred by the returning officers for the purposes of or in connection with the European Assembly Elections.

Provision has also been made in the Regulations for the payment of a special fee for the work on the counting of ballot papers which is to take place on Sunday 17 June 1984.
