(2) under twenty years of age on the 1st June of the year of award; and

(3) engaged in Northern Ireland in the trade or branch of industry, in which a scholarship is sought by him, for a period of not less than two years immediately preceding the 1st June of the year of award.

13 A candidate, if so required by the Ministry, shall attend at his own expense at such place as the Ministry may appoint for interview.

14 The Ministry may extend the time appointed by these regulations for the submission of returns or for other purposes.

15 The Interpretation Act, 1921 (2 Geo. 5, Ch. 4) applies for the purpose of the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the purpose of the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

16 In any case of doubt or difficulty as to the construction of these regulations or as to any claim, right, or liability thereunder, the decision of the Ministry shall be final.

17 These regulations shall have and take effect as from 1st January, 1927.

Given under the Seal of the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland this 14th day of March, 1927.

EXCHEQUER BANK.

1927. No. 106.

WARRANT OF THE MINISTER OF FINANCE UNDER THE EXCHEQUER AND AUDIT ACT, 1921.

To The Belfast Banking
Company Limited.

Whereas it is enacted by Section 1 of the Exchequer and Audit Act, 1921, as interpreted by Section 29 of the same Act, that the account of the Exchequer of Northern Ireland shall be at such Bank as may be prescribed by the Ministry of Finance.

Now I, Hugh MacDowell Pollock, Minister of Finance of Northern Ireland, do prescribe the Belfast Banking Company Limited to be the said Bank and do authorise and request you to open in your books an account under the title "Exchequer of Northern Ireland" and to take such action as is required by the above-named Act, subject to the several provisions thereof.

And for so doing this shall be your Warrant.

(Signed) H. M. Pollock.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP.

Bakehouses, Welfare.

MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER SECTION 7 (1) OF THE POLICE, FACTORIES, &C. (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) ACT, 1916 (6 & 7 GEO. 5, C. 31).

1927. No. 128.

In pursuance of Section 7 of the Police, Factories, &c. (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1916, and the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, and the several Orders made thereunder, the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland hereby makes the following Order for all factories and workshops or parts thereof in which is carried on the baking of bread or flour confectionery, hereinafter referred to as bakehouses.

1. The occupier shall provide and maintain for the use of all persons employed in the bakehouse (excepting any persons who do not, in the course of their employment, handle any dough or any of the ingredients of bread or flour confectionery) suitable washing facilities conveniently accessible.

Such accommodation shall comprise at least one lavatory basin or trough not less than 7 inches deep and 20 inches long, with a smooth impervious surface, fitted with a waste pipe, for every ten persons employed at any one time, a constant supply of warm water laid on, or where such supply is not reasonably practicable, a sufficient supply of warm water always at hand when required for use by the persons employed, and, in addition, a sufficient supply of soap and clean towels. Any odd number of persons less than ten shall be reckoned as ten.

Provided that in bakehouses where, before the commencement of this Order, fixed basins are already installed of a size sufficient to enable the hands and forearms to be readily washed, such basins shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this paragraph.
