(3) In their application to the added areas any byelaws continued in force by the foregoing provisions of this section shall have effect as if they had been made by the Corporation and as if the added areas or the part thereof to which such byelaws apply were referred to therein instead of the area to which they originally applied.

(4) All byelaws other than local government byelaws made by the Corporation or by the watch or education committees of the existing city and in force immediately before the appointed day shall apply to the city until repealed or altered and subject to the provisions of the next succeeding section any such byelaw made by the county council or the standing joint committee of the county or by the rural council shall on that day cease to apply within the added areas.

(5) Any proceedings which if this Act had not been passed might have been taken for any offence against any byelaw committed before the appointed day within the added areas may be taken by the Corporation.

(6) In this section "byelaws" includes any regulation scale of charges list of tolls or table of fees or payments and the phrase "local government byelaws" means byelaws which if they had been made immediately before the appointed day would have required to be confirmed by the Minister.

Byelaws of county council as to advertisements and petroleum filling stations. 7 Edw. 7. c. 27. 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 52. 18 & 19 Geo. 5. c. 32.

39.—(1) Any byelaws made by the county council under the Advertisements Regulation Acts 1907 and 1925 or the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act 1928 which immediately before the appointed day are in force within any portion of the added areas shall continue to apply thereto for a period of three years after the appointed day unless they are previously repealed or altered by byelaws made by the Corporation but shall on the expiration of that period cease to be in force within such portion of the added areas.

(2) In their application to any portion of the added areas any byelaws to which subsection (1) of this section applies shall have effect as if they had been made by the Corporation and any proceedings which if this Act had not been passed might have been taken by the county council in respect of a contravention of or failure to comply with those byelaws which may occur before the appointed day and arises within the added areas may be taken by the Corporation.

Burial board.

40.—(1) The area of the Corporation as burial board for the existing city shall be altered by the inclusion in such area of the added areas and the Corporation shall have within such area as so altered to the exclusion of any other burial authority all the powers duties and liabilities of a burial board under the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906.

(2) Any table of fees and charges in force in respect of any existing burial ground maintained by the Corporation shall extend and apply to inhabitants of the burial area of the Corporation as altered by this section as such table applies to inhabitants of the existing burial area of the Corporation.

(3) Except as by this Act expressly provided nothing therein shall prejudice or affect any right of burial or of constructing a burial place or of erecting or placing any monument tablet gravestone or inscription which any person may have acquired before the appointed day or prejudically affect any right privilege or authority which immediately before the appointed day is exerciseable by or attaches to any incumbent or sexton under the Burial Acts 1852 to 1906.

RATING AND VALUATION.

Apportionment of balances and sums received under precepts.

41.—(1) As soon as practicable after the appointed day the county council and the rural council shall as regards any cash balances in their hands respectively at the appointed day estimate the proportion thereof derived from contributions paid by any part of the added areas and subject to a deduction on account of undischarged liabilities in respect of such part of the added areas accruing up to the appointed day shall transfer such amount to the Corporation.

(2) Any sum received after the appointed day by the county council or the rural council under a precept issued or rate made before that day in respect of any part of the added areas shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The apportionment under this section of any balance or sum received shall be subject to review on an adjustment under this Act.

Contribution orders precepts and arrears of rates.

42.—(1) Notwithstanding the alteration of areas effected by this Act all contribution orders and precepts made or issued before the appointed day shall be as valid in law as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) All rates not collected immediately before the appointed day in respect of hereditaments within the added areas shall be collected and recovered as if this Act had not been passed.

(3) Any rates or sums so collected or recovered shall be a matter for adjustment under this Act.

Differential rating.

43.—(1) For the purposes of this section "local authority" means the rural council and the parish council of any existing parish any part of which is comprised within the added areas.

(2) The Minister may if he thinks fit on the application of the local authority of any part of the added areas or any railway company owning property in the added areas (such application to be made in writing before the expiration of a period of two months after the passing of this Act) order that for the period or periods stated in the order the total amount in the pound of the general rate to be made and levied upon rateable hereditaments situate in any part of the added areas shall be less than the total amount in the pound of the general rate to be made and levied upon hereditaments within the existing parish of the existing city to which such part is to be added in pursuance of the provisions of this Act by such sum or sums (if any) as may seem equitable to him after considering any representations which may be made to him by the Corporation.

Deduction in ascertaining rateable value of tithes railways &c.

44. For the purposes of all valuation lists of the city under the Rating Act 1925 the amount of the deduction to be made under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 22 of that Act from the net annual value of such rateable hereditaments within the added areas as are included in class (3) of the hereditaments specified in column (1) of Part II of the Second Schedule to that Act shall notwithstanding the provisions of any Act be forty per centum.

County valuation committee.

45. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any scheme of the county council under section 16 of the Rating Act 1925 relating to any area which after the appointed day will form or forms part of the county the representatives of the East Devon assessment area on the county valuation committee of the county council shall represent that assessment area as altered by this Act.

Valuation lists.

46.—(1) The valuation list of the existing city and the portions of the valuation list of the rural district which relate to hereditaments within the added areas (modified as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Deduction in ascertaining rateable value of tithes railways &c.") shall together form the valuation list of the city as from the appointed day.

(2) The remaining portion of the valuation list of the rural district shall be the valuation list of that district as from the appointed day.

Application of Rating Act 1925.

47. As from the appointed day—

(a) the added areas shall be deemed to form part of the rating area and of the assessment area of the city;

(b) any scheme made under the Rating Act 1925 before the appointed day for the constitution of an assessment area which includes any part of the added areas shall be varied by excluding such part from such assessment area and any person who immediately before that day is the representative of any part of the added areas on any assessment committee shall cease to represent the same but shall subject to any scheme of the county council under section 16 of the Rating Act 1925 relating to any area which after the appointed day will form or forms part of the county continue to be the representative on such assessment committee of the area which he represented immediately before that day as altered by this Act until he would go out of office in the ordinary course.

Officers.

Meaning of "officer" in certain sections of this Act.

48. In the sections of this Act of which the marginal notes are "Officers of Corporation continued" and "Existing officers" the expression "officer" unless the context otherwise requires includes a servant.

Officers of Corporation continued.

49. The town clerk and all other officers of the Corporation of the existing city who hold office immediately before the appointed day shall continue to be the town clerk and officers of the Corporation of the city and shall hold their offices by the same tenure as before that day.

Existing officers.

50.—(1) All persons who at the date of the passing of this Act are officers employed whole time by the county council or the rural council exclusively in the added areas shall be transferred to and become officers of the Corporation.

(2) Every officer so transferred shall hold his office by the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions as if this Act had not been passed and while performing analogous duties to those which he was required to perform immediately before the appointed day shall receive not less salary or remuneration and be entitled to not less superannuation allowance (if any) than the salary remuneration or superannuation allowance to which he would have been entitled if this Act had not been passed.

(3) The Corporation may distribute the business to be performed by the transferred officers in such manner as the Corporation may think proper and every officer shall perform such duties in relation to that business as may be directed by the Corporation and the Corporation may abolish the office or determine the appointment of any officer subject nevertheless to the consent of the Minister if the officer is removable only with the consent of or by the Minister.

Compensation to existing officers.

51.—(1) Every officer in office at the date of the passing of this Act who by virtue of this Act or of anything done in pursuance or in consequence thereof suffers any direct pecuniary loss by abolition of office or by determination of his appointment (otherwise than for misconduct) or by diminution or loss of emoluments (and for whose compensation for that loss no other provision is made by any enactment for the time being in force) shall be entitled to compensation for that loss from the Corporation.

(2) The provisions of subsections (2) to (4) of section 150 of the Act of 1933 and of the Fourth Schedule to that Act shall apply as if this Act were an order made under Part VI of that Act.

(3) For the purposes of this section and the enactments thereby applied the expressions "officer" and "office" have the same meanings respectively as in section 150 of the Act of 1933 and the expression "emoluments" has the same meaning as in that Act.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS.

Parish books and documents.

52.—(1) All public books writings and papers of any existing parish affected by this Act in relation exclusively to any part of the added areas and all documents relating to any part of the added areas and directed by law to be kept with the public books writings and papers of such parish (except any book or document relating to the affairs of the church or to ecclesiastical charities or to a parochial non-ecclesiastical charity) and all plans papers and writings of the county council and the rural council relating exclusively to any part of the added areas shall be deposited in such custody as the Corporation may direct.

(2) Any ratepayer of any of the existing parishes any part of which is comprised in the added areas shall at all times have the same right of inspection and of making extracts from the public books writings papers and documents referred to in this section as he would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Provisions as to register of electors.

53.—(1) For the purposes of the register of local government electors of the city prepared in the year nineteen hundred and forty and of all matters connected with incidental to or consequent upon those purposes the added areas shall be deemed to have formed part of the city as from the twenty-eighth day of February nineteen hundred and forty.

(2) If the register of local government electors for any electoral area affected by this Act is not so framed as to show the persons entitled to vote at an election to be held for an electoral division parish or ward or other voting area—

(a) the town clerk in the case of an election for any voting area within the city; and

(b) the registration officer of the parliamentary county of Devon in the case of an election for any voting area outside the city;

shall make such alteration or re-arrangement of the register as may be necessary for the purposes of such election.

(3) The additional expense incurred by the town clerk or the said registration officer which may be solely attributable to an alteration or re-arrangement of the register of electors under this section shall be defrayed by the Corporation.

(4) It shall be the duty of any officer designated under article 3 of the Overseers Order 1927 by the Corporation or the rural council for the performance of the duties of overseers in relation to the preparation of the register of electors to render such assistance as may be required by the town clerk or the said registration officer for the purpose of any alteration or re-arrangement authorised by this section.

(5) Where in the opinion of the Secretary of State the circumstances so require he may make such order as appears to him to be necessary or desirable to give effect to the provisions of this section and may vary so far as is requisite the provisions in force with regard to the lists and registers of electors.

Duplicate entries in electors' lists.

54.—(1) The registration officer of the parliamentary county of Devon shall supply the registration officer of the parliamentary borough of Exeter on publication with a sufficient number of copies of the electors' lists the lists of objections to the electors' lists the lists of claimants and the lists of objections to claimants for each registration unit comprising any part of the added areas and shall forthwith notify the registration officer of the parliamentary borough of Exeter of his decision on any objections or claims in respect of any such registration unit.

(2) It shall be the duty of the registration officer of the parliamentary borough of Exeter to issue such notices and otherwise to take such steps as are required by rule 23 in the First Schedule to the Representation of the People Act 1918 in order to secure that no person is registered as a local government elector in respect of more than one qualification in the city for the purpose of elections of the council. 7 & 8 Geo. 5. c. 64.

(3) Where the registration officer of the parliamentary borough of Exeter considers (whether on account of an expression of choice by a person affected by a duplicate entry or otherwise) that any correction required for the purpose aforesaid should be made in the electors' lists of any registration unit comprising any part of the added areas he shall forthwith notify the registration officer of the parliamentary county of Devon and that officer shall make such correction accordingly.

(4) This section shall apply to the preparation of the register in the year nineteen hundred and forty and of later registers.

Jury service.

55. For the purpose of summoning jurors and of jury service any parish affected by this Act shall be deemed to continue unaltered until a new jurors' book for the parish as altered comes into force.

Local land charges registers. 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 22.

56.—(1) The local registrars for the county and the rural district respectively under the Land Charges Act 1925 and the rules made thereunder shall within one month after the appointed day supply to the local registrar for the city an office copy of every entry in the local land charges register relating to any land situate within the added areas and shall be paid by the Corporation in respect thereof such fees as are prescribed by the said rules.

(2) The local registrar for the city shall within one month after the receipt of the office copy mentioned in subsection (1) of this section enter the same with any necessary modifications in the appropriate part of the local land charges register of the city.

(3) Until the entries are made as aforesaid or until the expiration of two months from the appointed day whichever be the earlier day the following provisions shall have effect in respect of all land within the added areas:—

(a) The local registrar for the city shall give notice to any person desiring to make a personal search that an additional search should be made in the register for the rural district and in the register for the county;

(b) Where application is made for an official search the local registrar for the city shall issue free of charge a certificate of official search in the register of the city and shall forward to the local registrar for the rural district the application received by him together with the fees paid in respect thereof and shall also forward to the local registrar for the county a copy of the application;

(c) The local registrar for the rural district and the local registrar for the county shall permit and make such searches and furnish such office copies and certificates as they would have been required to permit make and furnish and shall in relation thereto have the same powers and be subject to the same obligations as if this Act had not been passed;

(d) The fees in respect of searches permitted or made and in respect of certificates furnished by the local registrar for the county in pursuance of the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be paid by the Corporation;

(e) Where an entry of a local land charge which has been duly made in the local land charges register of the county or of the rural district is required by this section to be transferred from the register of such county or district to the register of the city such charge shall not be void as against a purchaser for money or money's worth of a legal estate in the land affected thereby by reason only that it has not been entered in the register of the city.

Town planning. 22 & 23 Geo. 5. c. 48.

57.—(1) Any resolution passed or other proceeding taken by the rural council or by the county council under the Town and Country Planning Act 1932 or any enactment thereby repealed (including the making of any agreement or order or the giving of any approval consent or notice under that Act or repealed enactment) shall in so far as it relates to land within the added areas have effect as if it had been passed or taken by the Corporation in respect of that land.

(2) Nothing in this section shall cause the Corporation to become in respect of the added areas a constituent authority of a committee appointed under section 3 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1932 or the corresponding provision of any enactment thereby repealed of which they were not a constituent authority before the appointed day.

(3) Any dispensation approval or consent given by the Minister under or in pursuance of the Town and Country Planning Act 1932 or any enactment thereby repealed shall so far as it relates to land within the added areas have effect as if the same had been given to the Corporation and any powers and duties conferred by virtue of such a dispensation approval or consent upon the rural council or the county council shall have effect as though they had been conferred upon the Corporation.

As to registration districts.

58. Nothing in this Act shall affect the area of any existing registration district or sub-district without prejudice however to the exercise of the powers contained in the Births and Deaths Registration Acts 1836 to 1929 as to the alteration thereof.

Financial adjustments.

59.—(1) Where in consequence of any alteration of areas or authorities made by this Act any adjustment of any property income debts liabilities or expenses so far as they are affected by the alteration is required an adjustment shall be made between the councils or other authorities affected under and in accordance with sections 151 and 152 of the Act of 1933.

(2) This section shall not extend to any matter for the adjustment of which provision is made in any other Act or in the section of this Act of which the marginal note is "Adjustment for purposes of licensing."

Adjustment as to properties.

60. In any adjustment between the Corporation and any council or other authority which may be made in consequence of this Act regard shall be had to the interest or share (if any) of the added areas or any part thereof or of any council or authority in any property—

(a) which is retained by or transferred to such council or other authority after or as from the appointed day who will thereby be relieved from providing accommodation; or

(b) which was before the appointed day subject to beneficial user by the inhabitants of the added areas or any part thereof; or

(c) which or some part of which is realisable;

and due credit shall be given in such adjustment to the Corporation or any other council or authority in respect of such interest or share (if any) except to the extent to which the property will remain or become a burden on the council or other authority by whom it is retained or to whom it is transferred.

Saving for private street works. 55 & 56 Vict. c. 57.

61.—(1) No alteration effected by this Act shall affect any notices given or proceedings taken by or on behalf of the county council under the Private Street Works Act 1892 in relation to any street situate within the added areas or any part thereof but such proceedings may be continued and completed by such council in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) Where before the appointed day any works under section 150 of the Public Health Act 1875 or the Private Street Works Act 1892 have been completed in a street situate within the added areas or any part thereof no alteration effected by this Act shall affect the liability of any owner to defray any sum which may be or has been apportioned upon him in respect of the cost of the works and any such sum shall be recoverable by the authority who would have been entitled to recover the same if this Act had not been passed and in the like manner.

Saving for qualification of aldermen and councillors.

62. Any alderman or councillor who is to continue in office after the appointed day shall not during his term of office current immediately before that day be deemed to lose his qualification for being an alderman or councillor by reason of the alterations of area made by this Act.

Savings for actions contracts &c.

63.—(1) No alteration effected by this Act in the area of any local or other authority shall cause to abate or shall prejudicially affect or prevent the continuance of any action cause of action or proceeding which immediately before the appointed day is pending or existing by or against any such authority or any contract deed bond agreement or other instrument (subsisting immediately before the appointed day) entered into or made by any such authority or their predecessors :

Provided that—

(a) any action cause of action or proceeding which immediately before the appointed day is pending or existing by or against any such authority in relation exclusively to any part of the added areas may be continued prosecuted and enforced by or against the Corporation ; and

(b) all contracts deeds bonds agreements and other instruments (subsisting immediately before the appointed day) entered into or made by any such authority (or their predecessors) in relation exclusively to any part of the added areas shall continue in force as fully and effectually as if instead of such authority (or their predecessors) the Corporation had been a party thereto.

(2) All legal proceedings pending immediately before the appointed day may be amended in such manner as may be necessary or proper in consequence of this Act.

Other saving provisions.

64. Nothing in this Act shall—

(a) be construed as restricting any power under the Act of 1929 or the Act of 1933 of altering any of the areas or the constitution of any authority or committee ;

(b) alter the area of the parliamentary county of Devon or any division thereof or affect the powers of the county council under section 31 of the Representation of the People Act 1918 or any order or scheme for the division of a constituency into polling districts for parliamentary elections and the appointment of polling places for parliamentary elections ;

(c) affect the ecclesiastical divisions of any parish or prejudice vary or affect any power right interest or jurisdiction in over or in connection with any charitable endowment ;
