An Act respecting Colonial and certain other Clergy. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by divers Acts of Parliament certain disabilities are imposed on persons ordained by bishops not being bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland:

And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-two, it is enacted that the union created by Act of Parliament between the churches of England and Ireland shall be dissolved, and that enactments relating to the said United Church shall be read distributively in respect of the Church of England and the Church of Ireland:

And whereas it is desirable to amend the law respecting persons having been ordained by bishops, not being bishops of either of the said separate churches or of the said United Church, herein-after collectively called "the churches aforesaid:"

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as The Colonial Clergy Act, 1874.

Repeal of enactments in Schedule A.

2. The enactments enumerated in Schedule A. annexed to this Act are repealed, but not so as to render invalid anything lawfully done in conformity with any of them.

Colonial and certain other clergy not to officiate without permission from the archbishop;

3. Except as herein-after mentioned, no person who has been or shall be ordained priest or deacon, as the case may be, by any bishop other than a bishop of a diocese in one of the churches aforesaid shall, unless he shall hold or have previously held preferment or a curacy in England, officiate as such priest or deacon in any church or chapel in England, without written permission from the archbishop of the province in which he proposes to officiate, and without also making and subscribing so much of the declaration contained in "The Clerical Subscription Act, 1865," as follows; (that is to say,)

"I assent to the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, and to the Book of Common Prayer, "and of the ordering of bishops, priests, and deacons. I believe the doctrine of the "Church of England as therein set forth to be agreeable to the Word of God; and in "public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I, whilst ministering in England, "will use the form in the said Book prescribed and none other, except so far as shall be "ordered by lawful authority."
