EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Export of Goods (Control) (Consolidation) Order, 1956. The amendments are:—

1. Licences are no longer required to export some forms of selenium, certain types of seeds, ferro-phosphorus and ferro-silicon.

2. Licences are required to export live cattle to any port or destination on the Continent of Europe (this does not apply to exports of pedigree cattle or to exports from Northern Ireland).

3. Licences are required to export shell eggs of domestic poultry to all destinations.

4. Licences are required for the export to all destinations other than those specified in paragraph (a) of Article 5 of the principal Order of certain types of centrifugal testing apparatus, specified forms of polytetrafluoroethylene and polytrifluorochloroethylene and certain equipment designed to produce printed circuits (electronic assemblies).

5. Ghana is now expressly mentioned among the Commonwealth countries to which the exemption given by Article 5 of the principal Order applies.
