EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order further amends the Export of Goods (Control) Order 1967. Individual licences will now be required for the export from the United Kingdom of meat of bovine animals, sheep and swine, and dead poultry. Individual licences will also be required for the export from Northern Ireland to the Republic of Ireland of live cattle, sheep and swine. The export of such animals to other destinations is already prohibited.
