Diseases of Animals: Exportation of Animals.

ORDER, DATED THE 10TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1939, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE DISEASES OF ANIMALS ACTS, 1894 TO 1935.

1939. No. 109.

The Ministry of Agriculture for Northern Ireland, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in it under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1935, as amended and adapted by any subsequent enactments, and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, orders and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

1.—The following article shall be substituted for Article 2 (i) of the Exportation of Animals (Northern Ireland) Order, 1923, hereinafter called the principal Order :—

Cattle moved to a port in Northern Ireland specified in the 3rd Schedule to this Order and cattle moved from Northern Ireland to a port in Eire must if intended for shipment to Great Britain—

(a) be marked, whether by owner's private mark or otherwise, in such a way as will enable each animal to be identified on arrival in Great Britain.

(b) be accompanied by a declaration made by the consignor of the cattle or his agent in the form prescribed in the First Schedule to this Order, giving the particulars indicated in such form regarding the previous ownership of the cattle, the place and date of their purchase and the means of identifying them.

2.—The following article shall be substituted for Article 2 (ii) of the principal Order :—

It shall not be lawful to consign to a port either in Northern Ireland or Eire for shipment to Great Britain any cattle unless accompanied by such a declaration, and where the animals are consigned by railway unless the declaration bears a certificate given under the hand of the Station Master or a Constable on duty at the station of entrainment indicating the name of the station and the date of entrainment.

3.—The following article shall be substituted for Article 2 (iii) of the principal Order :—

Every declaration required by this article to accompany cattle moved to a port of shipment shall in the case of cattle moved to a port in Northern Ireland be delivered up to an Inspector of the Ministry at the proposed port of shipment when application is being made for inspection of the cattle; and in the case of cattle moved from Northern Ireland to a port of shipment in Eire, such declaration must be produced for inspection to an officer of the Ministry or any police officer on demand and copies of or extracts from it may be taken by such officer and such declaration must be delivered up to the Veterinary Inspector in charge at the port of shipment.
