EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which comes into operation on the 1st September, 1959, re-enacts with minor amendments the provisions of Articles 13 and 14 of the Animals (Miscellaneous Provisions) Order of 1927. It prescribes how the value of an animal slaughtered under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950, by the direction of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food or Secretary of State for Scotland is to be ascertained and, if the value is not agreed, provides that it shall be ascertained by arbitration. It does not apply where any enactment or statutory instrument provides any other method for ascertaining values.
