FUGITIVE CRIMINAL

The Extradition (Turks and Caicos Islands) Order 1985

Made - - - 13th February 1985

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of February 1985

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 18 of the Extradition Act 1870(a) it is among other things enacted that if, by any law or ordinance made after the passing of the said Act by the legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign state, or by any subsequent Order, direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British possession with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act:

And Whereas by section 15(1)(l) of an Ordinance enacted by the legislature of the Turks and Caicos Islands, the title of which is the Magistrates Ordinance, 1900, it is provided that all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Stipendiary or Metropolitan Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in the United Kingdom, in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals, under the Extradition Acts 1870 and 1873(b) and any Acts amending the same may in the Turks and Caicos Islands be exercised and done by a Magistrate in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 18 of the Extradition Act 1870, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct, and by this Order directs, as follows:—

1. Section 15(1)(l) of the said Ordinance of 1900 shall have effect in the Turks and Caicos Islands as if it were part of the Extradition Act 1870.

2. This Order may be cited as the Extradition (Turks and Caicos Islands) Order 1985.

G. I. de Deney,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

(a) 1870 c.52. (b) 1873 c.60.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order gives effect in the Turks and Caicos Islands to section 15(1)(l) of the Magistrates Ordinance, 1900, of those Islands as if it were part of the Extradition Act 1870. That section provides for a Magistrate of the Turks and Caicos Islands to exercise all powers vested in and do all acts authorised or required to be exercised or done by a Stipendiary or Metropolitan Magistrate or Justice of the Peace in the United Kingdom, in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the Extradition Acts.
