EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Part III of the Factories Act, 1937, as amended by the Factories Act, 1948, contains Welfare provisions relating (amongst other matters) to the provision of facilities for sitting.

Provisions on this matter are contained in the Chemical Works Regulations 1922, made under Section 79 of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901, and in a number of Welfare Orders made under Section 7 of the Police, Factories, &c. (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1916. These Regulations and Orders were continued in force by Section 159 of the Act of 1937.

This Order revokes these provisions which are no longer required in view of Part III of the Act of 1937 as amended.

FALKLAND ISLANDS

The Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1951

1951 No. 1946

Made - - - -	14th November, 1951
Laid before Parliament	15th November, 1951
Coming into Operation	On a day to be proclaimed in the Falkland Islands Government Gazette in accordance with Section 1 (2)

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of November, 1951

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1948(a) (hereinafter called "the principal Order"), as amended by the Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1950(b), provision is made for the constitution and powers of a Legislative Council for the Colony of the Falkland Islands:

And Whereas by the principal Order His Majesty reserved to Himself, His Heirs and Successors, power, with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, to amend the principal Order as to Him or Them should seem fit:

And Whereas it is expedient that the principal Order should be amended in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the British Settlements Acts, 1887 and 1945(c), and of

(a) S.I. 1948 (No. 2573) I, p. 1018. (b) S.I. 1950 (No. 1184) I, p. 683.
(c) 50 & 51 Vict. c. 54: 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 7.

all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Short title and construction

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1951, and shall be construed as one with the principal Order, and the principal Order, the Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) (Amendment) Order in Council, 1950, and this Order may be cited together as the Falkland Islands (Legislative Council) Orders in Council, 1948 to 1951.

Commencement

(2) This Order shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Gazette, which day shall not be earlier than the day after the day on which this Order shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Amendment of Section 4 of the principal Order

2. Section 4 of the principal Order shall have effect as if for paragraph (c) thereof there were substituted the following paragraph:—

"(c) Two Nominated Official Members;".

Amendment of Section 19 (1) of principal Order

3. Subsection (1) of Section 19 of the principal Order shall have effect as if the words "Save as otherwise provided in this Order" were inserted at the beginning of the subsection.

Section 21A added to principal Order

4. The following section is hereby inserted in the principal Order immediately after Section 21 thereof:—

"Governor's reserved power."

"21A.—If the Governor shall consider that it is expedient in the interests of public order, public faith or good government (which expressions shall, without prejudice to their generality, include the responsibility of the Colony as a territory within the British Commonwealth of Nations, and all matters pertaining to the creation or abolition of any public office or to the appointment, salary or other conditions of service of any public officer) that any Bill introduced, or any motion proposed, in the Council should have effect, then, if the Council fail to pass such Bill or motion within such time and in such form as the Governor may think reasonable and expedient, the Governor, at any time that he thinks fit, may, notwithstanding any provisions of this Order or of any Standing Rules and Orders of the Council, declare that such Bill or motion shall have effect as if it had been passed or carried by the Council, either in the form in which it was so introduced or proposed or with such amendments as the Governor shall think fit that have been moved or proposed in the Council, including any committee thereof; and thereupon the said Bill or motion shall be deemed to have been so passed or carried at the time when such declaration shall have been made, and the provisions of this Order, and in particular the provisions relating to assent to Bills and disallowance of laws, shall have effect accordingly.

(2) The Governor shall forthwith report to a Secretary of State every case in which he shall make any such declaration and the reasons therefor.

(3) If any Member of the Council objects to any declaration made under this Section, he may, within seven days of the making thereof, submit to the Governor a statement in writing of his reasons for so objecting, and a copy of such statement shall, if furnished by such Member, be forwarded by the Governor as soon as practicable to a Secretary of State.

(4) Any such declaration relating to a motion may be revoked by a Secretary of State and the Governor shall cause notice of such revocation to be published in the Gazette; and from the date of such publication any motion that shall have been deemed to have been carried by virtue of the declaration revoked shall cease to have effect; and the provisions of subsection (2) of Section 38 of the Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to such revocation as they apply to the repeal of an Act of Parliament."

Powers reserved to His Majesty

5. His Majesty hereby reserves to Himself, His Heirs and Successors, power, with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, to revoke, add to or amend this Order, as to Him or Them shall seem fit.

F. J. Fernau.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order in Council reduces the number of Nominated Official Members of the Legislative Council of the Colony of the Falkland Islands from three to two, and confers upon the Governor a reserved power of legislation.
