CHAPTER clxxviii.

An Act to authorise the Falmouth Docks Company to complete parts of their undertaking, to make and maintain additional works, and to raise further moneys; and for other purposes. [30th July 1874.]

A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS by "The Falmouth Docks Act, 1859," (herein called the Act of 1859,) the Falmouth Docks Company (herein called the Company) were incorporated with a capital of two hundred thousand pounds, in eight thousand shares of twenty-five pounds each, and were authorised to make and maintain wet and dry docks, a tidal harbour, slips, and other works for the reception and loading, or discharging and repairing, of shipping frequenting the port of Falmouth, to be completed within seven years from the passing of the Act, and by reason that the tidal harbour was intended to be the first constructed of the works, and would of itself form an integral work, and the expense thereof was estimated at ninety thousand pounds, therefore the Company were authorised, so soon as ninety thousand pounds, part of the capital, was subscribed for, and one half thereof paid up, to borrow on mortgage or bond not exceeding thirty thousand pounds, and when the whole of the capital was subscribed for, and one half thereof paid up, to borrow on mortgage or bond further sums not exceeding, with any sums previously so borrowed, sixty-six thousand six hundred and sixty-five pounds:

22 Vict. c. xvi.

And whereas plans and sections of the works authorised by the "Falmouth Docks Act, 1859," showing the lines and levels thereof, and the lands to be taken by the Company for the purposes thereeof, and books of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of those lands, were, previous to the application to Parliament for that Act, deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cornwall, and those plans, sections, and book of reference are in this Act referred to as the deposited plans and sections and book of reference of 1859:

A.D. 1874.

And whereas the Company proceeded to put the recited Act into execution, and made great progress towards the completion of the tidal harbour, and also executed other works:

And whereas the Company raised the sum of ninety-nine thousand eight hundred and forty-five pounds by the issue of one half of their said capital authorised by the said Act of 1859:

And whereas the Company borrowed on mortgage, under the provisions of the said Act of 1859, the sum of thirty thousand pounds:

27 & 28 Vict. c. cxxvii.

And whereas by "The Falmouth Docks Act, 1864," (herein-after called the Act of 1864,) the said Act of 1859 was (subject to certain provisions in the said Act of 1864 contained) repealed:

And whereas by the said Act of 1864 (section 36) the then authorised capital of the Company was divided into a sum of one hundred thousand pounds, called therein ordinary capital, and representing that portion of the then authorised capital of the Company which had been subscribed for, and a sum of one hundred thousand pounds, called therein further capital, and representing that portion of such authorised capital as aforesaid as had not been subscribed for, and the Company were empowered to raise additional share capital to the extent of one hundred and sixty thousand pounds:

And whereas by the said Act of 1864 the Company were authorised to make and maintain a floating dock and other accommodation for the shipping and trade of the port of Falmouth:

And whereas plans and sections of the said last-mentioned works showing the lines and levels thereof, and the lands to be taken by the Company for the purposes thereof, and books of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of those lands, were deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cornwall, and those plans, sections, and book of reference are in this Act referred to as the plans, sections, and book of reference of 1864:

And whereas, under provisions in the said Act of 1864 contained, the Company have raised fifty-four thousand seven hundred and nineteen pounds two shillings and ninepence, being a part of the said sum of one hundred thousand pounds further capital, by the creation and issue of preference shares and stock, bearing interest at five pounds per centum per annum:

And whereas, under provisions in the said Act of 1864 contained, the Company have borrowed on mortgage from the Public Works Loan Commissioners the following sums; that is to say,

£10,000, secured with interest at £3 5*s*. per cent. per annum, by a mortgage dated 4th October 1862;

And whereas the propriety of the promotion of the Bill for this Act was confirmed by an absolute majority of the whole number of the Local Board for the said district of Ealing at a further special meeting held in pursuance of a similar notice not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill in Parliament:

And whereas the owners and ratepayers of the district of Ealing, by resolution in the manner provided in the Local Government Act, 1858, for the adoption of that Act, consented to the promotion of the Bill for this Act:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Ealing Highways Act, 1874."

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act, except any provision thereof which is declared to take effect on the passing of this Act, shall commence and come into operation on the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Repeal of 7 G. 3, c. 75.

3. From and after the time appointed for the commencement of this Act, the Act of 1767 shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that the Trustees may (from time to time and at any time before the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, but not after that day,) recover any rate made by them before the time appointed for the commencement of this Act under the authority of the Act of 1767, and which is unpaid at the time appointed for the commencement of this Act, in the same manner in every respect as if this Act had not been passed, and the money so recovered shall be applied by the Trustees in the first instance in reimbursing themselves any expenses incurred by them, and in discharging any debts legally owing by them as such Trustees in the execution of the purposes of the Act of 1767, and the surplus (if any) shall be paid and applied in the following manner; (that is to say,) first, in repayment, by payment to the treasurer of the Local Board, of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred and paid by the Local Board under this Act in defraying the costs, charges, and expenses of promoting and passing this Act, and in payment of the costs, charges, and expenses of the Trustees of and in relation to the passing of this Act; secondly, in the manner following; (that is to say,) the balance (if any) after making thereout the aforesaid payments, shall be equally divided, and one moiety thereof shall be paid to the treasurer of the Local Board for the district of Ealing, and shall be carried to the district fund account, and applied by the Local Board in aid of their general district rate, and the other moiety thereof shall be paid to the treasurer of the Local Board for the district of Brentford, and shall be carried to the district fund account of such last-mentioned Local Board, and applied by such last-mentioned Local Board in aid of their general district rate.

Local Board for the district of Ealing within district to be surveyors of highways.

4. From and after the time appointed for the commencement of this Act the Local Board for the district of Ealing within the limits of their district shall, exclusively of any other person whatsoever, execute the office of and be surveyor of highways, and for such purpose shall have all the powers, authorities, duties, and liabilities which but for the provisions of the Act of 1767 would respectively have been vested in and might have been exercised by them, and to which they would have been subject by reason and in virtue of their being the Local Board for the district of Ealing under the provisions of the Sanitary Acts, as the same are defined by the Public Health Act, 1872; and the inhabitants of the said district shall not in respect of any property situate therein be liable to the payment of highway rates, or to any other payment not being a toll, in respect of making or repairing any roads or highways within any part of the district of the Local Board for the district of Brentford: Provided always, that within the district of the Local Board for the district of Brentford the Trustees may and they are hereby authorised to exercise all the powers of the Act of 1767 (other than the powers conferred thereby of making a rate) until the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Local Board for the district of Brentford within district to be surveyors of highways.

5. From and after the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the Local Board for the district of Brentford within the limits of their district shall, exclusively of any other persons whatsoever, execute the office of and be surveyors of highways, and for such purpose shall have all the powers, authorities, duties, and liabilities which, but for the provisions of the Act of 1767, would respectively have been vested in and might have been exercised by them, and to which they would have been subject by reason and in virtue of their being the Local Board for the district of Brentford under the provisions of the Sanitary Acts, as the same are defined by "The Public Health Act, 1872," and the inhabitants of the said last-mentioned district shall

£10,000, secured with interest at the same rate, by a mortgage dated 12th January 1863;

£10,000, secured with interest at the same rate, by a mortgage dated the 22nd day of June 1863;

£20,000, secured with interest at the same rate, by a mortgage dated the 5th day of December 1865:

And whereas default having been made in payment of certain interest and instalments of principal money which became payable under the mortgages herein-before mentioned, or one of them, the Public Works Loan Commissioners issued their warrant, dated the 26th November 1867, under the hands and seals of three of the Commissioners, authorising their secretary or his appointees to take possession of the property of the Company comprised in the herein-before mentioned mortgages, and receive the rates, tolls, and income thereof; and the Public Works Loan Commissioners, by their secretary, thereupon entered into, and have since remained, and are now in possession of the property and undertaking of the Company, and receipt of the rates, tolls, and income thereof:

And whereas there now remain unpaid, in respect of the several sums secured by the herein-before mentioned mortgages, the sums following; that is to say,

Under the mortgage of the 4th October 1862, the principal sum of £9,254 6*s.* 10*d.*, with interest thereon from the 4th day of October 1866;

Under the mortgage of the 12th January 1863, the principal sum of £9,246 10*s.* 1*d.*, with interest thereon from the 12th day of January 1867;

Under the mortgage of the 22nd June 1863, the principal sum of £9,245 10*s.* 6*d.*, with interest thereon from the 22nd day of June 1867;

Under the mortgage of the 5th December 1865, the sum of £19,626 17*s.*, with interest thereon from the 5th day of December 1866:

And whereas the Public Works Loan Commissioners have, since they entered into possession of the property and undertaking of the Company, advanced for the purposes of the undertaking of the Company the several sums herein-after mentioned, whereof there now remains due for principal and interest the respective sums herein-after specified; that is to say,

The Commissioners advanced,—

(1.) The sum of £8,500, the whole of which, with the interest thereon, has been repaid;

(2.) The sum of £5,000, the whole of which, with the interest thereon, has been repaid;

A.D. 1874.

(3.) The sum of £5,000, the whole of which, with the interest thereon, has been repaid;

(4.) The sum of £2,000, whereof the sum of £268 14*s.* 9*d.*, with interest thereon at the rate of £3 5*s.* per cent. per annum from the 27th day of June 1874, remains unpaid:

And whereas the Public Works Loan Commissioners have, by their secretary, since they entered into possession of the Company's property and undertaking, executed, made, and done divers works, leases, agreements, acts, and things necessary or expedient to be executed, made, and done in the management of the property and undertaking of the Company:

And whereas the said Act of 1864 contained other provisions and conferred certain rights and privileges on the Company:

And whereas the undertaking of the Company is still incomplete, and it is expedient that further time should be given for the completion of the same, and also that the Company should be empowered to carry out certain other works, and to make, perform, and do certain arrangements, matters, and things in connexion therewith:

And whereas plans and sections of the works intended to be hereby authorised, showing the lines and levels thereof, and the lands to be taken by the Company for the purposes thereof, and book of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of those lands, have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cornwall, and those plans, sections, and book of reference are herein called the plans, sections, and book of reference of 1874:

And whereas the Company have been unable to raise the residue of their capital as the same was fixed and authorised by the said Act of 1864, and it is expedient that fresh provision should be made for the regulation of their capital, and for facilitating the raising of the residue thereof, and for the regulation of the borrowing powers of the Company:

And whereas the consent in writing of preference shareholders in the Company holding not less than three fourths in value of the total amount of the preference capital of the Company issued previous to the passing of this Act has been obtained to the provisions of this Act authorising the raising of further capital by the creation and issue of pre-preference shares or stock of the Company:

And whereas it is expedient that the Company should be empowered to levy the rates and dues in this Act authorised, and to vary, as herein is provided, the tolls, rates, and duties authorised by the said Act of 1864:

And whereas it is expedient that for these purposes the said Act of 1864 should (subject to the provisions of this Act) be repealed, and parts thereof re-enacted with amendments, and that divers new enactments with regard to the Company, its capital and its undertaking, should be made:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short title.

1. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "Falmouth Docks Act, 1874."

8 & 9 Vict. cc. 16., 18., 20. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27., 23 & 24 Vict. c. 106., 26 & 27 Vict. cc. 92., 118., and 32 & 33 Vict. c. 18. incorporated.

2. "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and Part I. (relating to cancellation and surrender of shares), and Part II. (relating to additional capital), and Part III. (relating to debenture stock) of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and Part I. (relating to construction of a railway) and Part II. (relating to extension of time) of "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," (save so far as any of the sections and provisions of those Acts and parts respectively are expressly excepted or varied by this Act,) are incorporated with and form part of this Act.

Provision as to part of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27.

3. The provisions "with respect to life boats," and "with respect to keeping a tide and weather gauge," of "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," shall not be in force with respect to the Company, unless and except only so far as the Board of Trade from time to time prescribe compliance with the same.

Same meanings to words in incorporated Acts as in this Act.

4. The several words and expressions to which by the Acts in whole or in part incorporated with this Act meanings are assigned have in this Act the same respective meanings, unless excluded by the subject or context; provided that the expression "superior courts" or "court of competent jurisdiction," or any like expression in this Act, shall be read and have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which the expression is used were a common simple contract debt, and not a debt or demand created by statute; and the words "share" and "shareholders" shall include, when requisite, "stock" and "stockholders;" provided also, that the expression "the railway" and "the work" in the provisions "with respect to "the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the con"struction thereof" of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and in sections four and thirteen to twenty-one, both inclusive, of "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," respectively incorporated with this Act, shall include the docks and works by the recited Act and this Act respectively authorised.

Commencement of Act.

5. This Act shall commence and have effect on and after the third Wednesday next after the passing thereof.

Recited Act repealed.

6. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the recited Act of 1864 is by this Act repealed.

Company to remain incorporated.

7. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, the Company shall for the purposes of this Act, and as from the passing of the recited Act, remain incorporated by the name of "The Falmouth Docks Company," and by that name shall continue and be one body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to purchase, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property for the purposes but subject to the restrictions of this Act, and in all respects to carry this Act into execution.

Company to remain entitled to property.

8. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, the Company shall remain and be seised and possessed of and entitled to all the docks, works, buildings, lands, estates, moneys, property, effects, claims, and demands whatsoever of or to which the Company were by virtue of the recited Act, or otherwise howsoever, immediately before the commencement of this Act, seised, possessed, or in any way entitled at law or in equity, or otherwise howsoever, with the appurtenances, as if this Act were not passed.

9. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, all the provisions of any and every Act of Parliament relating to the Company, and their directors, officers, and servants, and immediately before the commencement of this Act in force, shall be of the like force as if the repeal of the recited Act had not happened, and may be exercised, enforced, and enjoyed by and against the Company, and their directors, officers, and servants respectively, accordingly.

General saving of rights under Acts relating to Company.

10. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, everything before the repeal thereof done, suffered, and confirmed respectively by or under the recited Act shall be as valid as if the repeal of the recited Act had not happened, and the repeal thereof and the operation of this Act respectively shall accordingly be subject and without prejudice to any and every thing so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively, and to all rights, liabilities, claims, and demands, both present and future, which if this Act were not passed would be incident to or consequent on any and every thing so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively; provided that the generality of this provision shall not be restricted or affected by any of the other provisions of this Act.

Contracts, &c. preserved.

11. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all purchases, sales, conveyances, securities, and contracts before the commencement of this Act made under the recited Act, or with reference to any of the purposes thereof, shall be as effectual to all intents for, against, and with respect to the Company as if this Act had not been passed, and may be proceeded on and enforced accordingly.

Rates, &c. due to be paid to Company.

12. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all rates and dues immediately before the commencement of this Act due and payable or accruing to the Company shall be payable to and may be collected and recovered by the Company in like manner as any rates or dues recoverable by the Company under this Act.

Debts to be paid to and by Company.

13. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all persons who immediately before the commencement of this Act owed any money to the Company, or to any person on their behalf, shall pay the same, with all interest (if any) due and payable or accruing for the same, to the Company, and all moneys which immediately before the commencement of this Act were owing by or recoverable from the Company, or for the payment of which they were or but for this Act would be liable, shall be paid, with all interest (if any) due and payable or accruing for the same, by or be recoverable from the Company.

Deposited plans to remain with clerk of peace.

14. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all plans and books of reference, and all corrections and certificates of correction thereof, respectively deposited for any of the purposes of the recited Act with any clerk of the peace, shall remain in his custody as if they were deposited for the purposes of this Act, and in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the first year of Her present Majesty, chapter 83, and every such clerk of the peace shall permit the same to be inspected, and copies of or extracts therefrom to be taken accordingly.

Money paid into bank, &c. to be applied under recited Act.

15. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, in every case in which under that Act any money was before the commencement of this Act paid into the Bank of England or to any trustee or trustees as purchase or compensation money, or on any account, the money so paid, or the stocks, funds, or securities in or upon which the same is from time to time, by the order of the Court of Chancery or otherwise, invested, and the interest, dividends, and annual produce thereof, shall, after the commencement of this Act, be applied and disposed of pursuant to the recited Act.

Certificates, &c. of shares to remain.

16. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all certificates, sales, transfers, and dispositions before the commencement of this Act made or executed with respect to any shares shall, for the purposes of this Act, remain in full force, and continue and be available in all respects.

Resolutions, &c. continued.

17. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all resolutions, orders, and proceedings of general meetings and boards of directors which immediately before the commencement of this Act were binding on the Company, or their shareholders, directors, officers, or servants, or any of them, shall remain in full force, and continue and be in like manner and to the like extent binding on the Company, and their shareholders, directors, officers, and servants, accordingly.

Byelaws continued.

18. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all byelaws of the Company made before the commencement of this Act, and then in force, shall, for the purposes of this Act, but (unless sooner re-enacted under this Act) not longer than twelve months after the commencement of this Act, continue and be in full force as if they were byelaws made under this Act, and the byelaws may be enforced, and all proceedings thereon may be continued or taken, and all penalties thereunder may be recovered accordingly.

Books, &c. continued evidence.

19. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, all books and writings and documents by the recited Act directed or authorised to be kept, and which, if the repeal thereof had not happened, would be receivable in evidence, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts of law and equity and elsewhere accordingly.

Officers continued.

20. Notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, every officer and servant appointed by virtue of or acting under the authority of that Act shall hold and enjoy his office and employment, with the salary thereunto annexed, and be deemed an officer and servant of the Company, until he be removed from the office and employment, and he shall have the like power and authority for the purposes of this Act, and be subject to the like power of removal, rules, regulations, pains, and penalties in all respects whatsoever as if he were appointed under this Act.

First and subsequent ordinary meetings.

21. The first ordinary meeting of the Company after the commencement of this Act shall be held within three months after the commencement thereof, and the subsequent ordinary meetings of the Company shall be held half-yearly, in the months of February and August in every year, or at such other times as a general meeting specially convened for the purpose may from time to time determine; and all meetings of the Company shall be held at Falmouth, or at such other places as the directors may from time to time appoint.

Quorum of general meetings.

22. The quorum for every general meeting of the Company shall be fifteen shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than five thousand pounds of the capital.

Power to shareholders to require extraordinary meeting.

23. The number of shareholders competent to require the directors to call an extraordinary meeting of the Company, or in default thereof to call the meeting, shall be ten shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than ten thousand pounds of the capital.

Scale of voting.

24. Except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, every shareholder shall have one vote in respect of every entire twenty-five pounds of the paid-up capital held by him, whether ordinary or preferential: Provided that, except so far as the Company, before the issue of any preferential shares or preferential stock, or pre-preferential shares or pre-preferential stock, created by them under this Act, otherwise determine, no preferential share or preferential stock, or pre-preferential share or pre-preferential stock, created or issued by the Company under this Act shall confer any right of voting or any qualification.

Number and qualification of directors.

25. The number of directors of the Company shall be not more than nine, and the qualification of a director shall be the possession in his own right of at least one thousand pounds of the capital.

Quorum of directors.

26. The quorum of a meeting of directors shall be three.

Committees of directors.

27. The number of directors of which committees appointed by the directors shall consist shall be at least three directors, and the quorum of the respective committees shall be that which the directors at the time of appointing the respective committees determine.

First directors.

28. Howard Fox, Sir Leopold Heath, Alexander Young, Robert Richards Broad, and William Philip Dymond, and four persons to be nominated by them or the majority of them, and consenting to such nomination, shall be the first directors of the Company after the commencement of this Act.

Rotation of first directors.

29. The first directors shall retire from office at the first ordinary meeting after the passing of this Act, and each director so retiring shall be re-eligible.

A.D. 1874.

Newspaper for advertisements.

30. The newspaper for advertisements shall be any newspaper published or circulated in the county of Cornwall.

Capital.

31. On and after the commencement of this Act the capital of the Company shall be the aggregate of the following amounts; (that is to say,)

(A.) One hundred thousand pounds ordinary capital, representing so much of the Company's authorised capital of two hundred thousand pounds under the recited Act of 1859 as had been subscribed for previous to the passing of the said recited Act of 1864:

(B.) One hundred thousand pounds further capital, representing so much of the Company's authorised capital of two hundred thousand pounds under the said recited Act of 1859 as had not been subscribed for previous to the passing of the said recited Act of 1864, but of which the sum of fifty-four thousand seven hundred and nineteen pounds two shillings and ninepence has since been raised by preference shares and stock, bearing interest at five pounds per centum per annum, under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, as in this Act is recited:

(C.) One hundred and sixty thousand pounds additional capital, by the said recited Act of 1864 authorised.

Shares vested in present shareholders.

32. The Company's ordinary capital of one hundred thousand pounds, and so much of the said further capital of one hundred thousand pounds as has been so raised as aforesaid, is by this Act appropriated to the several persons who immediately before the commencement of this Act were the shareholders of the Company, and the shares of such ordinary capital and further capital respectively are by this Act vested in those shareholders respectively, after the rate of one of those shares for every one share of the Company's ordinary capital of one hundred thousand pounds and further capital of one hundred thousand pounds respectively which immediately before the commencement of this Act was vested in them respectively, and shall be deemed paid up to the extent to which those shares respectively were immediately before the commencement of this Act paid up.

Shares so vested to be subject to same trusts, &c. as present shares.

33. The shares by this Act so vested in those shareholders respectively shall be vested in them respectively upon the same trusts, and subject to the same powers, provisions, conditions, agreements, charges, and incumbrances, as those upon or to which their respective shares of the Company's capital, under the recited Acts of 1859 and 1864, or either of them, were immediately before the commencement of this Act held or subject, and so as to give effect to and not to revoke any will or testamentary or other instrument disposing of or affecting any of those shares.

Subscriptions for shares to be paid.

34. The several persons who immediately before the commencement of this Act were the shareholders of the Company, their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns respectively, shall, in respect of the shares by this Act so vested in them respectively, pay the amount subscribed by them respectively, or so much thereof as immediately before the commencement of this Act was not paid, with all interest (if any) due or to accrue due thereon, to the Company when and as the same is called up or otherwise duly demanded by the Company.

Old certificates of shares to serve for new shares.

35. The certificates of the Company's said ordinary capital of one hundred thousand pounds, and of so much of the said further capital of one hundred thousand pounds as has been so raised as aforesaid, existing at the commencement of this Act, shall be the certificates of the Company's said ordinary capital of one hundred thousand pounds, and of so much of the said further capital as aforesaid under this Act, and it shall not be obligatory on the Company to issue fresh certificates of such capital, except in cases where the certificates are worn out, damaged, lost, or destroyed, or the shares represented by the certificates are hereafter converted into stock.

Power to create and issue additional and further capital.

36. The Company may from time to time raise the whole or so much of the residue of the said further capital of one hundred thousand pounds remaining unsubscribed for at the passing of this Act, and the whole or so much of the said one hundred and sixty thousand pounds additional capital, as they may from time to time determine, and further may, as they may from time to time determine, raise the same respectively, or any part or parts thereof, by the creation and issue of new shares or new stock, either ordinary or preferential, to rank pari passu, as to dividends, with the existing ordinary or preferential shares or stock of the Company; or the Company may from time to time raise the whole or so much of such further capital and additional capital as they may from time to time determine by the creation and issue of pre-preferential shares or stock, to take priority, as to interest or dividend, over all other classes of stocks or shares of the Company, and may dispose of the same to such persons, in such manner, and on such terms and conditions as the Company may think advantageous to themselves: Provided always, that such pre-preference shares or stock shall not bear a higher rate of interest than six pounds per cent. per annum, and shall not be issued at a discount exceeding the rate of twenty per cent.: Provided also, that such further capital and additional capital as aforesaid, as and when the same shall be from time to time created, shall be in the first instance offered to the existing holders of the capital of the Company, ordinary or preferential alike, rateably according to their respective holdings, as near as may be: Provided also, that it shall not be lawful for the Company to issue any share or stock certificate in respect of any part of such further capital or additional capital as aforesaid, nor shall any such share or stock certificate vest in any person accepting the same, unless and until a sum not being less than one fifth of the amount of such share shall have been paid up in respect thereof.

Power to create and issue pre-preference stock to creditors in discharge of debts.

37. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, it shall be lawful for the Company to create and issue to such of the creditors of the Company who shall consent thereto pre-preference stock or shares in the Company, to be created and issued under the provisions of this Act in that behalf contained, to the amount and in discharge of the several sums due to such creditors respectively, and to the amount (if any) which, in addition to such sums, may be due to them respectively for interest thereon, at the rate of £5 per centum per annum.

Company's existing mortgage debt to be deemed created under Act.

38. Save as in this Act mentioned, the Company's mortgage debt of fifty thousand pounds shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be mortgage debt contracted by the Company under the provisions of this Act.

Power to borrow on mortgage.

39. The Company may from time to time borrow on mortgage the following sums; (that is to say,)

(A.) When the sum of eighty thousand pounds, part of the said further capital of one hundred thousand pounds, shall have been issued and accepted, and half of the same shall have been actually paid up, the Company may borrow in respect thereof any sums not exceeding the sum of twenty-six thousand six hundred pounds:

(B.) When the whole of the residue of the Company's capital as fixed by this Act has been issued and accepted, and one half of such residue has been actually paid up, the Company may borrow any sum not exceeding (inclusive of the said sum of fifty thousand pounds already borrowed, and the said sum of twenty-six thousand six hundred pounds) the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand pounds:

Provided that, notwithstanding anything in "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," contained, the Company may raise all or any part or parts of the money which for the time being they have raised or are authorised to raise on mortgage by the creation and issue of debenture stock at the fixed preferential interest of not exceeding the rate of five pounds per centum per annum, payable half-yearly.

Restrictions on borrowing.

40. Provided that the Company shall not borrow under this Act any sum in addition to their said present mortgage debt of fifty thousand pounds until shares for so much of the further capital as is to be raised by means of shares are issued and accepted, and one half of such capital is paid up, and the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the 40th section of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," before he so certifies, that shares for the whole of such capital have been issued and accepted, and that one half of such capital has been paid up, and that not less than one fifth part of the amount of each separate share in such capital has been paid on account thereof before or at the time of the issue or acceptance thereof, and until stock for one half of so much of the said further capital as is to be raised by means of stock is fully paid up, and the Company have proved to such justice as aforesaid, before he so certifies, that such shares or stock, as the case may be, were issued and accepted, and paid up bonâ fide, and are held by the persons or corporations to whom the same were issued, or their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, and also, if the said capital is raised by shares, that such persons or corporations, or their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, are legally liable for the same; and upon production to such justice of the books of the Company, and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient, he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given, which certificate shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

Priority of existing mortgages.

41. Provided that all mortgages granted by the Company before the commencement of this Act, and then in force, including the said mortgages of £50,000, shall while in force have priority to all mortgages granted by the Company under this Act.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a receiver.

42. The mortgagees of the Company may enforce the payment of the arrears of interest or principal, or principal and interest, due on their respective mortgages by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the mortgagees when the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than ten thousand pounds in the whole.

Interest not to be paid on calls paid up.

43. The Company shall not, out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised by them by shares or by borrowing, pay interest or dividend to any shareholder on the amount of the calls made in respect of the shares held by him; provided that the

A.D. 1874.

Company may pay to any shareholder such interest on money advanced by him beyond the amount of the calls actually made as is in conformity with the provisions in that behalf of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," incorporated with this Act.

Deposits for future Bills not to be paid out of capital.

44. The Company shall not, out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised by them by shares or by borrowing, pay or deposit any sum of money which, by any standing orders of either House of Parliament now or hereafter in force, is required to be deposited in respect of any application to Parliament for an Act authorising the Company to construct any work other than those by the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, or by this Act authorised.

Application of moneys.

45. All moneys raised by the Company under this Act by shares or by borrowing shall be applied only for purposes of this Act.

Power to take and use lands for purposes of Act.

46. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company from time to time may enter upon, take, and use, for purposes of this Act, such of their own lands, and such of the lands shown on the deposited plans and specified in the deposited books of reference of 1874, as they think expedient.

Powers for compulsory purchases limited.

47. The powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years after the passing of this Act.

Lands for extraordinary purposes.

48. The Company, by agreement, from time to time may purchase any quantity of land, not exceeding in the whole ten acres, for any of the extraordinary purposes authorised by "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," respectively.

Power to complete and maintain works authorised by recited Acts.

49. Notwithstanding the repeal or expiration of the powers of the recited Acts of 1859 and 1864, or either of them, any or all of the works which by either of the recited Acts are required or authorised to be executed or completed by the Company, and which at the commencement of this Act are not executed or completed, may be executed or completed by the Company, and they shall have all such powers for executing or completing and maintaining the same as the Company had under the recited Acts or either of them; but nothing in this section contained shall authorise the Company to compulsorily purchase any lands requisite or necessary for the carrying into execution of any of the powers by the said recited Acts authorised.

Power to make and maintain

50. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company may make and maintain the works by this Act authorised in the lands delineated on the deposited plans and sections, and specified in the deposited books of reference of 1874, and, so far as the lines and levels thereof are shown on those deposited plans and sections, in the lines and in accordance with the levels so shown.

works authorised by Act.

51. The works by this Act authorised comprise the following works, with all proper and sufficient accommodation and conveniences connected therewith:

Works authorised by Act.

(A.) The completion of so much of the existing Western Wharf of the Company, commencing at the northern end thereof, and terminating at a point two hundred yards, drawn in a northerly direction, north of the point of commencement, as has not been already completed:

(B.) The completion of the existing northern breakwater by extending the same in an easterly direction for a distance of two hundred and eighty-five yards:

(C.) A sea wall or wharf, with all requisite works and conveniences in connexion therewith, commencing at a point at or near the south-eastern extremity of the existing docks, harbour, and works of the Company, and terminating at a point distant four hundred and thirty yards, drawn in a south-easterly direction, from the point of commencement thereof as aforesaid:

(D.) A pier or breakwater, commencing at the point of termination of the sea wall lastly herein-before described, passing thence into the sea in a north-easterly direction, and terminating at a point one hundred yards from the commencement thereof as aforesaid:

(E.) The construction of a pier or jetty extending from the south end of the existing Western Wharf of the Company for a length of two hundred feet or thereabouts:

(F.) The erection, making, and construction of graving docks, wharves, quays, and slips in the tidal basin of the Company or adjoining thereto, with warehouses, sheds, railways, and all requisite works and conveniences in connexion therewith:

(G.) The making and maintenance upon lands for the time being belonging to them sidings, tramways, junctions, and other works for connecting their docks, harbours, piers, wharves, quays, railways, tramways, works, and conveniences with the railways and works of any railway or any other company, all which works will be made in Budock, Falmouth, the town and borough of Falmouth, and Falmouth Harbour, all in the county of Cornwall, or some of them.

A.D. 1874.

Lateral and vertical deviations.

52. In the execution of the works the Company may from time to time deviate from the lines and levels of the works as shown on the plans and sections of 1859, 1864, and 1874 respectively, laterally to any extent not exceeding the limits of deviation shown on those plans respectively, and vertically to any extent not exceeding five feet from the levels shown on those sections respectively: Provided always, that no deviation shall be made from the lines of the works as shown on the plans of 1874, even within the limits of deviation shown thereon, in such manner as to diminish the navigable space, except in such manner as may be from time to time expressly authorised by the Board of Trade.

Period for completion of works.

53. The several works by this Act authorised, including the works originally authorised by the recited Acts of 1859 and 1864, shall be completed within seven years after the passing of this Act, and at the expiration of that period the powers of the Company under this Act for making the same, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

Expiration of period not to prevent dredging, &c.

54. Provided that, notwithstanding the expiration of the period by this Act limited for the completion of the works, the Company from time to time, in connexion with such of the works as are then completed, may execute all such works of dredging and scouring, and may make and maintain all such incidental extensions and enlargements of and additions to the works so completed, and all such accommodations and conveniences connected therewith, as the Company find requisite.

No entrance to docks except on plans to be made without consent of Board of Trade.

55. No entrance from the sea to the docks shall be made other than the entrance shown on the deposited plans without the previous sanction of the Board of Trade, signified in writing under the hand of one of their secretaries or assistant secretaries.

Works on Crown lands to be approved by Secretary for War.

56. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise the Company to make any erection or work of any kind whatsoever upon any land belonging to Her Majesty until after a plan and specification thereof are submitted to and approved by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War.

Power to let land for the construction of warehouses and other buildings.

57. The Company from time to time may demise or lease to any person, for the purpose of building or establishing thereon any warehouse, foundry, shipbuilding establishment, or other building or work connected with the Company's undertaking, any land of the Company not required for any work to be carried out by the Company, and every such lease may be for such period, and on such terms and conditions, and at such annual or other rent, as the parties agree on.

Power to license erection of warehouses, &c.

58. The Company from time to time may license any person to make, maintain, and use on any part of the Company's lands any warehouse, ironfoundry, shipbuilding establishment, building, or work connected with the Company's undertaking; and every such license may be for such period, and on such terms and conditions, pecuniary and otherwise, as the parties agree on, and the lands so from time to time so used shall be deemed to be so used for purposes of the Company's undertaking.

Power to appoint harbour-master, meters, and weighers, &c.

59. The Company from time to time may appoint, suspend, and remove such harbour-master, dock-master, and pier-master, and such meters and weighers, at the harbour, dock, and works, and such other officers and servants, as the Company think requisite.

Limits for harbour-master, &c.

60. The limits within which the powers of the Company's harbour-master, dock-master, or pier-master, for the regulations of the Company's harbour, dock, and pier, shall be exercised, are the harbour, dock, entrance channel, works, and property of the Company, and a distance of one hundred yards in every direction from the same respectively.

Harbour rates on shipping.

61. The Company from time to time may demand and take for every vessel entering within the Company's tidal harbour from the sea, or lying alongside or using any wharf, pier, breakwater, or landing-place belonging to the Company, any sum not exceeding threepence for every register ton of the vessel.

Remission of portion of harbour rates on shipping.

62. Provided that the Company from time to time may confer exemptions from such portion as they think fit of the harbour rates on shipping in the following cases; (that is to say,)

(A.) Where the vessel does not exceed one hundred tons burden:

(B.) Where the vessel passes from the tidal harbour into the Company's dock:

(C.) Where the vessel is propelled by steam, and has in the course of the current year entered the tidal harbour not less than fifteen times:

(D.) Where the vessel is not propelled by steam, and has in the course of the current year entered the tidal harbour not less than seven times:

(E.) Where the vessel is propelled by steam, and enters the tidal harbour for the purposes of landing mails only, or of coaling only:

(F.) Where the vessel remains in the tidal harbour or at the Company's works less than forty-eight hours:

Provided that every such exemption shall be made equally to all persons in respect of all vessels falling within the same.

A.D. 1874.

Dock rates on shipping as in Schedule (A.)

63. The Company from time to time, in addition to the harbour rates on shipping, may demand and take for every vessel entering the Company's dock, for every register ton of the vessel, such dock rates on shipping as the Company think fit, not exceeding the dock rates on shipping specified in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed.

Additional harbour and dock rates on vessels remaining more than two weeks.

64. If any vessel remain in the tidal harbour or dock, or lie alongside or use any wharf, pier, breakwater, or landing-place of the Company for any time longer in the whole than two weeks, the Company may demand and take, in addition to the other harbour rates on shipping, and dock rates on shipping, for every vessel so remaining a further harbour rate or dock rate, not exceeding, for every ton measurement of the vessel, twopence a ton for every week the vessel so remains beyond two weeks.

Wharfage rates on goods as in Schedule (B.)

65. The Company may demand and take for all goods specified in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed which are shipped or unshipped, or transhipped, or received, or delivered within any harbour, dock, cut, basin, or entrance, or upon or from any wharf, quay, breakwater, staith, spout, drop, pier, or like work within the limits of this Act belonging to the Company, any sums not exceeding the wharfage rates on goods specified in that schedule with respect to those goods respectively, and as to all such goods not specified in that schedule the Company may demand and take wharfage rates equal to the wharfage rates from time to time payable in respect of goods of like nature, package, and quality.

Additional wharfage rates on goods remaining on wharf, &c. beyond 24 hours.

66. If any goods remain on any pier, quay, wharf, landing-place, or other work of the Company for more than twenty-four hours after the time when the goods are placed thereon, the Company may demand and take in respect of every successive period of twenty-four hours during which the goods remain thereon after the first twenty-four hours any sum not exceeding the amount of the rates on goods specified in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed.

Dues for passengers and luggage and walking on pier as in Schedule (C.)

67. The Company from time to time may demand and take in respect of every person embarking on board any vessel or boat from any of the works of the Company, or disembarking thereat, or walking on any of the piers or landing-places of the Company, and in respect of all luggage so embarked or landed, any sums not exceeding the several dues specified in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, and, if and when the Company think fit, those dues shall be paid before the respective landing or embarking or walking is permitted to take place.

Rates for use of graving docks, slips,

68. The Company from time to time may demand and take for every vessel entering into any dry or graving dock of the Company for the purpose of being repaired, or lying therein, or departing therefrom, and also for every vessel built in any dry or graving dock of the Company, or drawn or hauled up on any inclined plane or slip of the Company, or placed on any gridiron or in any saucer of the Company, and also for the use of the engines, falls, slings, staging, shores, shears, and other machinery and apparatus of the Company, or any of them, such reasonable rates as the Company from time to time appoint.

69. The Company from time to time may demand and take for the use of their warehouses, cranes, and weighing and measuring machines, from the owner or person having the charge of any goods deposited in the warehouses, or loaded or unloaded, weighed or measured by means of the cranes or weighing or measuring machines, such reasonable rates as the Company, with the approval of the Board of Trade, from time to time appoint.

Rates for use of warehouses, cranes, weighing machines, &c.

70. The Company may provide and use such steam engines, vessels, piling engines, diving bells, dredging engines, ballast lighters, rubbish lighters, and other machinery and vessels as they think expedient for any of the purposes of this Act, and may demand and take such reasonable sums for the use of the same as they from time to time appoint.

Rates for use of engines, &c. provided by Company.

71. The Company from time to time may make such reasonable charges as they think fit for services rendered by them in respect of building and repairing ships, shipping, unshipping, transhipping, landing, relanding, housing, unhousing, weighing, coopering, sampling, piling, unpiling, loading, unloading, watching, protecting, repairing, collecting, and delivering goods, and for any other services with respect to ships or goods at their harbour, dock, quays, or works, and the Company may render any such services when they think proper.

Charges for services rendered by Company, &c.

72. The several rates by this Act granted shall be payable from and after the commencement of this Act, but as regards the harbour rates and dock rates in respect only of such parts of the Company's harbour, dock, quays, and other works as from time to time are so far completed as to be fit for use.

Rates payable from commencement of Act.

73. In addition to the remedies given by "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," incorporated with this Act, for the recovery of the rates and dues by this Act authorised to be demanded and taken by the Company, they may recover the rates and dues as follows; (that is to say,)

Recovery of rates, &c.

Any rates which the Company may demand and take in respect of any vessel may be recovered from the owner or master of the vessel, and any rates or dues which the Company may demand and take in respect of goods may be recovered from the owner or consignee of the goods; and in every such case the rates or dues may be recovered by the Company in any court of competent jurisdiction, and for the recovery of rates on goods the Company shall be deemed to be "wharf owners" and "warehouse owners" within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Acts Amendment Act, 1862."

A.D. 1874.

Power to compound for rates.

74. The Company may from time to time, if and when they think fit, compound for any time not exceeding one year with the owners of any vessels resorting to and using the Company's harbour, dock, or works for the payment of such sum as the Company think sufficient by way of composition for and in discharge of all or any of the harbour rates, dock rates, rates on goods, dues on passengers, or other rates or dues by this Act made payable in respect of vessels, and passengers and cargo conveyed therein, and such composition money shall be recoverable as rates: Provided that whenever any such composition is made with any such owner, it may be adopted and demanded by the owners of any other like vessels resorting to and using, in like circumstances, the Company's harbour, dock, or works, and no such composition shall be made partially in favour of or against any particular persons.

Tolls on Company's railways as on Cornwall Railway.

75. Subject to the provisions of the several Acts from time to time in force with respect to the Cornwall Railway, and applicable in that behalf, the Company from time to time in respect of the several short lines of railway or sidings made and maintained on their wharves or other lands, and connected with the Cornwall Railway, may demand and take for all passengers, animals, and things conveyed thereon, and for carriages, waggons, and trucks respectively provided by the Company and conveying the same, and for locomotive engines or other power provided by the Company for the same, and for all services performed by the Company thereon, and for all other matters with respect to traffic thereon, a like amount of tolls, fares, rates, and other charges as by the several Acts from time to time in force with respect to the Cornwall Railway are authorised to be demanded and taken for like traffic, services, and matters on or with respect to the Cornwall Railway.

Limit of tolls on Company's railways.

76. Provided that where, by any Act from time to time in force with respect to the Cornwall Railway, the maximum of the tolls, fares, rates, or charges to be taken in respect thereof is fixed, then the same shall be the maximum of the tolls, fares, rates, or charges to be taken in respect of the Company's lines of railway: Provided also, that in calculating the amount of the tolls, fares, rates, and charges to be demanded and taken by the Company in respect of their lines of railway, those lines shall be considered as being of the length of six miles.

Increased railway tolls by agreement.

77. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the Company from taking in respect of their lines of railway any increased charge, over and above the charges by this Act authorised, for the conveyance of carriages, animals, or things of any description by agreement with the owners or persons in charge of the same, either with respect to the conveyance of the same (except small parcels) by passenger trains, or by reason of any special service (other than the conveyance of the same) performed by the Company with respect to the same.

Power to lease rates, &c.

78. The Company from time to time may lease to any persons all or any of the rates, dues, and tolls by this Act authorised for any term not exceeding seven years at a time, on such terms and conditions, pecuniary and otherwise, as the parties may think fit; and the lessee under any such lease shall have and may exercise the like power, rights, and remedies for the recovery of the demised rates, dues, and tolls as might be had and exercised in that behalf by the Company if the lease had not been made.

Penalty on assaulting Company's officers.

79. If any person assault or hinder, in the execution of his duty, any collector or other officer or servant of the Company, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit a sum of money not exceeding five pounds.

Officers of Customs to have free access to docks.

80. All officers of Customs, being in the execution of their duty, shall have free ingress and egress into and out of the harbour, dock, and works, and through the gates and entrances of the same, and may freely pass and repass with their vessels and boats at all times when the state of the tide and water communications shall permit, without payment of any toll or sum for so doing.

Creditors, &c. of Company not to be affected.

81. Nothing in this Act contained shall give to any person claiming the benefit of any mortgage, bond, security, or contract made or entered into or binding on the Company before the commencement of this Act, any priority or security to which he would not be entitled if this Act were not passed, or prejudice or affect any of his rights in that behalf.

Saving rights of the Duchy of Cornwall.

82. Nothing contained in this Act shall extend to authorise the Company to take, use, enter upon, or interfere with any land, soil, or water, or any rights in respect thereof respectively, belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, without the consent in writing of some two or more of such of the regular officers of the said duchy, or of such other persons as may be duly authorised under the provisions of "The Duchy of Cornwall Management Act, 1863," section 39, to exercise all or any of the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities by the said Act made exerciseable, or otherwise for the time being exerciseable in relation to the said duchy, or belonging to the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, without the consent of such Duke, testified in writing under the seal of the Duchy of Cornwall, first had and obtained for that purpose, or to take away, diminish, alter, prejudice, or affect any property, rights, profits, privileges, powers, or authorities vested in or enjoyed by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, or in or by the Duke of Cornwall for the time being.

Saving rights of Secretary of State for War.

83. And whereas it is necessary that the fortifications and other public property belonging to Her Majesty, and under the charge of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, be preserved from damage and obstruction, therefore nothing in this Act contained shall authorise the Company to enter upon, possess, or occupy any buildings or land belonging to Her Majesty, and under the control or management of that Principal Secretary of State, without his previous consent in writing, and which consent he may give, subject to such special or other conditions as he shall see fit to impose on the said Company.

Saving rights of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

84. Except so far as is requisite for the making, maintaining, and using of the several works by this Act authorised, or as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall take away, lessen, prejudice, alter, or affect any franchise, right, power, privilege, or authority of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

Saving rights of Public Works Loan Commissioners.

85. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the Public Works Loan Commissioners may remain in possession of the whole property and undertaking of the Company, and in receipt of the rates, tolls, and income thereof, with all the same rights, powers, and privileges as if this Act had not been passed; and nothing in this Act contained shall in any way prejudice, alter, lessen, or postpone any right which the Public Works Loan Commissioners now or at any time hereafter may have, exercise, or enforce against the Company, or but for the passing of this Act might have had, exercised, or enforced against the Company, as mortgagees of the Company, and in possession of the property and undertaking of the Company, or as creditors of the Company in respect of any sums of money advanced by them to the Company by way of loan, other than the sums so due to them on mortgage as aforesaid.

A.D. 1874.

Priority of mortgages of Public Works Loan Commissioners.

86. The several existing mortgages herein-before mentioned for securing moneys advanced to the Company by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and the interest thereon, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the recited Act of 1864, continue binding upon the Company, and the several principal sums and interest now remaining due, as herein-before recited, to the Public Works Loan Commissioners in respect of advances made by them, as well after as before possession taken by them of the property and undertaking of the Company, and the interest, at the rate of £3 5*s.* per cent. per annum, due and to become due on such several principal sums, shall be and are by this Act made a charge upon the whole property and undertaking of the Company, as defined or authorised by this Act, in priority to all moneys borrowed by or debts becoming due from the Company after the passing of this Act, as well as all such moneys borrowed by or debts due from the Company before the passing of this Act as already stand postponed in point of security to the several principal sums and interest due to the Public Works Loan Commissioners; and the several mortgages made before the passing of this Act for securing the sums advanced by the Commissioners to the Company shall be deemed to include, and are by this Act made to take effect as if such mortgages had actually included, the whole property and undertaking for the time being of the Company as defined or authorised by this Act.

Acts of Public Works Loan Commissioners confirmed.

87. All receipts, payments, leases, agreements, arrangements, appointment of officers and servants, and all other acts and things made, done, or executed by the Public Works Loan Commissioners or their secretary, or by their order or permission, since possession taken by them of the property and undertaking of the Company, are hereby confirmed and made valid and binding on the Company and all persons claiming under them.

Public Works Loan Commissioners to receive tolls, &c. whilst in possession.

88. So long as the Public Works Loan Commissioners shall remain in possession of the property and undertaking of the Company, or the receipt of the tolls, rates, and income thereof, all tolls, rates, income, and other moneys by this Act authorised to be received or recovered by the Company may be received or recovered by the Commissioners or their secretary, and all tolls, rates, income, and other moneys by this Act authorised or directed to be paid to the Company shall be paid to the Commissioners and not to the Company, and all powers of executing works, granting leases or licenses, and all other powers, and all rights and privileges by this Act given to or made exerciseable by the Company, may be exercised and enforced by and shall operate for the benefit of the Commissioners, and as against the Commissioners and all persons claiming under them, an exercise by the Company of any of such powers shall be void.

Saving rights of creditors of the Company.

89. Nothing in this Act contained shall in any way prejudice, lessen, or postpone any right or remedy against the Company, or the property and undertaking of the Company, of any creditors thereof.

Nothing to exempt dock, &c. from provisions of general Acts.

90. Nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the Company's docks or works from the provisions of any of the Merchant Shipping Acts, or any present or future general Act relating to docks or dues on shipping or on goods carried in ships, from time to time in force, or from any future revision and alteration, under the authority of Parliament, of the rates or dues by this Act authorised.

Expenses of Act.

91. All the costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the preparing and applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act shall be borne and paid by the Company.
