EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order appoints the 8th October 1968 for the coming into force of the provisions of section 1 of the Family Allowances and National Insurance Act 1968 which alter the rates of allowances under the Family Allowances Act 1965. It appoints specified days in the same week for the coming into force of those provisions of the same section which alter the rates of benefit under the National Insurance and National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Acts 1965.

The provisions of that section which alter the conditions of entitlement are, in relation to family allowances and to each such benefit, brought into force on the same day as the relevant change in rates.
