1. These Rules may be cited as the Farriers Registration Council (Disciplinary Proceedings) Legal Assessor Rules 1976 and shall come into operation on 8th June 1976.

2.—(1) In these Rules—

4. It shall be the duty of the Legal Assessor to inform the Committee forthwith of any irregularity in the conduct of proceedings before them which may come to his knowledge and to advise them of his own motion where it appears to him that, but for such advice, there is a possibility of a mistake of law being made.

5. The advice of the Legal Assessor shall be tendered to the Committee in the presence of every party, or person representing a party, to the proceedings who appears thereat:

Provided that, if, in the case of any question referred by the Committee to the Legal Assessor while the Committee are deliberating in private, the Committee consider that it would be prejudicial to the discharge of their duties for the advice to be tendered in the presence of the said parties or their representatives, it may be tendered in their absence, but the Legal Assessor shall, as soon as may be, personally inform them of the question which has been put to him by the Committee and of his advice thereon, and his advice shall subsequently be put in writing and a copy thereof shall be available to every such party or representative.

6. If on any occasion the Committee do not accept the advice of the Legal Assessor, a record shall be made of the question referred to him, of the advice given and of the refusal to accept it (together with the reasons for such refusal) and a copy of the record shall be given to every party, or person representing a party, to the proceedings who appears thereat.

7. Copies of written advice made for the purposes of either of the last two foregoing rules shall be available on application to every party to the proceedings who does not appear thereat.
