1952 No. 1590

The Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	27th August, 1952
Laid before Parliament	29th August, 1952
Coming into Operation	1st September, 1952

The Minister of Food, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by Regulations 55 and 55AA of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a) (as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b) and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c) and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1951(d)), and of all other powers him enabling in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Commencement and Citation

1. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of September, 1952; and may be cited as The Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) Order, 1952.

PART I.—INTERPRETATION

2. In this Order and in all documents issued under or for the purposes of this Order—

"The Minister" means the Minister of Food.

"Approved buyer" means a person licensed by or on behalf of the Minister as an approved buyer for the purposes of any Order made by (a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945/1611, 1618; 1945 II, pp. 39, 48.

(b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55. (c) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 25. (d) S.I. 1951/2116; 1951 III, p. 27.

the Minister regulating the sale or distribution in Great Britain of barley, dredge corn, oats or wheat, grown in each case in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man.

" Brewers' grains " includes grains produced in the manufacture of malt extract or vinegar.

" Buying permit ", " coupon " or " ration card " means a document issued as a buying permit, coupon or ration card for the purposes of this Order.

" Compound ", " concentrate ", " molassed feeding stuff " and " licensed concentrate " have the same meanings as in the Feeding Stuffs (Manufacture) Order, 1952(a).

" Consumer " means a person who obtains any rationed feeding stuff otherwise than for resale or otherwise than for sale after processing or manufacture.

" Distillers' grains " includes distillery dreg.

" Distributing dealer ", " retailer " and " wholesale dealer " mean persons licensed as such under the provisions of the Feeding Stuffs (Licensing) Order, 1950(b) as amended(c).

" Feeding meat and bone meal " means the product, containing not less than 40 per cent. of albuminoids (protein) and not more than 4 per cent. of salt, obtained by drying and grinding animal carcases or portions thereof (excluding hoof and horn) and bone, to which no other matter has been added.

" Feeding meat meal " means the product, containing not less than 55 per cent. of albuminoids (protein) and not more than 4 per cent. of salt, obtained by drying and grinding animal carcases or portions thereof (excluding hoof and horn) to which no other matter has been added.

" Grain " means barley, dredge corn, oats and wheat, but does not include any grain which has been subjected to any process other than one or more of the following—threshing, drying, cleaning, screening or dressing.

" Industrial purpose " means use in the manufacture, production or preparation of any article not intended for human consumption or for feeding any bird, beast or other animal.

" Isle of Man approved buyer " means, in relation to any feeding stuff, a person licensed by or on behalf of the Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man as an approved buyer of that feeding stuff for the purposes of any Order made by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man regulating the purchase and sale of that feeding stuff.

" Ration document " means any buying permit, coupon, ration card, counterfoil of any ration card and any similar document, issued as such for the purposes of this Order, and specified in the Second Schedule hereto.

" Rationed feeding stuff " means any feeding stuff specified in the First Schedule to this Order.

" Ration period " means such period as the Minister may prescribe (by notice on any ration document or otherwise) as a ration period for the purposes of this Order.

" Wheat by-products " means any by-products obtained in the production of flour by milling and includes millers' offals and wheat offals (both as defined in Part II of the Fourth Schedule to the Fertilisers and Feeding Stuffs Act, 1926, as amended(d)), and fine wheatfeed, straight run bran, coarse bran, fine bran, pollards, middlings and wheat germ.

PART II.—GENERAL RATIONING PROVISIONS

3.—(1) No person shall obtain or supply any rationed feeding stuff except under and in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) No person shall be in possession of any rationed feeding stuff unless that rationed feeding stuff has, before such possession, been obtained in accordance with the provisions of this Order, provided that nothing in this sub-article shall apply to:—

(a) the possession by a grower of rationed feeding stuffs grown and retained by him, or

(b) the possession by a manufacturer of feeding stuffs manufactured by him from materials for which the surrender of ration documents is not required.

(3) The provisions of this Order shall not apply to:—

(a) the obtaining by an approved buyer of any grain grown in the United Kingdom from the grower thereof or from another approved buyer, or to the obtaining by an approved buyer of any grain grown in the Isle of Man from another approved buyer or from an Isle of Man approved buyer, or to the supply to an approved buyer as aforesaid;

(b) the obtaining or supply of any rationed feeding stuff for use as seed;

(c) the obtaining or supply of any rationed feeding stuff for human consumption, or for any industrial purpose where its use for that purpose is authorised under any Order for the time being in force made under the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939; provided that the supplier shall not have obtained that feeding stuff by the surrender by him of any ration document;

(d) the obtaining by any grower of sugar beet from the British Sugar Corporation Limited of the quantity of dried sugar beet pulp to which he is entitled by virtue of any contract with the said Corporation or to the supply to him by the said Corporation under such contract;

(e) rationed feeding stuffs which have been salvaged but which have not been dried or reconditioned, and which have been certified by or on behalf of the Minister as feeding stuffs which may be disposed of without being dried or reconditioned, provided that the supply of such feeding stuffs is to a consumer;

(f) screenings (whether or not ground or processed) derived from screening or dressing any grain specified in the First Schedule to this Order—

(i) if sold at a price not exceeding £11 per ton (including transport and all other charges) to a consumer;

(ii) if sold at a price not exceeding £10 per ton (including transport and all other charges) to a distributing dealer, retailer or wholesale dealer;

(g) molasses supplied for silage under the authority of the Minister;

(h) flour sweepings and shakings from flour sacks;

(i) oat husks, oat husk meal and oat cockle;

(j) (i) oat feed (containing not more than 25 per cent. fibre) or oat feed meal (containing not more than 25 per cent. fibre) when, in each case, sold at the maximum price applicable under the Feeding Stuffs (Prices) Order, 1952(a), plus the sum of any charges in addition to the maximum price made by the seller and permissible under that Order and less a sum calculated at the rate of not less than £2 per ton, and

(ii) oatmeal seeds or oat dust (each containing not more than 25 per cent. fibre) if sold, in each case, at the maximum price applicable under the Feeding Stuffs (Prices) Order, 1952, plus the sum of any charges in addition to the maximum price made by the seller and permissible under that Order and less a sum calculated at the rate of not less than £1 5s. per ton.

(a) S.I. 1952/1203.

4.—(1) Rationed feeding stuffs shall not be obtained from or supplied to any person except on the surrender by the person obtaining and to the person supplying of the appropriate ration documents as specified in the Second Schedule to this Order or as provided in Article 4 (2) hereof.

(2) Ration documents for protein feeding stuffs and for cereal feeding stuffs shall also be appropriate for the compounds set out in column 1 of the Third Schedule to this Order when surrendered in the proportions by unit value set out in relation to such compounds in columns 2 and 3 of the said Schedule. For the purposes of this sub-article, "ration documents for protein feeding stuffs" mean protein feeding stuffs coupons and traders' buying permits for protein feeding stuffs, and "ration documents for cereal feeding stuffs" mean cereal feeding stuffs coupons and traders' buying permits for home grown cereals, imported feeding grain, low protein cakes, miscellaneous feeding stuffs and wheat by-products.

(3) Ration documents issued under this Order shall be valid only in accordance with the instructions, if any, and during the periods stated thereon.

(4) Delivery of any rationed feeding stuff by a supplier to the person obtaining that feeding stuff from him shall in all cases be made within the period of validity stated upon the appropriate ration document: provided that delivery shall be deemed to have been made if, within the said period, the rationed feeding stuff in question shall have been invoiced by the supplier to the person obtaining that feeding stuff from him and shall have been identified and appropriated to the contract of sale: provided also that the burden of proving that the rationed feeding stuff in question was so identified and appropriated shall be upon the supplier.

PART III.—CONSUMERS

5. A consumer may obtain any rationed feeding stuff from a distributing dealer or retailer, and a distributing dealer or retailer may supply any rationed feeding stuff to any consumer in accordance with the following provisions:—

(a) The obtaining or supply shall be made only when a valid ration card counterfoil or coupon issued to the consumer has been surrendered to the distributing dealer or retailer.

(b) In the case of the use of a ration card, a consumer shall have registered with the distributing dealer or retailer in accordance with the instructions upon that ration card, before the expiration of 15 days from the commencement of the ration period during which the ration card is available for use, or from the date of issue of the ration card, whichever is the later, and shall produce the ration card to the distributing dealer or retailer on each occasion upon which he buys or obtains any rationed feeding stuff.

(c) A consumer shall surrender to or deposit with a distributing dealer or retailer—

(i) if the coupon was issued before the 1st day of October, 1952, before the expiration of 15 days from the commencement of the ration period, or from the date of issue of the coupon, whichever date is the later, or

(ii) if the coupon was issued on or after the 1st day of October, 1952, on or before the 1st day of the last calendar month during which the coupon is valid, or

(iii) within such other time as may be authorised by the Minister either generally or in any particular case or class of cases, any coupons that he holds and with which he wishes to obtain supplies of rationed feeding stuffs.

(d) In the case of the use of any coupon specified in the Second Schedule to this Order, a consumer shall have surrendered to or deposited with a distributing dealer or retailer any such coupon or coupons appropriate to the rationed feeding stuff supplied to him.

6. Where any consumer deposits any coupon with a supplier in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 of this Order—

(a) such supplier shall, not later than 7 days after receiving it, give such consumer an acknowledgment in writing of its receipt, specifying the kind of coupon and the total number of units of rationed feeding stuffs represented by it ; and

(b) no coupon which has been deposited with a supplier shall, except under the authority of the Minister, be withdrawn from him.

PART IV.—RETAILERS, DISTRIBUTING DEALERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS

7.—(1) A retailer (other than a retailer holding a licence marked " Class A ") may obtain any rationed feeding stuff from a distributing dealer and a distributing dealer may supply any rationed feeding stuff to such retailer, provided that the retailer shall, before delivery of that rationed feeding stuff to him, have surrendered to the distributing dealer counterfoils or coupons appropriate to the rationed feeding stuff supplied.

(2) A retailer holding a licence marked " Class A " may obtain any rationed feeding stuff from a distributing dealer and a distributing dealer may supply any rationed feeding stuff to such retailer, provided that the retailer shall, before delivery of that rationed feeding stuff to him, have surrendered to the distributing dealer a buying permit appropriate to the rationed feeding stuff supplied.

8.—(1) A distributing dealer may obtain any rationed feeding stuff from any person and any person may supply any rationed feeding stuff to a distributing dealer provided that the distributing dealer shall, before delivery of such rationed feeding stuff, have surrendered to the said person an appropriate buying permit for such feeding stuff supplied.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this Article the delivery of rationed feeding stuffs by a wholesale dealer to a distributing dealer for the purpose of storage or warehousing may be made without the surrender of any ration documents provided that the ownership of such feeding stuffs remains with the wholesale dealer.

(b) A distributing dealer to whom a wholesale dealer has delivered rationed feeding stuffs in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) (a) of this Article shall not dispose of such feeding stuffs (except to the wholesale dealer who delivered them to him) unless he has previously surrendered the appropriate ration documents for such feeding stuffs to the wholesale dealer.

9.—(1) Distributing dealers and retailers holding licences marked " Class A ", may exchange cereal feeding stuffs buying permits with other such dealers and retailers, and any buying permit received by any such dealer or retailer as a result of such exchange may be used by him as if it had been issued to him for the purpose of the Order; provided that—

(a) no such exchange shall be made otherwise than unit for unit;

(b) no such exchange shall be made between a person who carries on business in England or Wales and a person who carries on business in Scotland;

(c) where a person shall have received any cereal buying permit by way of such exchange he shall legibly enter thereon his full name and address.

(2) Except under the authority of the Minister, no person shall carry on or conduct any business for the exchange of any ration documents.

10. A wholesale dealer may obtain any rationed feeding stuff from any person and any person may supply any rationed feeding stuff to a wholesale dealer; provided that the wholesale dealer, before delivery of the rationed feeding stuff to him, shall have

(a) surrendered to the supplier a buying permit appropriate to the rationed feeding stuff supplied;

(b) entered on such buying permit the word "Accepted" together with his name and address.

PART V.—MISCELLANEOUS

11. No producer of any rationed feeding stuff (other than the grower thereof) and no approved buyer shall use any rationed feeding stuff for consumption by any livestock in his ownership, possession or control or kept on land in his occupation, except on the surrender by him forthwith to such person as the Minister may authorise to receive it of a ration document appropriate to the rationed feeding stuff so used.

12. If any ration document is deposited with or surrendered to any person for the purposes of the supply by him of any rationed feeding stuff in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Order that person shall—

(a) where he is not required by this Order to surrender or deposit such ration document for the purpose of buying or obtaining that rationed feeding stuff; or

(b) where he is the manufacturer of that rationed feeding stuff and he is not required by this Order to surrender or deposit the ration document for the purpose of obtaining any other rationed feeding stuff from which the rationed feeding stuff aforesaid is manufactured by him; or enter on the ration document the word "Supplied" together with his name and address and shall furnish it to such person as the Minister may require.

(c) where he obtains the rationed feeding stuff from the Minister;

13. Where a person has obtained any rationed feeding stuff on the surrender by him of any ration document, he shall not supply that feeding stuff except on the surrender of a ration document.

14.—(1) Every brewer, maltster, distiller, or manufacturer of malt extracts or vinegar, who is a producer of brewers' or distillers' dried grains, malt culms, barley half corns, barley screenings and barley products produced or supplied for feeding to animals, and every other producer of dried grains shall not later than the 10th day of September, 1952, and thereafter not later than the 10th day of each succeeding month, furnish a completed return in the form set out in and containing all the particulars shown in the Fourth Schedule to this Order.

(2) All persons required under sub-paragraph (1) hereof to furnish particulars shall do so to the Feeding Stuffs Executive Officer for the area in which his premises are situate or to such person as may be authorised by or on behalf of the Minister to receive such particulars.

(3) Every person to whom sub-paragraph (1) hereof applies shall furnish to the Feeding Stuffs Executive Officer (as provided in sub-paragraph (2) hereof), together with the said return, all ration documents surrendered to him for supply by him in the month to which the return relates of any dried grains, malt culms, barley half corns, barley screenings or barley products to any wholesale dealer, distributing dealer, retailer or consumer.

Records

15.—(1) Every person who carries on any undertaking by way of trade or business in the course of which he sells or supplies rationed feeding stuffs shall keep accurate records showing—

(a) the names and addresses of all persons who have registered or deposited ration documents with him under the provisions of this Order;

(b) the quantity or number of units of rationed feeding stuffs represented by each kind of ration card of each person registered with him;

(c) the quantity or number of units of rationed feeding stuffs represented by the ration documents of each kind respectively deposited with him by each person and the month to which each of those ration documents relates;

(d) the date of every sale or supply by him of rationed feeding stuffs;

(e) the name and address of every person to whom the rationed feeding stuffs are sold or supplied;

(f) the quantity or number of units and description of each rationed feeding stuff sold or supplied by him on the occasion of each sale or supply:

Provided that the completion of the statement on any ration card of the quantity supplied and the date of supply shall be a sufficient record for the purposes of this Article as to the quantity supplied and the date of supply.

(2) Every person who is required by this Article to keep any record shall retain it—

(a) in the case of a record of names and addresses of persons who have registered with him, for a period of 12 months from the date of the expiry of the registration;

(b) in the case of a record of ration documents deposited with him and of records of quantities or number of units of rationed feeding stuffs represented by each kind of ration document deposited with him, for a period of 12 months from the date of the deposit; and

(c) in the case of a record of sale or supply of any rationed feeding stuff, for a period of 12 months from the date of the sale or supply.

16.—(1) Every ration document is and shall remain the property of the Minister, but the person to whom it is issued or with whom it is deposited or to whom it is delivered for the purposes of this Order, shall be entitled to and responsible for its custody.

(2) Where any person is in possession of a ration document, which has not been issued to him for the purposes of this Order, or the possession of which by him is not authorised by this Order, then, not later than 8 days after acquiring that document, he shall forward it to the Animal Feeding Stuffs Division of the Ministry of Food unless he shall have returned it to the person entitled to the custody thereof.

(3) Where a new ration document is issued in place of a lost ration document, the person to whom the new ration document is issued shall, if he finds the lost ration document, forward it to the Animal Feeding Stuffs Division of the Ministry of Food.

(4) Where any person has in his possession any coupon or counterfoil of a ration card which he has not surrendered for the purpose of obtaining a buying permit, or any ration document which he does not wish to surrender for the purpose of obtaining any rationed feeding stuff, he shall forthwith forward that coupon, counterfoil or other ration document to the Animal Feeding Stuffs Division of the Ministry of Food.

17.—(1) Where any person has ceased to keep any class of livestock for which ration documents have been issued to him he shall forthwith—

(a) notify the authority by whom the ration documents were issued that he has ceased to keep that class of livestock;

(b) deliver any such ration documents in his possession to that authority; and

(c) notify the retailer or distributing dealer with whom he has registered or deposited ration documents that he has ceased to keep that class of livestock.

(2) For the purposes of this Article "class of livestock" means any of the following classes:—

(a) Dairy cows and calves;

(b) Pigs and poultry;

(c) Horses;

(d) Rabbits (breeding does).

18. A person shall not—

(a) in furnishing any information for the purposes of this Order make any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly make any statement which is false in a material particular or otherwise make use of any book, account, estimate, return, declaration or other document issued or prepared by him for the purposes aforesaid which is false in a material particular;

(b) unless he is a person authorised by or on behalf of the Minister so to do or except as provided by this Order, alter, destroy or deface any ration document or make or cause to be made any endorsement upon a ration document or any writing thereon;

(c) personate or falsely represent himself to be the person to whom any ration document has been issued or applies;

(d) retain any ration document when he has no right to retain it;

(e) except where he is required or authorised so to do by or under this Order or any other Order or direction of the Minister, obtain, use or retain, or attempt to obtain, use or retain, any ration document other than a ration document lawfully issued to him by or on behalf of the Minister;

(f) make or cause to be made, or without lawful excuse have in his custody or possession, any paper or document made so as to resemble or colourably imitate any ration document;

(g) use or attempt to use for the purpose of obtaining any rationed feeding stuff any document made so as to resemble or colourably imitate any ration document, or any forged or altered ration document;

(h) fraudulently obtain or attempt to obtain any ration document or rationed feeding stuff, or for the purpose of obtaining any such document or rationed feeding stuff, make any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly make any statement which is false in a material particular.

Certificate of public analyst or Government Chemist

19.—(1) In any proceedings in respect of an infringement of this Order, the production by one of the parties of (i) a document purporting to be a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist or (ii) a document supplied to him by the other party as being a copy of such a certificate, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein, unless in the case mentioned under (i) above the other party requires that the person making the analysis shall be called as a witness.

(2) In any such proceedings—

(a) if the prosecution intends to produce a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist, a copy of that certificate shall be served with the summons; and

(b) if a defendant intends to produce a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist, or to require that the person making the analysis shall be called as a witness, he shall give to the other party at least three clear days' notice of his intention;

and, if any of these requirements is not complied with, the Court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the hearing on such terms as it deems proper.

(3) In this Article "public analyst" has in relation to England and Wales the meaning assigned to it by the Food and Drugs Act, 1938(a), in relation to Scotland the meaning assigned to it by the Food and Drugs (Adulteration) Act, 1928(b), and in relation to Northern Ireland the meaning assigned to it by the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts (Northern Ireland), 1875 to 1939; and "Government Chemist" means in relation to Northern Ireland the Government Chemist for Northern Ireland.

(4) Where a sampling officer within the meaning of the Food and Drugs (Adulteration) Act, 1928, or the Food and Drugs Act, 1938, or an inspector within the meaning of the Fertilisers and Feeding Stuffs Act, 1926, or the Sale of Food (Weights and Measures) Act, 1926(c), is authorised under the respective Act to purchase or take a sample, it shall be lawful for him, on producing a document duly authenticated for the purpose of such Act, and identifying him as such sampling officer or inspector, as the case may be, to purchase or take such sample notwithstanding any restriction contained in this Order upon the obtaining or supply of rationed feeding stuffs.

Infringements

20. Infringements of this Order are offences against the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939.

Other Orders

21. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as relieving any person from compliance with any other Order of the Minister for the time being in force.

Artificial transactions

22. In connection with the use or disposition or proposed use or disposition of any rationed feeding stuff no person shall enter into or offer to enter into any artificial transaction.

Directions, authorisations and licences

23.—(1) The provisions of this Order are subject to any directions that may at any time be given by or on behalf of the Minister, and to any licence or authorisation that may be granted by or on behalf of the Minister under this Order.

(a) 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 56. (b) 18 & 19 Geo. 5. c. 31. (c) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 63.

(2) Every person holding a licence or authorisation granted under this Order shall comply with every condition imposed by such licence or authorisation.

(3) Every licence or authorisation granted under this Order is and shall remain the property of the Minister; and the licensee or any person being in possession of any such licence or authorisation shall, if requested to do so by or on behalf of the Minister, produce or deliver it to such person or to a person of such class or description, and within such time, as may be specified in the request.

Revocations, etc.

24.—(1) The Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) Order, 1949(a) as amended(b) is hereby revoked, but without prejudice to any proceedings in respect of any contravention thereof.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the revocation of the Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) Order, 1949 as amended, any licence or authorisation granted or having effect under that Order and subsisting immediately before the coming into operation of this Order shall continue to have effect as though granted under this Order; and the Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) (General Licence) Order, 1952(c) and the Feeding Stuffs (General Licence No. 2) Order, 1952(d) shall remain in force until 1st November, 1952 and 1st October, 1952 respectively, as if granted under this Order, and shall then expire.

(b) Any ration document issued for the purposes of the Feeding Stuffs (Rationing) Order, 1949 shall be deemed to have been issued for the purposes of this Order and shall have effect accordingly.

(c) Every person shall retain any record required to be kept under that Order (and remaining in his possession) for the period provided thereunder.

Extent

25. This Order shall not apply to Northern Ireland.

G. Lloyd-George,
Minister of Food.

Dated the 27th day of August, 1952.
