1958 No. 2141

The Films (Temporary Importation) Regulations, 1958

Made - - - -	17th December, 1958
Laid before Parliament	22nd December, 1958
Coming into Operation	1st January, 1959

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section forty of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952(a) hereby make the following Regulations:

1. If any exposed cinematograph film or exposed photographic plates or films or other articles recorded with sound or pictures (hereinafter called "the goods") are imported into any part of the United Kingdom other than the Isle of Man and the importer satisfies the Commissioners—

(a) that the goods are being imported solely for the purpose of being copied or subjected to other technical operations to the order of a customer outside the United Kingdom, and

(b) that the goods and any resultant products other than waste materials are intended to be exported as soon as the purpose for which the goods are imported has been fulfilled, and

(c) that the following provisions of these Regulations and such other conditions as may from time to time be imposed by the Commissioners are and will be complied with, the goods may be delivered without payment of customs duty and duty shall not be payable so long as the Commissioners continue to be so satisfied.

2. The importer shall at the time of importation—

(a) produce the goods to the proper officer for examination, and

(b) in accordance with the directions of the proper officer deposit such sum of money or other security as the officer may require to secure the duty and compliance with these Regulations.

3. While in the United Kingdom—

(a) the goods shall only be subjected to such operations or used for such purposes as the Commissioners may permit,

(b) neither the goods nor any resultant products shall be publicly exhibited,

(c) the goods and any resultant products shall be produced by the importer at any time the proper officer may require.

4.—(1) The importer shall keep such records relating to the goods and any resultant products as the proper officer may require.

(2) The importer shall at any time furnish to the proper officer such information and produce all such records as he may have been required to keep and such other documents as the proper officer may require relating to the goods and any resultant products.

5. The importer shall export the goods and any resultant products from the United Kingdom and destroy any waste materials as soon as the purpose for which the goods were imported has been fulfilled and in any case within twelve months of the date of the importation of the goods or within such further period as the Commissioners may in special circumstances allow.

(a) 15 & 16 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2. c. 44.

6. In these Regulations—

"resultant products" means any articles produced or manufactured as the result of any use of the goods whilst in the United Kingdom.

7. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a) shall apply for the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

8. These Regulations may be cited as the Films (Temporary Importation) Regulations, 1958, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1959.

Dated this 17th day of December, 1958.

A. D. Owen,
Commissioner of Customs and Excise.

King's Beam House,
Mark Lane,
London, E.C.3.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of these Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide relief from duty for exposed cinematograph film, exposed photographic films and plates, and other articles recorded with pictures or sound, which are temporarily imported into the United Kingdom solely for the purpose of being copied, printed, etc. to fulfil export orders.
