Cap. 3.

An Act to modify the Condition of Residence at Haverholme Priory contained in the Will of the late Sir Jenison William Gordon Baronet, in so far as such Condition affects the present or any future Infant Tenant in Tail under the Limitations of the same Will. [28th July 1863.]

Will of Sir Jenison William Gordon, dated 13th December 1827.

WHEREAS Sir Jenison William Gordon, late of Haverholme Priory in the County of Lincoln, Baronet, duly made, signed, and published his last Will and Testament, dated the Thirteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and duly attested as then by Law required to pass Freehold Estates, and thereby gave and devised all and singular his Freehold Manors or Lordships, or reputed Manors or Lordships, Advowson, Capital and other Messuages, Farms, Lands, Tenements, Mills, Tythes, Fee-farm and other Rents and Hereditaments, and Properties, Parts and Shares of Hereditaments, and Freehold Estates whatsoever and wheresoever, as well those in reversion and remainder as those in possession, severally situate, standing, lying, and being, and arising, in or within the several Counties of Nottingham and Lincoln, or elsewhere in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which either at Law or in Equity he had any Power to dispose of, (in which Devise he the said Testator meant to include all his own Estates holden for Lives or a Life, or determinable upon the dropping of Lives, but not any Real Estates vested in him as a Trustee,) with their and every of their Rights, Royalties, Members, and Appurtenances, unto his Friend George Manners Esquire (since deceased), and his Heirs, to hold the same unto the said George Manners and his Heirs to and for the several Uses, Intents, and Purposes, upon the several Trusts, and with, under, and subject to the several Powers, Provisoes, Conditions, and Directions, by him (the said Testator) therein-after limited, declared, or expressed, and given of and concerning the same respectively; (that is to say,) as to, for, and concerning all that his (the said Testator's) Manor or Lordship or reputed Manor or Lordship of Northgate in Newark-upon-Trent in the said County of Nottingham, and all those his Freehold Messuages, Tenements, Lands, Tythes, and Hereditaments situate in the Parish of Newark-upon-Trent aforesaid and elsewhere in the said County of Nottingham, to the Use of his Friends Henry Handley of Culverthorpe in the Parish of Haydon in the said County of Lincoln, Esquire, and the Reverend William Andrew Hammond of Whitchurch in the County of Oxford Clerk, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for the Term of Five hundred Years, to be computed as therein mentioned, upon certain Trusts (now long since determined) for raising and appropriating out of the Rents thereof a Fund for the Payment and Discharge of his (the said Testator's) Debts, and the Legacies given by his said Will or any Codicil thereto, and to hold the Surplus of the said Fund for the Person who for the Time being might be then first entitled for an Estate for Life or in Tail in possession of and in the said Hereditaments in the said Term comprised during the Period when the Rents should be so appropriated, and as to the said Hereditaments so comprised in the said Term subject thereto and to the Trusts thereof; and also as to, for, and concerning all those his (the said Testator's) Three several Manors of Haverholme Priory, Ewerby, and Ruskington, in the said County of Lincoln, and his Capital Messuage or Mansion House called Haverholme Priory aforesaid, with the Park, Grounds, Offices, and other Outbuildings thereunto belonging, and also all those his Freehold Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and Hereditaments as well in the Extra-parochial Place called Haverholme Priory as in the several Parishes of Ewerby, Anwick, and Ruskington, in the said County of Lincoln, and also all that his Piece or Parcel of Land lying and being in a Place called the East Meadow or Newings in the Parish of Leasingham in the same County, and also all that the Manor or Lordship of Evedon in the said County of Lincoln, and the Perpetual Advowson and Right of Presentation of and to the Rectory of Evedon, and all those the several Messuages, Cottages, Farms, Lands,

Lands, Tenements, Tithes, and Hereditaments in Evedon, Ewerby, Ruskington, and Leasingham, in the said County of Lincoln, as lately purchased by him the said Testator of and from the Trustees of the Will of the late General William Hervey deceased, and also all those Two Cottages or Tenements, Lands, and other Hereditaments in Ewerby aforesaid contracted by him the said Testator to be purchased of Mr. Charles Smith the younger, to the Use of the Right Honourable George William Finch Hatton Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham (now deceased), and his Assigns, for and during the Term of his natural Life, as to the said Hereditaments in the said County of Lincoln impeachable of Waste, but as to his the said Testator's Hereditaments in the said County of Nottingham without Impeachment of Waste, and from and immediately after the Determination of that Estate, by Forfeiture or otherwise, in the Lifetime of the said Earl, to the Use of the said George Manners and his Heirs during the Life of him the said Earl, upon trust to preserve contingent Remainders as therein mentioned, and from and immediately after the Decease of the said Earl to the Use of the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every other the younger Son and Sons of the said Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham lawfully to be begotten severally, successively, and in remainder one after another as they and every of them should be in Seniority of Age and Priority of Birth, and the several and respective Heirs Male of the Body and respective Bodies of all and every such younger Son and Sons lawfully issuing, the elder of such younger Sons and the Heirs Male of his Body to be always preferred, and to take before the younger of such Sons and the Heirs Male of their Bodies issuing, and for Default of such Issue to the Use of the Right Honourable George James Finch Hatton, commonly called Viscount Maidstone, now George James Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, (the then only Son of the said Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham,) and his Assigns, for his natural Life as therein mentioned, with Remainder to the Use of the said George Manners and his Heirs during the Life of the said Viscount Maidstone, with Remainder to the Use of the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every the younger Son and Sons successively of the said Viscount Maidstone (exclusively of his First Son) in Tail Male, with Remainder to the Use of the First Son of the said Viscount Maidstone in Tail Male, with Remainder to the Use of the Reverend Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton, of Weldon in the County of Northampton, Clerk, and his Assigns, during his Life, as therein mentioned, with Remainder to the said George Manners and his Heirs during the Life of the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton upon trust to preserve contingent Remainders, with Remainder to the Use of the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every the Son and Sons of the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton (exclusively of his First Son) successively successively in Tail Male, with Remainder to the Use of the First Son of the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton in Tail Male, with the ultimate Remainder to the Use of the right Heirs of the said George William Finch Hatton Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham for ever: Provided always, and the said Testator declared his Will to be, that as it was his earnest Desire that his Mansion, Offices, and Grounds of Haverholme Priory might be kept in the same high State of Preservation that they had been usually kept in by him, in case the Person who might for the Time being be entitled to the Possession and Occupation thereof under that his Will should neglect to reside in that House for at least Four Months in the whole in every Year, then the Estate and Interest of the Person who might so neglect of and in the whole of his said Freehold Estates in Lincolnshire should thereupon cease and determine, and become divested and go over to the Person then next in remainder under that his said Will, who should immediately thereupon take and succeed to that Property in such and the same Manner as if the Person so neglecting to reside were actually dead; and the said Testator gave and devised unto the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond and their Heirs all and singular his Copyhold and Customary Messuages or Tenements, Lands, and Hereditaments severally situate, standing, lying, and being in the said Parish of Newark-upon-Trent in the said County of Nottingham, with the Appurtenances, to hold the same to the Use of the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond, and their Heirs and Assigns, according to the Customs of the respective Manors whereof the same were respectively holden, upon the Trusts and to and for the Intents and Purposes therein-after expressed and declared of and concerning the same respectively, (that is to say,) as to, for, and concerning his Copyhold or Customary Estates in the said County of Nottingham upon certain Trusts in aid of the Trusts therein-before declared concerning the Hereditaments comprised in the said Term of Five hundred Years limited by the said Will as aforesaid, and subject thereto as to the said Copyhold and Customary Estates in the said County of Nottingham upon trust for the said Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham and his Assigns for his Life, and upon his Decease then in trust for the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every other the Son and Sons of the said Earl (exclusively of his First Son) lawfully issuing severally, successively, and in remainder one after another as they and every one of them should be in Seniority of Age and Priority of Birth, and the several and respective Heirs Male of the Body and respective Bodies of all and every such younger Son and Sons lawfully issuing, the elder of such Sons and the Heirs Male of his Body to be always preferred and to take before the younger of such Sons and the Heirs Male of their Bodies issuing, and for default of such Issue then in trust for the said then Viscount Provision in Will that Person for the Time being entitled to Estates shall reside at least Four Months in the Year at Haverholme Priory.

Viscount Maidstone and his Assigns for his Life, and upon his Decease then in trust for the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every other the Son and Sons of the said then Viscount Maidstone (exclusively of his First Son) successively in Tail Male, and for default of such Issue in trust for the First or only Son of the said then Viscount Maidstone in Tail Male, and for default of such Issue then in trust for the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton and his Assigns for his Life, and upon his Decease then upon trust for his Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and all and every other his Son and Sons, exclusively of his First Son, successively in Tail Male, and for default of such Issue in trust for the First or only Son of the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton in Tail Male, and for default of such Issue then in trust for the right Heirs of the said Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham for ever, and accordingly to surrender all his the said Testator's said Copyhold or Customary Estates, subject as to those in the said County of Nottingham to any Mortgages or Mortgage thereon then subsisting, to the Use of the said several Cestuisque Trust for such Estate and Estates as might be equivalent at Law to the equitable Estates they would respectively become entitled unto under the Trust by him the said Testator therein-before declared of and concerning his said Copyhold or Customary Estates as therein aforesaid; and the said Testator gave and bequeathed all his Household Goods, Chattels, Furniture, Books, Jewels, Plate, Pictures, Prints, Linen, China, Wine, and Liquors, Garden and other Utensils, and Implements of Husbandry, in or about his said Mansion House and Offices at Haverholme Priory aforesaid at the Time of his Decease, and also all the Deer which at the Time of his Decease might happen to be in the Park Lands and Grounds at Haverholme Priory, unto the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond, their Executors and Administrators, as to the said Goods, Chattels, Furniture, Books, Jewels, Plate, Pictures, Prints, Linen, China, Wine and Liquors, Utensils, and Implements, upon trust for such Person as for the Time being might be entitled to the Possession and Occupation of the said Mansion House under his said Will, it being his (the said Testator's) Wish and Intention that those Articles of Personal Property might be preserved as long as possible, and most especially that such Pictures as were painted by his late Wife Harriet Frances Charlotte Lady Gordon, whether Portraits of her own Family or otherwise, might be preserved with religious Care, and that the whole should go in the Nature of Heirlooms with the said Mansion House as far as the Rules of Law or Equity would admit of, and with that view he directed that an accountable Receipt should be required and taken for those Articles, or such of them as might not be of a consumable and perishable Nature, from the Person for the Time being entitled to the Possession and Enjoyment thereof; and as to the Deer upon trust for such Person as might happen to be first entitled under his said Will to the Possession of the Park and Lands where such Deer might be, and thereupon to deliver up such Deer unto him accordingly, but if only Tenant for Life of the said Park, then such Person to be considered as having only the Use of the Deer and the ordinary Right of taking Venison as usually exercised by him, and not the absolute Ownership of the Herd so as to warrant the Sale or total Destruction thereof, it being his Intent that those Animals might go with the Park so far as the Rules of Law would admit of; and the said Testator declared that it was his anxious Wish that the House, Gardens, Shrubberies, Plantations, Grounds, and Park at Haverholme Priory aforesaid be preserved and kept up in the same Manner and good Order that they had been kept in by him, and that the Beauty and Appearance of that Property might not be suffered to be diminished or injured by any one who might succeed to it under his said Will, and he appointed the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton, Henry Handley, and William Andrew Hammond Executors of his said Will: And whereas the said Sir Jenison William Gordon duly made, signed, and published a Codicil to his said Will, dated the Twenty-ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and duly attested as then by Law required to pass Freehold Estates, and thereby gave and devised all and singular the Hereditaments which by his said Will were given and devised unto the said George Manners since deceased to the Uses therein limited, and all other his (the said Testator's) Freehold Estates, unto the said Edward Hatton and his Heirs to the Uses therein-after limited or referred to concerning the same, (that is to say,) as to such Parts of his said Estates as were by his said Will devised or limited to the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond for the said Term of Five hundred Years to the Uses of the said Henry Handley and John Reeve Esquire, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for and during the said Term of Five hundred Years, upon the Trusts in his said Will declared concerning the said Term (except as therein mentioned), and also upon trust by the Ways and Means mentioned in his said Will to levy and raise the Legacies by his said Codicil bequeathed, or any Legacies he might give by any future Codicil as therein mentioned, and as to and concerning the Hereditaments comprised in the said Term subject thereto, and as to all other his (the said Testator's) Freehold Hereditaments described or referred to in the Devise thereof to the said George William Finch Hatton Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, and also as to all other his Freehold Estates to the Use of the said Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham and his Assigns during his Life, with such Remainders over and upon such Trusts, and with such and subject to such Powers, Provisoes, Conditions, and Djrections, as in and by his said Will were limited, expressed, and contained of and concerning the Freehold

Codicil to Will, dated 29th May 1829.

Estates

Estates thereby devised to the said Earl for his Life as aforesaid; nevertheless he declared that the said Freehold Estates so devised by his said Will, and his said Residuary Freehold Estates thereinbefore devised by that Codicil, should enure and he did thereby devise the same to the Use of the said Edward Hatton and his Heirs during the respective Lives of the several Persons to whom Life Estates were limited by his said Will, in the event of the Determination of any such Estates for Life by Forfeiture or otherwise in the Lifetime of such Tenants for Life or any of them, upon the same Trusts to preserve the contingent Remainders, and upon such other Trusts as in his said Will were expressed concerning the Estates so thereby limited to the said George Manners during the Lives of the Tenants for Life; and the said Testator gave and devised unto the said Henry Handley and John Reeve all such Copyhold and Customary Hereditaments as by his said Will he gave and devised unto the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond and their Heirs, to hold the same to the Use of the said Henry Handley and John Reeve, their Heirs and Assigns, upon and for such Trusts, Intents, and Purposes as in and by the said Will were expressed and declared of and concerning the same; and he gave and bequeathed all his Household Goods and other Chattels in and about his said Mansion House and Offices at Haverholme Priory aforesaid, and the Deer in the Park Lands and Grounds at Haverholme Priory, which by his said Will were bequeathed to the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond as aforesaid, unto the said Henry Handley and John Reeve, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, upon and for such Trusts, Intents, and Purposes as in his said Will were expressed and declared concerning the same in the Bequest thereof to the said Henry Handley and William Andrew Hammond; and the said Testator appointed the said John Reeve an Executor of his said Will in the Stead of the said William Andrew Hammond; and the Testator by his said Codicil ratified and confirmed his said Will, except so far as the same was by such Codicil revoked or altered: And whereas the said Testator died in the Month of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one without having revoked or altered his said Will (except so far as the same was revoked or altered by his said Codicil), and without having revoked or altered his said Codicil, and the said Will and Codicil were duly proved by the said Henry Handley and John Reeve, the Executors therein named, respectively on the Fourth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury: And whereas all the said Testator's Debts, and also all the Legacies and Annuities bequeathed by the said Will and Codicil, have been long since paid and satisfied: And whereas after the Death of the said Testator the said George William Earl of Winchilsea and

Nottingham

Nottingham entered into possession of the said Mansion and Estate of Haverholme Priory, and into the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof, and of the other Estates devised to him by the said Will as the Tenant for Life thereof, and he continued so to do and to reside in the said Mansion House of Haverholme Priory for Four Months and upwards in every Year, and to preserve the House, Garden, Shrubberies, Plantations, Grounds, and Park thereat in such Manner and Order as was directed by the said Will until the Time of his Death herein-after mentioned: And whereas upon the Decease of the said Testator the Trustees of his said Will and Codicil delivered up to the said George William Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham the Furniture, Deer, and other Heirlooms so as aforesaid bequeathed by the said Testator's Will and Codicil: And whereas the said George William Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham was married Three Times, (that is to say,) first, to Georgiana Charlotte (the eldest Daughter of the Most Noble James Duke of Montrose), who died on the Thirteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, by whom he had Issue Male One Son and no more, (that is to say,) George James the present Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, who was born on or about the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; secondly, to Emily Georgiana (Daughter of the late Right Honourable Sir Charles Bagot), who died on the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, by whom he had no Issue; and thirdly, to Fanny Margaretta Countess Dowager of Winchilsea and Nottingham (Daughter of Edward Royds Rice of Dane Court near Sandwich in the County of Kent Esquire), by whom he had Issue Male Three Sons and no more, (that is to say,) Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton, who was born on or about the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, Henry Stormont Finch Hatton, who was born on or about the Third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and Harold Heneage Finch Hatton, who was born on or about the Twenty-third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six: And whereas George James the present Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham was married on the Sixth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-six to Lady Constance Henrietta Paget, by whom he has had One Son and no more, namely, George William Heneage Finch Hatton, commonly called Viscount Maidstone, born on or about the Twenty-sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two: And whereas the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton was married on the Fifteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five to Lady Louisa Greville, by whom he has had Two Sons and no more, namely, Edward Hatton Finch Hatton, who was born on or about the Twenty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred hundred and twenty-six, and William Robert Finch Hatton, who was born on or about the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven: And whereas the said George William Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham died on the Eighth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, having by his Will, dated the Seventeenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, appointed his Wife, the said Fanny Margaretta Countess Dowager of Winchilsea and Nottingham sole testamentary Guardian of his Infant Children during their Minorities, and having appointed his Brother, the said Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton, Edward Bridges Rice, a Captain in the Royal Navy, and Charles Pearson of Tempsford in the County of Bedford Esquire, Executors of his said Will, who duly proved the same in Her Majesty's Court of Probate on the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight: And whereas upon the Death of the said George William Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton, who is an Infant of the Age of Twelve Years or thereabouts, became and now is, in pursuance and by virtue of the Limitations of the said Will and Codicil, Tenant in Tail in possession of the said Mansion and Estate of Haverholme Priory aforesaid, with the Park, Grounds, Offices, and other Outbuildings thereunto belonging, and of all other the Freehold and Copyhold Estates in the Counties of Lincoln and Nottingham so as aforesaid devised by the same Will and Codicil: And whereas the said Estates produce a yearly Rental of Five thousand Pounds and upwards, and it is expedient that proper Provision should be made for the Maintenance and Education of the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton in a Manner suitable to his Position and Fortune: And whereas the said Mansion and Estate of Haverholme Priory is situated on the Borders of the Fens, and the Climate is during a considerable Period of the Year unhealthy and damp, and unsuitable for the Residence of Persons of tender Years, and it is apprehended that the Constitution and bodily Health of the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton may suffer or be prejudicially affected if in compliance with the said Condition of the said Will he is compelled to reside in that House as aforesaid, and that unless some Relief can be granted in the Premises to the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton he must either give up the Hope of deriving the full Benefit of his Residence at Eton College, to which Place of Education his said Guardian is most anxious that he should be sent, or must incur the Penalty of Forfeiture by the said Will imposed on any Tenant for Life or in Tail in possession thereof neglecting to reside as aforesaid in the said Mansion of Haverholme Priory; but such Relief cannot be obtained without the Authority of Parliament: Now therefore Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subject and Servant the said Fanny Margaretta Countess Dowager of Winchilsea and Nottingham doth humbly humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Residence of Infant Tenants in Tail at Haverholme Priory for One Month whilst being educated at any public School or University, to satisfy Conditions of Will.

1. Notwithstanding the Condition in the said Will contained as to the Forfeiture of the said Estates in Lincolnshire by any Person for the Time being entitled to the Possession and Occupation of the Mansion, Grounds, and Park of Haverholme Priory aforesaid who shall neglect to reside in that House for at least Four Months in the whole in every Year, such Condition, in so far as the same affects the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton or any other Infant Tenant in Tail in possession under the Limitations of the said Will, shall, during so much of the Minority of the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton or any other Infant Tenant in Tail in possession as aforesaid as shall be occupied in his Education at any public School or University, be satisfied by the yearly Residence of the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton or any other Infant Tenant in Tail in possession as aforesaid in the said Mansion House for a Period not being less in the whole than One Month.

Except as aforesaid Limitations, &c. of Will not to be affected.

2. Nothing herein contained shall abridge, alter, or annul all or any of the Limitations, Uses, Trusts, Powers, Provisoes, Directions, Declarations, or Purposes of the said Will, or to which the said Estates and Premises are at the Time of the passing of this Act respectively limited or subjected, save only in so far as may be necessary to give effect to this Act.

Expenses of Act.

3. The Costs, Charges, and Expenses incident to obtaining this Act shall be paid out of the Rents and Profits of the said Estates.

General Saving.

4. Saving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and all other Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, (other than and except the several Persons who by this Act are expressly excepted out of this general Saving,) all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever in or to the said Estates and Premises as they or any of them would or might have had if this Act had not passed: Provided, that the following Persons are excepted out of the general Saving in this Act contained, and accordingly are the only Persons bound by this Act; (that is to say,) the said Murray Edward Gordon Finch Hatton, Henry Stormont Finch Hatton, and Harold Heneage Finch Hatton, George James Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham, George William Heneage Finch Hatton Viscount Maidstone, the Honourable and Reverend Daniel Heneage Finch Hatton, Edward Hatton
