FIRE SERVICES

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

1956 No. 866

The Fire Services (Appointments and Promotion) Regulations, 1956

Made - - - -	5th June, 1956
Laid before Parliament	8th June, 1956
Coming into Operation	1st July, 1956

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by subsection (1) of section eighteen of the Fire Services Act, 1947(a), I hereby, after consultation with the Central Fire Brigades Advisory Council, make the following Regulations:—

1. For paragraph (3) of Regulation 5 of the Fire Services (Appointments and Promotion) Regulations, 1950(b), as set out in Regulation 2 of the Fire Services (Appointments and Promotion) Regulations, 1955(c) (which relates to the written technical examination for promotion to the rank of station officer), there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(3) After the papers of each member of a brigade taking such a written technical examination have been marked by the central examination committee, the fire authority maintaining the brigade of which he is a member shall be notified whether or not he has passed the examination to the satisfaction of the said committee and of the marks awarded in his case.".

2. These Regulations may be cited as the Fire Services (Appointments and Promotion) Regulations, 1956, and shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1956.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
5th June, 1956.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not Part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Fire Services (Appointments and Promotion) Regulations, 1950, and provide that after every written technical examination for promotion to the rank of station officer, each fire authority shall be notified of the marks awarded to candidates who are members of the brigade maintained by them instead of being sent the marked papers.
