3.—(1) At the beginning of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 14 of the said Fourth Schedule as set out in the said Appendix there shall be inserted the words "Subject to the provisions of this paragraph".

(2) For sub-paragraph (2) of the said paragraph 14 there shall be substituted the following paragraphs:—

"(2) A member of a brigade of a rank above that of sub-officer and below that of assistant chief officer whose normal weekly hours of duty, during which he is required to be available to attend at his station or at a fire or other occurrence in response to a call, are not less than one hundred and twenty shall be provided by the fire authority with residential accommodation free of rent and rates or shall be paid a rent allowance of an amount determined with the approval of the Secretary of State by the fire authority, and where such accommodation is provided the fire authority may also provide free fuel and light.

(3) A member of a brigade of a rank above that of sub-officer and below that of assistant chief officer whose normal weekly hours of duty, during which he is required to be available to attend at his station or at a fire or other occurrence in response to a call, are less than one hundred and twenty but not less than ninety-six and who is not provided with residential accommodation under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be paid a rent allowance of an amount determined with the approval of the Secretary of State by the fire authority.".

4.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Fire Services (Conditions of Service) (No. 2) Regulations, 1957.

(2) These Regulations shall come into operation on the twenty-third day of August, 1957, and Regulations 1 and 2 of these Regulations shall take effect as from the twenty-eighth day of June, 1957.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall,
15th August, 1957.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Fire Services (Conditions of Service) Regulations, 1954. Regulations 1 and 2 increase the scales of pay for male members of fire brigades below the rank of assistant chief officer. Regulation 3 provides that a member of a fire brigade of a rank above that of sub-officer and below that of assistant chief officer shall, if his normal weekly hours of duty are not less than one hundred and twenty, be provided with free residential accommodation or paid a rent allowance in lieu; if his normal weekly hours of duty are less than one hundred and twenty but not less than ninety-six, he shall, if he is not provided by the fire authority with residential accommodation at a rent determined by them, be paid a rent allowance in lieu. Regulations 1 and 2 take effect from 28th June, 1957.
