2.—(1) At the beginning of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 14 of the said Fourth Schedule there shall be inserted the words "Subject to the provisions of this paragraph".

(2) For sub-paragraph (2) of the said paragraph 14 there shall be substituted the following paragraphs:—

"(2) A member of a brigade of a rank above that of sub-officer and below that of assistant firemaster whose normal weekly hours of duty, during which he is required to be available to attend at his station or at a fire or other occurrence in response to a call, are not less than one hundred and twenty shall be provided by the fire authority with residential accommodation free of rent and rates or shall be paid a rent allowance of an amount determined with the approval of the Secretary of State by the fire authority and, where such accommodation is provided, the fire authority may also provide free fuel and light.

(3) A member of a brigade of a rank above that of sub-officer and below that of assistant firemaster whose normal weekly hours of duty, during which he is required to be available to attend at his station or at a fire or other occurrence in response to a call, are less than one hundred and twenty and not less than ninety-six and who is not provided with residential accommodation under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be paid a rent allowance of an amount determined with the approval of the Secretary of State by the fire authority."

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Fire Services (Conditions of Service) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations, 1957, shall come into operation on the 23rd day of August, 1957, and in the case of Regulation 1 shall take effect as from the 28th day of June, 1957.

Dated this 15th day of August, 1957.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Fire Services (Conditions of Service) (Scotland) No. 2 Regulations, 1954. Regulation 1 provides for increases in the pay of whole-time male members of fire brigades below the rank of Assistant Firemaster. Regulation 2 makes further provision for the grant of residential accommodation, or payment of an allowance in lieu, to certain whole-time officers, below the rank of Assistant Firemaster.
