EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend Regulation 4 of the Fixed Penalty (Procedure) Regulations 1970, as amended, in the following respects. Payment of a fixed penalty for an offence committed in the Metropolitan Police District outside Greater London shall, like payments for offences committed in Greater London other than the City, be made to the chief clerk at the Marylebone Magistrates' Court. Payment of a fixed penalty for an offence committed in the Isle of Wight or Portsmouth shall, like payments for offences committed in Hampshire, be made to the clerk to the justices for the Winchester petty sessional division. Payments for offences committed in the petty sessional division of Burwash in Sussex shall be made to the clerk to the justices for the Bexhill petty sessional division. Payments for offences committed in Herefordshire shall be made to the clerk to the justices for the city of Hereford. Offences committed in the petty sessional division of Orwell in the county of Suffolk shall be made to the clerk to the justices for the Woodbridge petty sessional division.
