EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Food Hygiene (Scotland) Regulations, 1959, in two respects. They correct a typographical error in regulation 31 (3) (b) and, secondly, make it clear that regulation 32 (3) (a) penalises a person who lets premises for use for the purpose of trading in food only if he lets them without first having complied with any structural requirement of the regulations applicable to that purpose.
