EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (No. 7) Order 1986 ("the principal order") contains emergency prohibitions restricting various activities in order to prevent human consumption of food which has been or which may have been rendered unsuitable for that purpose in consequence of the escape of radioactive substances from a nuclear reactor situated at Chernobyl in the USSR.

The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (No. 7) (Amendment) Order 1986 excepted from the restrictions imposed by the principal order those sheep which remained in certain parts of the designated areas on 21st August 1986 and the Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions (No. 7) (Amendment No. 2) Order 1986 similarly excepted from those restrictions sheep which remained in other parts of the designated areas on 29th August 1986. This order adds to the exceptions from the designated areas and amends Schedule 2 to the principal order; in consequence any sheep which have been moved from those further excepted areas before 2nd September 1986 remain subject to the remaining restrictions imposed by the principal order and, in particular, may not be slaughtered, anywhere in the United Kingdom, for human consumption or for use in the preparation of feeding stuffs.
