EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This order revokes the Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (No. 8) Order 1986, as amended, which designated areas in Scotland and imposed prohibitions and restrictions on various activities in those areas in order to prevent the human consumption of food rendered unsuitable for that purpose in consequence of the escape of radioactive substances from a nuclear reactor situated at Chernobyl in the Ukraine, USSR.

This order removes completely the prohibitions and restrictions on the slaughter and movement of sheep in certain parts of the designated areas. These parts are the Parishes of Glencairn and Tynron in Dumfries and Galloway Region, the Parish of Contin in Ross and Cromarty, part of the Parish of Kilmory on the Island of Arran, the designated area in south Strathclyde but excluding those parts of the Parishes of Straiton and Dalmellington within the said designated area, and the Parishes of North and South Uist in the Western Isles.
