Made - - - -	26th February 1964
Laid before Parliament	3rd March 1964
Coming into Operation	9th March 1964

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February 1964

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 3(2) of the Foreign Compensation Act 1962(a) it is provided that the power of Her Majesty under section 7(1) of the Foreign Compensation Act 1950(b) to make provision by Order in Council with respect to the payment of remuneration and allowances to officers and servants of the Foreign Compensation Commission (hereinafter referred to as "the Commission") shall extend to the making, in relation to persons who are or have been such officers or servants, of provision with respect to pensions or other benefits in connection with their retirement or death:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in that behalf by the said Acts or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The like pensions or other benefits in connection with their retirement or death may be granted—

(a) to or in respect of officers or servants of the Commission with regard to whose office or employment with the Commission there shall have been issued a certificate from the Civil Service Commission, as may be granted to or in respect of established civil servants of the State; and

(b) to or in respect of other officers or servants of the Commission, as may be granted to or in respect of unestablished civil servants of the State.

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if this Order were an Act of Parliament.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on 9th March 1964 and may be cited as the Foreign Compensation (Staff) (Superannuation Benefits) Order 1964.
