FUGITIVE CRIMINAL

The Fugitive Offenders (Extension) Order 1967

Made - - - -	31*st August* 1967
Laid before Parliament	1*st September* 1967
Coming into Operation	2*nd September* 1967

At the Court at Balmoral, the 31st day of August 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by sections 17 and 20 of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967(a), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Citation, commencement and application.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Fugitive Offenders (Extension) Order 1967.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on 2nd September 1967.

(3) In its application to the New Hebrides and Swaziland this Order shall have effect to the extent only of Her Majesty's jurisdiction.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) In this Order—

" Act " means the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 ;

" country " includes any territory ;

" dealt with " means tried or returned or surrendered to any country or detained with a view to trial or with a view to such return or surrender ;

" Governor ", in relation to any country other than a country mentioned in subsection (2) of this section means the person or persons administering the government of that country ;

" Schedule 2 " means Schedule 2 to this Order ;

" United Kingdom dependency " means—

(a) any colony (not being a colony for whose external relations a country other than the United Kingdom is responsible) ;

(b) any associated state within the meaning of the West Indies Act 1967(b) ; and

(c) any country outside Her Majesty's dominions (being a country in which Her Majesty has jurisdiction, or over which She extends protection, in right of Her Government in the United Kingdom) to which Her Majesty has by Order in Council, whether before or after the commencement of this Order, applied section 2(2) of the Act, not being in any case a country which is or forms part of a designated Commonwealth country.

(a) 1967 c. 68. (b) 1967 c. 4.

(2) In this Order references to Governor shall be construed:—

(a) in relation to the New Hebrides as references to Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific and, to the extent that authority to perform functions under Schedule 1 to this Order may be assigned by the High Commissioner to the Resident Commissioner for the New Hebrides, to the Resident Commissioner;

(b) in relation to Swaziland as references to Her Majesty's Commissioner for Swaziland.

(3) Where Her Majesty has by Order in Council, whether before or after the commencement of this Order, designated for the purposes of section 1 of the Act any country for the time being mentioned in section 1(3) of the British Nationality Act 1948(a) (countries having separate citizenship), or any other country within the Commonwealth, that country shall, unless it is otherwise provided by order of the Governor, be a designated Commonwealth country for the purposes of this Order; and any country so designated is in this Order referred to as a designated Commonwealth country.

(4) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting, and in relation to, Acts of Parliament.

Extension of section 14 of Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 to certain territories.

3. Section 14 of the Fugitive Offenders Act 1967 as modified and adapted in Schedule 1 hereto shall extend to the territories specified in Schedule 2.

W. G. Agnew.

SCHEDULE 1

Section 3.

Restriction upon proceedings for other offences.

14.—(1) This section applies to any person accused or convicted of an offence under the law of or of any part of any territory specified in Schedule 2 who is returned to the territory—

(a) from the United Kingdom, under the Act;

(b) from any designated Commonwealth country or from the Republic of Ireland under any law of that country corresponding with the Act;

(c) from any United Kingdom dependency, under the Act as extended to that dependency or under any corresponding law of that dependency.

(2) A person to whom this section applies shall not, during the period described in subsection (3) of this section, be dealt with in the territory for or in respect of any offence committed before he was returned to the territory other than—

(a) the offence in respect of which he was returned;

(b) any lesser offence proved by the facts proved for the purposes of securing his return; or

(a) 1948 c. 56. (b) 1889 c. 63.

(c) any other offence in respect of which the Government of the country or Governor of the dependency from which he was returned may consent to his being dealt with.

(3) The period referred to in subsection (2) of this section in relation to a person to whom this section applies is the period beginning with the day of his arrival in the territory on his return as mentioned in subsection (1) of this section and ending ninety days after the first subsequent day on which he has the opportunity to leave the territory.

DEFENCE

Officers' Commissions (Army) Order 1967

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of March 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas the Officers' Commissions Order 1927, as amended by the Officers' Commissions Order 1949, made provision as to the issue and form of Commissions in Her Majesty's Military Forces, that is to say, the Land Forces, the Royal Marines and the Territorial Army:

And whereas the Officers' Commissions (Royal Navy and Royal Marines) Order 1964 provided for the issue and form of Commissions in the Royal Marine Forces and the Reserve thereof, and further provided that the said Officers' Commissions Order 1927, as amended, should cease to have effect in relation thereto:

And whereas Her Majesty has determined that henceforth all officers of Her Military Forces (not being officers of the Royal Marine Forces or the Reserve thereof) shall be issued with Commissions in the same form, and that accordingly the Officers' Commissions Order 1927, as amended, shall be revoked, and that in lieu thereof provision shall be made in manner hereinafter appearing:—

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The division of Her Majesty's Military Forces for the purposes of Commissions into the Land Forces, the Royal Marines, and the Territorial Army, shall cease to have effect, and Her Military Forces shall henceforth be divided for the said purposes into the following forces:—

(1) the Land Forces; that is to say Her Majesty's Regular, Reserve and Auxiliary Military Forces (other than Marine Forces) raised under the law of the United Kingdom or of any Colony;

(2) the Royal Marine Forces and the Reserve thereof.

2. Save as hereinafter provided with respect to Commissions in the Royal Army Chaplains' Department and to Honorary Commissions, there shall be issued—

(a) to every officer of the Land Forces on the active list at the coming into effect of this Order who has not before that date received a Commission;

(b) to every officer of the Land Forces on first appointment after the coming into effect of this Order; a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in the form set out in Part I of the Schedule to this Order.

3. There shall be issued to every person on first appointment by Her Majesty to the Royal Army Chaplains' Department, including persons so appointed before the coming into effect of this Order who have not before that date received a Commission in that Department, a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in the form set out in Part II of the Schedule to this Order.

4. There shall be issued to every person appointed by Her Majesty to an Honorary rank in the Land Forces, who does not hold any other Commission in the Land Forces or a Commission in the Territorial Army, a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual in the form set out in Part III of the Schedule to this Order.

5. An officer who holds a Land Forces Commission shall continue to serve by virtue of that Commission on transfer from one part of Her Majesty's Land Forces to another, or if he is recalled for duty or re-employed as an officer of the Land Forces after having retired or having ceased to be on the active list.

6. All Commissions issued in accordance with this Order shall be countersigned by two members of the Defence Council or of the Army Board.

7.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Officers' Commissions (Army) Order 1967 and shall come into effect on the 1st April 1967.

(2) The Officers' Commissions Order 1927, and the Officers' Commissions Order 1949, are hereby revoked, but all existing Commissions issued by virtue of those Orders shall continue in full effect.

W. G. Agnew.

PACIFIC ISLANDS

The Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of May 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is proposed that in due course there shall be established for the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (hereinafter referred to as " the Colony ") a House of Representatives (in this Order referred to as " the proposed House of Representatives ") comprising 23 elected members as well as certain other members:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Citation and interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting, and in relation to, Acts of Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Provision for election of members of proposed House.

2.—(1) The Resident Commissioner may by regulations make provision for the election of the elected members of the proposed House of Representatives, and in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may provide for—

(a) the qualifications and disqualifications of voters;

(b) the registration of voters;

(c) the nomination of candidates for election (including the number of persons required to support nominations);

(d) the ascertainment of the qualifications of the voters and of candidates for election;

(e) the division of the Colony into electoral districts (by whatever name called) for the purpose of returning members to the proposed House of Representatives and the division of such electoral districts for any purpose connected with elections;

(f) the holding of elections;

(g) the determination of any question whether any person has been validly elected an elected member of the proposed House of Representatives or whether an elected member thereof has vacated his seat therein; and

(h) the definition and trial of offences connected with elections and the imposition of penalties therefor, including disqualification for membership of the proposed House of Representatives, or for registration as a voter, or for voting at elections, of any person concerned in any such offence.

(a) 1889 c. 63.

(2) No election of members of the proposed House of Representatives shall be held under regulations made under this section until provision has been made by Order of Her Majesty in Council for the establishment of that House; but electoral districts may be established, registration of voters may take place and all other things necessary or expedient to prepare for such elections may be done in pursuance of such regulations at any time after the commencement of this Order.

(3) Regulations made under this section shall be published in the Colony by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner and shall be printed in the Western Pacific High Commission Gazette as soon as may be after the date of such publication.

(4) In this section "the Resident Commissioner" means the Resident Commissioner for the Colony, and includes any person for the time being authorised to perform the functions of the office of the Resident Commissioner.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order empowers the Resident Commissioner of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony to make regulations providing for the election of the elected members of a House of Representatives which it is proposed should be established in due course for that Colony.

MAURITIUS

Mauritius Compensation and Retiring Benefits Order 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of May 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Mauritius Compensation and Retiring Benefits Order 1967.

Interpretation.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purposes of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting, and in relation to, Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Application of Schedule.

3. The provisions contained in the Schedule to this Order shall apply in relation to the public service of Mauritius with effect from the day appointed by the Governor under section 2(1) of the Mauritius Constitution Order 1966(b).

Transitional provisions.

4.—(1) Any conditions or notice prescribed by the appropriate Service Commission for the purposes of paragraph 3(1)(a), paragraph 4(1) or paragraph 12 of the Schedule to this Order shall not be less favourable to any officer than any conditions or notice specified in the corresponding provision of the compensation scheme.

(2) During the period commencing from the day appointed by the Governor under section 2(1) of the Mauritius Constitution Order 1966 and ending on the day on which the Constitution set out in the Schedule to that Order ceases to be in force, references in paragraph 6(2) of the Schedule to this Order to the appropriate Service Commission shall be construed as references to a Secretary of State.

(3) In this section "the appropriate Service Commission" has the meaning attributed to that expression in paragraph 1(1) of the Schedule to this Order and "the compensation scheme" means the general scheme of retirement benefits agreed between the Government of the United Kingdom and the Government of Mauritius.

Modified application.

5. If the Government of the United Kingdom and the Government of Mauritius agree that, in their application to any officer, the provisions of the Schedule to this Order shall have effect subject to modifications or exceptions, being modifications or exceptions which do not cause those provisions to be less favourable to that officer, then those provisions shall have effect accordingly.

SCHEDULE

COMPENSATION AND RETIRING BENEFITS FOR CERTAIN OFFICERS IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE OF MAURITIUS

Interpretation and application.

1.—(1) In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires—

"appropriate law" in relation to an officer in the public service means the law in force in Mauritius that governs the grant of pensions, gratuities, and other like benefits in respect of the service of that officer in the public service;

"appropriate Service Commission" means—

(a) in relation to an officer who can be removed from his office by the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, that Commission;

(b) in relation to an officer who can be removed from office by the Police Service Commission, that Commission; and

(c) in any other case, the Public Service Commission;

"entitled officer" means an officer in the public service who, on the operative date, had not attained the age of sixty years and—

(a) who was before the operative date appointed or selected for appointment to an office in the public service, being a pensionable office for the purposes of the appropriate law; or

(b) who was before the operative date transferred to the public service from the public service of a Government or other authority which was a scheduled Government for the purposes of Part III of the Regulations to the Pensions Ordinance 1951(a); and

(c) who was on the operative date the substantive holder of an office that was at that date a pensionable office for the purposes of the appropriate law;

(d) who was on the operative date a designated officer for the purposes of the Overseas Service (Mauritius) Agreement, 1961; and

(e) who has at all times since the operative date been the substantive holder of an office that has during his tenure thereof been a pensionable office for the purposes of the appropriate law;

"General Orders" means the General Orders of the Government of Mauritius;

"operative date" means, in relation to an entitled officer, the day appointed by the Governor under section 2(1) of the Mauritius Constitution Order 1966, and, in relation to an officer permitted to retire under paragraph 6 of this Schedule, the date on which he was given notice permitting him to retire;

"pensionable emoluments" means emoluments that may be taken into account in computing the pension of an officer under the appropriate law;

"pensionable service" means the aggregate amount of service that may be taken into account for the purpose of computing the pension of an officer under the appropriate law; and

(a) Laws of Mauritius 1951/90.

" substantive holder " in relation to any office does not include a person serving in that office for a specified term under a contract.

(2) For the purposes of this Schedule—

(a) a person shall not be regarded as holding any office on the operative date if on that date he was on leave of absence pending his retirement ;

(b) a person whose office has been abolished and who retires in consequence of the abolition of his office shall be deemed to be the substantive holder of that office during the period between the date on which the office was abolished and the date of expiration of any leave of absence granted to him.

Entitlement to compensation.

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, every entitled officer and every officer permitted to retire under paragraph 6 of this Schedule shall, on the operative date, become entitled to compensation, which shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph and at each assessment shall be calculated by multiplying by the appropriate factor the amount of his annual pensionable emoluments on the date in relation to which the assessment is made and the resulting amount, or twelve thousand pounds, whichever is the less, shall be the amount to which he is entitled :

Provided that an officer seconded to the service of another government or authority on the date in relation to which the assessment is made shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be deemed to have such annual pensionable emoluments on that date as he would have had on that date if he had not been so seconded but had continued until that date to hold the office in the public service that he was holding immediately before his secondment and had been granted all increments and other increases of pensionable emoluments for which he would thus have been eligible.

(2) The compensation to which each officer is entitled under this paragraph shall, if it has not already been provisionally assessed, be provisionally assessed as soon as is reasonably practicable after the operative date, and for that purpose the date in relation to which the assessment is to be made shall be that date.

(3) The compensation under this paragraph of each person who is serving as an entitled officer shall be provisionally re-assessed upon each anniversary of the operative date and shall be finally assessed upon his retirement or death while still serving as an entitled officer, and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph the date in relation to which the assessment is to be made shall be such date (not being earlier than the operative date or later than the date upon which his compensation is provisionally re-assessed or finally assessed, as the case may be) as is most advantageous in relation to the officer.

(4) Whenever the compensation of an officer is assessed, he (or, in the case of an officer who has died, his personal representatives) shall thereupon be given a statement showing the amount of the compensation to which, in accordance with the assessment, he is entitled.

(5) In this paragraph "the appropriate factor" in relation to an officer means the factor obtained from Table I of the Annex to this Schedule (or, in the case of a judge of the Supreme Court, Table II of that Annex) that is appropriate to the age and pensionable service of that officer on the date taken for calculation reckoned in completed years and months, or, if it is more favourable to the officer, reckoned in completed years without regard to parts of a year.

Payment of compensation.

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, when the compensation of an officer has been provisionally assessed under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule, a payment shall be made as soon as is practicable after, and in any case not later than three months after, the operative date to that officer, which—

(a) in the case of an entitled officer who has undertaken, otherwise than in relation to his promotion in the public service, to serve as such upon such conditions and for such period as may be prescribed by the appropriate Service Commission, shall be an amount equal to the amount of the compensation or two thousand pounds, whichever is the less ;

(b) in any other case, shall be an amount equal to the amount of the compensation as so assessed or, if that amount exceeds one thousand pounds, then one-sixth of the amount of compensation or one thousand pounds, whichever is the greater :

Provided that if an entitled officer gives such an undertaking after a payment has been made to him under this sub-paragraph but not later than twelve months after the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule, he shall be paid as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date on which he gave that undertaking (and in any event not later than three months thereafter) an amount which when added to the amount already paid to him equals the amount he would have been paid under this sub-paragraph if he had given that undertaking before any payment had been made to him under this sub-paragraph.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, a further payment shall be made to every person who has become entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule and who has not already received the whole of that compensation (whether that person is serving as an entitled officer or has retired) upon each anniversary of the operative date, which—

(a) in the case of a payment made upon the first, second, third or fourth anniversary, shall be an amount equal to the appropriate fraction of the balance of compensation then outstanding ; and

(b) in the case of a payment upon the fifth or any later anniversary, shall be an amount equal to the balance of compensation then outstanding :

Provided that—

(i) where the balance of compensation outstanding upon the first, second, third or fourth anniversary exceeds five hundred pounds and, in the case of an officer to whom sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph applies, where that balance, if added to the amount of compensation already paid under this paragraph, would exceed two thousand pounds, an amount equal to the appropriate fraction of that balance or four hundred pounds, whichever is the greater, shall be paid ; and

(ii) where the balance so outstanding is less than five hundred pounds, or, in the case of an officer to whom sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph applies, where that balance exceeds five hundred pounds but would not, if added to the amount of compensation already paid under this paragraph, exceed two thousand pounds, an amount equal to that balance shall be paid.

(3) Whenever—

(a) a person who has become entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule but who has not already received the whole of that compensation (and in the case of an entitled officer whether he is still serving as such or has already retired) attains the age of sixty years or, in the case of a person who is or was when he retired a judge of the Supreme Court, sixty-two years, or dies before attaining that age ;

(b) an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 retires in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(a), (c) or (d) of this Schedule before he has attained that age or is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(b) of this Schedule ; or

(c) an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule retires in any other circumstances before he has attained that age but on or after the fifth anniversary of the date in relation to which his compensation was assessed, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled shall be paid to him or, if he is dead, to his personal representatives.

(4) An entitled officer required to retire under section 16 of the Mauritius Constitution Order 1966 shall be paid the compensation or the balance thereof (if any), as the case may be, to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule—

(a) before his departure from Mauritius, if notice requiring him to retire is given to him while he is engaged upon a tour of residential service ; or

(b) on the date upon which such notice is given to him, if such notice is given to him while on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service.

(5) Whenever an entitled officer who has not already received the whole of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 5 of this Schedule, the balance then outstanding of the compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 shall be paid to him as soon as is reasonably practicable after the date upon which notice requiring him to retire is given to him.

(6) The Financial Secretary may direct that instead of any payment being made to the personal representatives of a deceased person payment shall be made to one of the dependants of the deceased or to two or more of those dependants in such proportions as the Financial Secretary may think fit.

(7) Whenever any payment of compensation becomes due under this Schedule, interest at the rate of five per centum per annum shall accrue from day to day—

(a) in cases where the compensation has not been finally assessed, during the period between the date on which the amount of the compensation was last due to be assessed and the date on which the next following assessment is to be made ; and

(b) in cases where the compensation has been finally assessed, during the period between the date on which that payment of compensation became due and the date on which the next following payment of compensation will become due upon any part of the compensation that did not then become payable and that interest shall become payable at the end of the period during which it accrued :

Provided that, for the purposes of calculating interest under this sub-paragraph, the compensation to which an officer is entitled shall be deemed to have been provisionally assessed, and the first instalment thereof paid, in the case of an entitled officer, on the operative date and, in the case of a person permitted to retire under paragraph 6 of this Schedule, on the date on which his leave of absence pending retirement expires.

(8) When the compensation of an entitled officer is finally assessed on his retirement and the balance thereof paid to him, in addition to the interest payable under sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph, the officer shall be paid a sum equal to the interest that would, if the balance of compensation due to him on the date of his retirement had not been paid and provision had been made for interest at the rate of five per centum per annum to accrue from day to day on that balance, have accrued upon that balance during the period between the date of his retirement and the next anniversary of the operative date.

(9) In this paragraph " the appropriate fraction "—

(a) in relation to an assessment made upon the first anniversary, means one-fifth ;

(b) in relation to an assessment made upon the second anniversary, means one-quarter ;

(c) in relation to an assessment made upon the third anniversary, means one-third ; and

(d) in relation to an assessment made upon the fourth anniversary, means one-half.

Retirement.

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an entitled officer may, after giving such notice as may be prescribed by the appropriate Service Commission, retire at any time.

(2) An entitled officer who has given notice of his intention to retire under this paragraph on any date may, with the consent of the appropriate Service Commission, withdraw the notice at any time before that date.

(3) No entitled officer shall retire under this paragraph without the permission of the appropriate Service Commission:

Provided that the Commission shall not withhold permission unless disciplinary proceedings are being taken, or are about to be taken, against the officer and those proceedings might lead to his dismissal.

(4) An entitled officer—

(a) who is permitted to retire by reason of injury or ill-health;

(b) who is required to retire on or after his attainment of any age prescribed by law;

(c) who is required to retire in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the part of the public service to which he belongs by which greater economy or efficiency may be effected;

(d) who is required to retire in the public interest;

(e) who is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 5 of this Schedule;

(f) who is required to retire under section 16 of the Mauritius Constitution Order 1966; or

(g) in the case of a woman officer, who is required to retire on or after her marriage; shall be deemed to have retired under this paragraph.

(5) An entitled officer who retires under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph and who, when he gives the notice therein mentioned, is on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service shall—

(a) if he returns to Mauritius for further duty at the requirement of the Government of Mauritius, be provided with such passages for himself and his family and such baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when returning to Mauritius for a tour of duty and when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service;

(b) if he returns to Mauritius to settle his affairs and on his return completes a tour of residential service of not less than twelve months, be paid the cost of the passages for himself and his family and of transporting his baggage to Mauritius (not exceeding the cost of such passages and baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when returning to Mauritius for a tour of duty) and be provided with such passages for himself and his family and such baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service; and

(c) if he does not return to Mauritius, be provided with such baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service.

(6) An entitled officer who retires under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph but who, when he gives the notice therein mentioned, is not on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service shall be provided with such passages and baggage facilities for himself and his family as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service.

(7) An entitled officer who is required to retire in the circumstances described in sub-paragraph (4)(c) or (f) of this paragraph and who, when he is given notice requiring him to retire, is on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service shall—

(a) if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible on the date upon which he is given notice requiring him to retire is less than six months, be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of such leave of absence from that date up to six months ;

(b) if he returns to Mauritius, also be provided with a passage to Mauritius for his own use as if he were returning to Mauritius for a further tour of residential service and paid a subsistence allowance, at the rate prescribed by General Orders, for a period not exceeding twenty-one days ; and

(c) if he has returned to Mauritius, be provided with such passage and baggage facilities as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service.

(8) An entitled officer who is required to retire in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph but who, when he is given notice requiring him to retire, is not on leave of absence after completing a tour of residential service shall—

(a) not be required to depart from Mauritius on leave of absence pending his retirement until the expiration of a period of six months from the date upon which he was given notice requiring him to retire ;

(b) be provided with such passages and baggage facilities for himself and his family as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service ; and

(c) if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible is less than six months, be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of such leave of absence pending his retirement up to six months.

Retirement to facilitate constitutional changes.

5.—(1) An entitled officer required to relinquish the duties of his office and thereafter to retire in order to facilitate the introduction of constitutional changes—

(a) shall be paid, either before his departure on leave pending retirement or as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter, a disturbance grant equal to one-quarter of his annual pensionable emoluments at the date of his retirement ;

(b) shall, if the period of leave on full pensionable emoluments for which he is eligible on the date of his departure on leave pending retirement is less than six months, be granted such additional leave on full pensionable emoluments as will bring the aggregate period of such leave of absence from that date up to six months ; and

(c) shall be provided with such passages and baggage facilities for himself and his family as an officer of similar status is entitled to under General Orders when retiring from the public service having attained the age of sixty years and having completed a final tour of residential service.

(2) Any dispute as to whether this paragraph applies to an entitled officer shall be decided by the appropriate Service Commission.

Retirement on ground that career is prejudiced.

6.—(1) This paragraph shall apply to an officer who would have been an entitled officer if he had been designated for the purposes of the Overseas Service (Mauritius) Agreement 1961 and who was before the operative date—

(a) a member of Her Majesty's Overseas Civil Service or Her Majesty's Overseas Judiciary ; or (b) selected for appointment, or whose appointment was approved, by a Secretary of State.

(2) If, on the application of an officer to whom this paragraph applies made before he attains the age of sixty years (or in the case of a Judge of the Supreme Court, sixty-two years), the appropriate Service Commission is satisfied that, as a consequence of constitutional changes, the public service career of the officer has been adversely affected or there are reasonable grounds for believing that his public service career will be adversely affected, the appropriate Service Commission may permit the officer to retire forthwith or on such date as may be specified by the appropriate Service Commission and the officer shall be entitled to retire accordingly.

(3) The provisions of paragraph 7 of this Schedule shall apply in relation to an officer upon his retirement under this paragraph, as if he were an entitled officer retiring in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(b) of this Schedule.

Grant of pensions and gratuities to entitled officers.

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Schedule, an entitled officer, on his retirement under this Schedule, may be granted at his option (such option to be exercised before the date of retirement or, in the case of an entitled officer retiring in any of the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4) of this Schedule, within one month after that date) either—

(a) a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law ;

(b) a reduced pension equal to such fraction as he may desire of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law (not being, in the case of an officer who retires within twelve years of the operative date, less than the permitted fraction) together with a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the remaining fraction of that pension multiplied by the appropriate factor ; or

(c) in the case of an officer who retires not less than twelve years after the operative date, a gratuity equal to the annual amount of the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law multiplied by the appropriate factor.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph an officer shall be deemed to be eligible for the grant of a pension under the appropriate law—

(a) notwithstanding that he may have retired before attaining the age specified in the appropriate law as qualifying him for the grant of a pension ; and

(b) notwithstanding that he may not have completed at the date of his retirement the period of qualifying service required by the appropriate law to render him eligible for the grant of a pension.

(3) Where an entitled officer retires by reason of ill-health in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension the provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law included references to that additional pension.

(4) Where an entitled officer retires by reason of injury or in consequence of the abolition of his office or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the part of the public service to which he belongs by which greater economy or efficiency may be effected in circumstances in which he could under the appropriate law be granted an additional pension, the provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to that officer as if references to the pension that may be granted under the appropriate law did not include references to that additional pension.

(5) For the purposes of this paragraph the amount of the pension that an entitled officer who is required to retire in the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4)(c) or (f) or paragraph 5 of this Schedule may be granted under the appropriate law shall be calculated by reference to the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him on the date immediately prior to his retirement.

(6) If an entitled officer has not exercised the option conferred upon him by sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph within the period in which it is required to be exercised he shall be deemed to have opted for the grant of a pension of such amount as may be granted under the appropriate law.

(7) In this paragraph—

" the appropriate factor " in relation to an officer means the factor obtained from Table III of the Annex to this Schedule that is appropriate to the age of that officer at the date immediately prior to his retirement reckoned in completed years and completed months ;

" the permitted fraction "—

(a) in relation to an officer who retires less than one year after the operative date, means three-quarters ; and

(b) in relation to an officer who retires one year or more after the operative date, means such fraction as is obtained by subtracting one-sixteenth for each complete year of his pensionable service after the operative date from three-quarters :

Provided that in reckoning for the purposes of this sub-paragraph the years of pensionable service of an officer who is granted leave of absence pending his retirement, leave of absence granted in respect of service prior to the operative date the enjoyment of which had on the operative date been deferred shall not be taken into account.

Special gratuity for certain officers.

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Schedule, where any entitled officer to whom Part III of the Regulations to the Pensions Ordinance (as in force on the operative date) applies retires under this Schedule and is granted by any government or other authority that is a Scheduled Government for the purposes of that Part both a pension and a gratuity, having elected to receive that pension and that gratuity in lieu of a pension of greater amount, he may be granted (in addition to any gratuity that may be granted to him under paragraph 7 of this Schedule) a gratuity equal to the amount (if any) by which the amount produced by—

(a) subtracting the annual amount of the pension granted to him by the Scheduled Government from the annual amount of the pension that would have been granted to him by that Government had he not elected to receive the gratuity granted to him by that Government ; and exceeds the amount of the gratuity granted to him by that Government.

(2) In this paragraph " the appropriate factor " has the same meaning as in paragraph 7 of this Schedule.

Special gratuity on the death of certain officers.

9.—(1) Where an entitled officer dies and it is lawful under the provisions of the appropriate law for a gratuity to be granted to his personal representatives, there shall be granted to his personal representatives either that gratuity or a gratuity equal to the maximum gratuity which could have been granted to that officer under the provisions of paragraph 7 of this Schedule if he had retired under this Schedule at the date of his death, whichever is the greater :

Provided that, where the officer was an officer to whom Part III of the Regulations to the Pensions Ordinance (as in force on the operative date) applied, then, in respect of such part of the pension for which he would have been eligible if he had retired under this Schedule at the date of his death as is attributable to his pensionable service otherwise than in the public service of Mauritius—

(a) the provisions of paragraph 7(1)(c) of this Schedule shall not apply ; and

(b) the permitted fraction referred to in paragraph 7 shall be not less than three-quarters.

(2) For the purposes of the proviso to sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, the part of a pension which is attributable to the pensionable service of an officer otherwise than in the public service of Mauritius shall be such part as bears the same proportion to the pension for which the officer would have been eligible if his pensionable service had been wholly in the public service of Mauritius as the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments during his pensionable service otherwise than in the public service of Mauritius bears to the aggregate amount of his pensionable emoluments throughout his pensionable service.

(3) The Financial Secretary may direct that any gratuity payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall, instead of being paid to the personal representatives, be paid to one of the dependants of the deceased or be divided among any two or more of those dependants in such proportions as the Financial Secretary may think fit.

Entitled officer re-appointed to U.K. service.

10.—(1) This paragraph applies to an entitled officer who—

(a) has retired under this Schedule ;

(b) was transferred to the public service from pensionable employment under the Government of the United Kingdom either in a public office as defined by the Superannuation Act 1892(a) or in employment pensionable under the Federated Superannuation System for Universities ; and (c) not later than twelve months after he retired has (other than as the result of a competition conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners of the United Kingdom) returned to such pensionable employment.

(2) A person to whom this paragraph applies shall cease to be entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, but shall be entitled to compensation of an amount equal to—

(a) one-half of the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule ; or

(b) the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 11 of this Schedule having been transferred to the pensionable employment referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(c) of this paragraph on the date on which he retired, whichever is the less.

(3) If the provisions of this paragraph become applicable to any officer his compensation shall forthwith be re-assessed, and—

(a) if the amount of compensation as so re-assessed exceeds the amount he has already received under paragraph 3 of this Schedule, the balance of compensation then outstanding together with any unpaid interest that has accrued under that paragraph before the re-assessment shall be paid in the manner prescribed by paragraph 3(2) of this Schedule for the payment of compensation assessed under paragraph 2 of this Schedule ; or

(b) if the amount of compensation he has already received under that paragraph exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under this paragraph, the excess shall forthwith become repayable, but in any such case any interest received on account of such excess shall not be repayable.

Transfer of entitled officer to other public service.

11.—(1) This paragraph applies to an entitled officer (other than an officer to whom paragraph 10 of this Schedule applies) who is transferred from the public service—

(a) to the service of a government or authority that is a Scheduled Government for the purposes of Part III of the Regulations to the Pensions Ordinance (or any law for the time being in force amending or replacing that Part of those Regulations) in circumstances in which he remains eligible for the grant of a pension under the appropriate law upon his eventual retirement ; or

(b) to service in the office of Governor in such circumstances that he is or may become eligible for a pension under the Governors' Pensions Act 1957(b).

(2) An officer to whom this paragraph applies shall cease to be entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, but if the amount of his annual pensionable emoluments immediately before his transfer exceeds the amount of the annual emoluments payable to him immediately after his transfer (being emoluments that may be taken into account for the purpose of his pension under the law or regulations relating to his service in such other public service as is specified in sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b) of this paragraph) he shall be entitled to compensation equal to—

(a) 1892 c. 40. (b) 1957 c. 62.

(a) the amount of the excess multiplied by the appropriate factor; or

(b) the amount he would receive if he were entitled to compensation under paragraph 2 of this Schedule, having retired on the date of his transfer,

whichever is the less.

(3) If the provisions of this paragraph becomes applicable to any officer, his compensation shall forthwith be re-assessed, and—

(a) if the amount of compensation as so re-assessed exceeds the amount he has already received under paragraph 3 of this Schedule, the balance of compensation then outstanding together with any unpaid interest that has accrued under that paragraph before the re-assessment shall be paid in the manner prescribed by paragraph 3(2) of this Schedule for the payment of compensation assessed under paragraph 2 of this Schedule; or

(b) if the amount of compensation he has already received under that paragraph exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under this paragraph, the excess shall forthwith become repayable, but in any such case any interest received on account of the excess shall not be repayable.

(4) In this paragraph "the appropriate factor" in relation to an officer means the factor obtained from Table IV of the Annex to this Schedule that is appropriate to the age of the officer at the date of his transfer reckoned in completed years and completed months.

Penalties for breach of undertakings.

12.—(1) If an entitled officer who has given such an undertaking as is referred to in paragraph 3(1)(a) of this Schedule ceases to serve in accordance with the terms of that undertaking at any time before the end of the period to which the undertaking relates otherwise than by reason of his death or his retirement in circumstances beyond his control, the amount of compensation to which he would otherwise be entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule shall be reduced by one-half per centum for each month or part of a month during that period in which he has not served in accordance with the undertaking or by two hundred pounds, whichever is the less.

(2) If an entitled officer who has been granted promotion in the public service after the operative date, upon his giving an undertaking to serve upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the appropriate Service Commission for any period, ceases to serve in accordance with the terms of that undertaking at any time before the end of the period to which the undertaking relates otherwise than by reason of his death or his retirement in circumstances beyond his control, the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under paragraph 2 of this Schedule shall be re-assessed and the amount of his compensation shall be determined as if his annual pensionable emoluments in relation to the date of his promotion or any subsequent date were the amount of the pensionable emoluments which would have been used in accordance with Regulation 19 of the Regulations to the Pensions Ordinance as in force on the operative date) for the purposes of pension if he had retired on the date of his promotion or that the subsequent date, as the case may be.

(3) If any of the provisions of this paragraph becomes applicable to any entitled officer, his compensation shall be re-assessed accordingly and paid in accordance with paragraph 3 of this Schedule and if the amount of compensation he has already received under that paragraph exceeds the amount of compensation to which he is entitled under the re-assessment the excess shall forthwith become repayable, but in any such case any interest received on account of the excess shall not be repayable.

Proceedings and dismissal.

13.—(1) When proceedings are taken, or are about to be taken, against any person who is serving as an entitled officer and those proceedings might lead to his dismissal, the payment of compensation under this Schedule and interest thereon shall be withheld pending the determination of these proceedings.

(2) Where any person who is serving as an entitled officer is dismissed, any compensation that he has not already received may, with the concurrence of the appropriate Service Commission, be withheld.

Place of payment and rate of exchange.

14. Any compensation, gratuity, disturbance grant or interest payable under this Schedule to an officer or to his personal representatives or dependants shall be paid, in accordance with any request made from time to time by such officer, his personal representatives or his dependants, as the case may be, in any of the following countries:—

(a) in the United Kingdom;

(b) in Mauritius;

(c) in the country from which the officer was recruited or where he intends to reside;

(d) in the case of payment to the personal representatives of an officer or his dependants, in the country in which the personal representatives or the dependants, as the case may be, reside; or

(e) in such country as the officer or his personal representatives or dependants may, with the concurrence of the Financial Secretary, select, in the currency of the country in which payment is to be made; and, where payment is to be made in a country other than Mauritius, the amount of the payment shall be such as would produce, at the official rate of exchange prevailing at the date of the payment, the amount in sterling of the compensation, gratuity, disturbance grant or interest as calculated at the official rate of exchange prevailing on the operative date.

Right to opt for abolition terms.

15.—(1) An entitled officer who, before he receives his initial payment of compensation, gives notice of retirement under paragraph 4 of this Schedule, or is required to retire in any of the circumstances described in paragraph 4(4) or paragraph 5 of this Schedule may at his option (such option to be exercised within three months of the commencement of this Order) become an officer to whom this paragraph applies.

(2) An officer to whom this paragraph applies shall not be entitled to compensation under this Schedule or be granted a pension, gratuity or disturbance grant under this Schedule but, subject to the provisions of paragraph 16 of this Schedule may, on his retirement under this Schedule, be granted such benefits as may be granted under the appropriate law to an officer whose office has been abolished.

(3) An officer to whom this paragraph applies shall repay the amount of any compensation that may have been paid to him.

Application of appropriate law.

16. The provisions of the appropriate law shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, apply in relation to the grant of any pension or gratuity under this Schedule and to any pension or gratuity granted thereunder as they apply in relation to the grant of a pension or gratuity, and to any pension or gratuity granted, under the appropriate law.

Exemption from tax.

17. Any compensation, gratuity or disturbance grant payable under any of the provisions of this Schedule shall be exempt from tax under any law in force in Mauritius relating to the taxation of income.

Exercise of option.

18. Any option exercisable by any person for the purposes of this Schedule—

(a) shall be irrevocable after the end of the period within which it is to be exercised ;

(b) shall be exercised by notice in writing to the appropriate authority ;

(c) shall be deemed to have been exercised on the date on which notice is received :

Provided that the appropriate Service Commission may, if it thinks fit, generally or in respect of a particular person and subject or not to conditions, extend the period for the exercise of an option.

ANNEX

Instructions for Obtaining the Appropriate Factor from Table I

I. Read off from the table the factors for officer's age at his last birthday and his—

(a) completed years of service,

(b) completed years of service plus one year.

II. Subtract I(a) from I(b), divide the difference by twelve and multiply the result by the number of completed months of service, if any, in excess of the completed years of service.

III. Add I(a) and II.

IV. Repeat steps to III for the officer's age at his next birthday.

V. Divide the difference between III and IV by twelve and multiply by the number of completed months of age, if any, since the officer's last birthday.

VI. If IV is greater than III, add V to III.

If IV is less than III subtract V from III.

VI is the factor required.

Instructions for Obtaining the Appropriate Factor from Tables II, III or IV

I. Read off from the Table the factors for the officer's age—

II. Divide the difference between I(a) and I(b) by twelve and multiply by the number of completed months of age since the last birthday.

III. If I(b) is greater than I(a), add II to I(a).

If I(b) is less than I(a), subtract II from I(a).

III is the factor required.

In calculating factors by interpolation in respect of Tables I to IV the calculations should be rounded off to two decimal points and where this results in a difference of point nought one in either direction such difference should be ignored.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order makes provision for compensation and retiring benefits for certain officers in the public service of Mauritius.

GIBRALTAR

The Gibraltar (Referendum) Order 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Gibraltar (Referendum) Order 1967.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) This Order shall be construed as one with the Constitution set out in Schedule 2 to the Gibraltar (Constitution) Order 1964(a).

(2) In this Order "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made under section 4 of this Order.

(3) In the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this Order the Governor shall not be obliged to consult the Gibraltar Council.

Referendum to be held in Gibraltar.

3.—(1) There shall be a referendum in Gibraltar for the purpose of enabling the people of Gibraltar to state which of the following courses would better serve their interests:—

(a) to pass under Spanish sovereignty in accordance with the terms proposed by the Spanish Government to the Government of the United Kingdom on 18th May 1966 (which terms are set out in the Schedule to this Order); or

(b) voluntarily to retain their link with the United Kingdom, with democratic local institutions and with the United Kingdom retaining its present responsibilities.

(2) The referendum shall be held on a day or days to be appointed by the Governor by notice published in the Gazette, not being within the period of twenty-eight days after the publication of the notice, and voting for the purpose of the referendum shall take place during such hours as may be specified in the notice.

Governor may make regulations.

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Governor may by regulation make provision for the conduct and organisation of the referendum, all matters incidental or ancillary thereto, and generally for the purposes of this Order.

(2) Regulations made under this section shall make provision—

(a) for the registration as voters of persons qualified to be so registered by virtue of the provisions of section 5 of this Order;

(b) for the procedure to be followed at the holding of the referendum, including the manner in which votes shall be cast;

(c) for ascertaining and publishing the result of the voting;

(a) S.I. 1964 II, p. 3143.

(d) for affording facilities to observe the conduct and organisation of the referendum to any persons appointed for that purpose by the Secretary-General of the United Nations or by or on behalf of the Spanish Government or any other Government invited by the Government of the United Kingdom to make such an appointment;

(e) for the presentation to the Supreme Court of Gibraltar of petitions relating to any dispute concerning the result of the voting and for the time and manner in which such petitions shall be heard and determined by that Court;

(f) for giving effect to any directions given under section 9(2) of this Order; and

(g) for the definition and trial of offences relating to the referendum and the imposition of penalties therefor:

Provided that the penalty for such an offence shall not exceed a fine of one hundred pounds or a term of imprisonment of twelve months or both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Regulations made under this section may be amended or revoked by subsequent regulations so made.

Qualifications for registration as a voter.

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, a person shall be qualified to be registered as a voter if, and shall not be so qualified unless, on the prescribed date—

(a) he is of the age of twenty-one years or upwards;

(b) he is registered as a Gibraltarian in the register established and maintained under the provisions of the Gibraltarian Status Ordinance(a), as amended(b); and (c) he is ordinarily resident in Gibraltar.

(2) No person shall be qualified to be registered as a voter who, on the prescribed date—

(a) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court in any part of the Commonwealth, or is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) exceeding twelve months imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court, or is under such a sentence the execution of which has been suspended;

(b) is a person certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any law in force in Gibraltar; or

(c) is disqualified for registration as a voter for elections of members of the Legislative Council or the City Council by any law in force in Gibraltar by reason of his having been convicted of any offence connected with such elections.

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

(a) Cap. 218 of the Laws of Gibraltar, 1962 Edition.

(b) Ordinances No. 20 of 1963 and No. 25 of 1965.

Entitlement to vote of registered voters.

6.—(1) Any person who is registered as a voter shall be entitled to cast a vote in the manner prescribed for the purpose of indicating which of the alternatives specified in section 3(1) of this Order he prefers:

Provided that no such person shall be entitled so to vote if on the date appointed for voting he is in lawful custody or (except in so far as may be otherwise prescribed) he is for any other reason unable to attend in person at the place and time appointed for voting.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 9(2) of this Order, no person shall be entitled to vote more than once in the referendum.

Appointment, etc. of Referendum Administrator and other officers.

7.—(1) There shall be a Referendum Administrator who shall, subject to the provisions of section 8(1) and (3) of this Order, be responsible for the conduct of the referendum.

(2) The Referendum Administrator shall be appointed by the Governor in pursuance of instructions given by Her Majesty through a Secretary of State:

Provided that no person shall be appointed who is registered, or entitled to be registered, as a Gibraltarian in the register referred to in paragraph (b) of section 5(1) of this Order or who is in the service of the Crown in respect of the government of Gibraltar.

(3) The Governor may, in Her Majesty's name and on Her Majesty's behalf, constitute such other offices as he may consider necessary for the purposes of this Order and any regulations made thereunder, and appoint persons to those offices and exercise disciplinary control over and dismiss persons appointed to those offices.

(4) The Referendum Administrator and the other officers appointed under this section shall hold office at Her Majesty's pleasure.

Directions to Referendum Administrator and other officers, and exercise of Administrator's functions.

8.—(1) The Governor may give the Referendum Administrator such directions with respect to the exercise of his functions under this Order or any regulations made thereunder as he may consider desirable; and the Referendum Administrator shall comply with those directions or cause them to be complied with.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Referendum Administrator may give the officers appointed under section 7(3) of this Order such directions with respect to the exercise of their functions under this Order or any regulations made thereunder as he may consider desirable; and those officers shall comply with those directions or shall cause them to be complied with.

(3) Until the Referendum Administrator has been appointed and has assumed the functions of his office, the functions of the Referendum Administrator under this Order or any regulations made thereunder, including the power to give directions under subsection (2) of this section, may be exercised by the Governor.

Result of voting may be declared invalid and fresh votes taken.

9.—(1) The decision of the Supreme Court in respect of any petition for which provision is made by regulations made in pursuance of paragraph (e) of section 4(2) of this Order, including the findings of the Court upon the facts of the case, shall be transmitted to the Referendum Administrator.

(2) The Referendum Administrator may, if he considers it desirable so to do in the light of any decision of the Supreme Court relating to any dispute concerning the result of the voting, declare that the result of the voting, either generally or at a particular place, is invalid, and direct that the voters or, as the case may be, the voters entitled to vote at that place shall be given a further opportunity of voting for the purposes of the referendum.

Expenses relating to the referendum.

10.—(1) All expenses properly incurred in respect of the conduct and organisation of the referendum or otherwise for the purposes of this Order or any regulations made thereunder, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any expenses incurred on behalf of the Crown in any legal proceedings arising in connection with the referendum, are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid out of, the general revenues of Gibraltar.

(2) The Referendum Administrator and the other officers referred to in section 7 of this Order may be paid out of the general revenues of Gibraltar such salaries and allowances as the Governor may direct, and those salaries and allowances are hereby charged upon those revenues.

THE SCHEDULE

Section 3(1)(a)

Extract from Statement and Proposals made by the Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs on 18 May 1966 to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs

(d) Formal proposal

In view of all these considerations, Spain proposes to the Government of Great Britain that a Convention should be signed, the First Article of which should contain the cancellation of Article 10 of the Treaty of Utrecht of 1713 and the restoration of the national unity and territorial integrity of Spain through the reversion of Gibraltar, thus complying with the mandate of the United Nations.

In the Second Article my Country would accept the presence at Gibraltar of a British Military Base whose structure, legal situation, and co-ordination with the defense organisation of Spain or the Free World would be the subject of a negotiation for an especial Agreement to be attached to the Convention we are proposing.

Spain proposes a Third Article stipulating that a legal regime to protect the interests of the present citizens of Gibraltar should be the subject of an additional Anglo-Spanish agreement registered in the United Nations, as has been stated. In this agreement, in addition to the appropriate economic and administrative formulae, a Personal Statute would be established, by which, among other fundamental rights—such as freedom of religion—the British nationality of the present inhabitants of Gibraltar would be respected, and their right of residence would be guaranteed, as also the free exercise of their lawful activities, and a guarantee of permanence in their place of work.

Finally in a Fourth Article, it would be specified that this Convention will be effective after the two additional agreements to which reference has been made in the Second and Third Articles, shall have been signed and registered in the United Nations.

BY THE QUEEN

A PROCLAMATION

ALTERING CERTAIN DAYS APPOINTED FOR BANK HOLIDAYS IN THE YEAR 1968

ELIZABETH R.

Whereas We consider it inexpedient that in Scotland the first Monday in May, or in England and Wales and Scotland the first Monday in August, should be Bank Holidays in the year 1968:

Now, therefore, We, in exercise of the powers conferred on Us by section 5 of the Bank Holidays Act 1871(a), section 3 of the Holidays Extension Act 1875(b), section 1 of the Revenue Offices (Scotland) Holidays Act 1880(c), and section 3(3) of the Customs and Excise Act 1952(d), do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, declare and appoint as follows:—

1. In Scotland in the year 1968 the first Monday in May shall not be a a Bank Holiday, and instead the first Monday in June shall be a Bank Holiday.

2. In England and Wales and in Scotland in the year 1968 the first Monday in August shall not be a Bank Holiday, and instead the first Monday in September shall be a Bank Holiday.

3. In this Proclamation the expression "Bank Holiday" shall include a public holiday in the Inland Revenue Offices and a holiday in the Customs and Excise.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and in the sixteenth year of Our Reign.

PACIFIC ISLANDS

The Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) (Amendment) Order 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation and construction.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) (Amendment) Order 1967 and shall be construed as one with the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967(a) (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Order ").

(2) The principal Order and this Order may be cited together as the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Orders 1967.

Amendment of section 2 of principal Order.

2. In section 2 of the principal Order—

(a) paragraph (e) of subsection (1) shall have effect and shall be deemed always to have had effect as if for the words " the division of the Colony into electoral districts " there were substituted the words " the establishment in the Colony of electoral districts " ; and

(b) subsection (2) shall be deleted and there shall be substituted therefor the following subsection—

" (2) Elections of elected members of the proposed House of Representatives may be held under regulations made under this section notwithstanding that provision for the establishment of that House has not been made by Order of Her Majesty in Council.".

Addition of new sections to principal Order.

3. The principal Order is amended by the addition thereto of the following new sections—

"Qualifications for election to proposed House.

3. Subject to the provisions of the next following section a person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the proposed House of Representatives if, and shall not be so qualified unless,—

(a) he is a British subject or a British protected person ;

(b) he has attained the age of twenty-one years ; and

(c) he has resided in the Colony during the three years immediately preceding the date of his election for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to not less than thirty months, or is domiciled in the Colony and is resident therein at that date.

(a) S.I. 1967 II, p. 3780.

Disqualifications for election to proposed House.

4.—(1) No person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the proposed House of Representatives who—

(a) is, by virtue of his own act, under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a foreign power or state;

(b) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law for the time being in force in any part of the Commonwealth and has not been discharged;

(c) is certified to be insane or otherwise judged to be of unsound mind under any law for the time being in force in the Colony;

(d) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court in any part of the Commonwealth, or is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term of or exceeding twelve months imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court, or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended;

(e) is disqualified from membership of the proposed House under any provision of regulations made under section 2 of this Order relating to offences connected with elections; or

(f) holds, or is acting in, any office the functions of which involve any responsibility for, or any connection with, the conduct of any election or the compilation or revision of any electoral register.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of the preceding subsection—

(a) two or more terms of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as a single term of imprisonment for the aggregate period of those terms; and

(b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.".

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967 so as to enable certain islands, not permanently inhabitated, in the Colony to be omitted from the electoral districts, to enable elections to the proposed House of Representatives to be held before an Order in Council establishing that House has been made and to make provision with respect to qualifications and disqualifications for election.

SEYCHELLES

The Seychelles (Electoral Provisions) (No. 2) Order 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, The 28th day of July 1967

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is proposed that in due course there should be established for the Colony of Seychelles a new Council having legislative powers which will replace the present Legislative Council and the membership of which will include eight elected members :

And whereas it is further proposed that, for the purpose of electing the members of the new Council, Seychelles should be divided into eight constituencies :

And whereas the Seychelles (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967(a) has empowered the Governor, for the purpose of the election of members of the Council, to make provision, by regulation, for the division of Seychelles into eight constituencies, the qualifications of electors, the registration of electors and other matters incidental thereto or consequential thereon :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation, construction, publication and commencement.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Seychelles (Electoral Provisions) (No. 2) Order 1967 and shall be construed as one with the Seychelles (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967.

(2) This Order shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into force on the day on which it is so published.

Power to make electoral regulations.

2.—(1) The Governor, acting in his discretion, may by regulation published in the Gazette make provision for the purposes of the election of members of the proposed Council, for—

(a) the holding of elections ;

(b) the definition and trial of offences relating to elections and the imposition of penalties therefor, including disqualification for membership of the Council or for registration as an elector or for voting at elections of any person concerned in such an offence ; and

(c) any matter that appears to him to be incidental to or consequential upon any of the foregoing matters.

(2) Regulations made under the preceding subsection may provide that any provisions of the Legislative Council (Elections) Ordinance 1959 of the Colony(b), as amended, specified in the regulations shall apply for the purposes of the regulations with such adaptations, modifications and exceptions as may be so specified.

(a) S.I. 1967 I, p. 2126. (b) Ordinance No. 24 of 1959.

3. No elections of members to the proposed Council shall be held under regulations made under this section until provision has been made by Order of Her Majesty in Council for the establishment of that proposed Council. Elections.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

Under the Seychelles (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967 the Governor of Seychelles was empowered to make provision for the preparatory stages of the election of members of the Council that it is proposed in due course to establish for Seychelles. This Order enables the Governor to make provision for the subsequent stages, including the eventual holding of elections after the new Council has been established.

PENSIONS

ROYAL WARRANT

To amend the Royal Warrant of 19th September 1964, concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement or death due to service in the military forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939.

ELIZABETH R.

Preamble

WHEREAS We deem it expedient to amend Our Warrant of 19th September 1964(a), as amended(b), concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement or death due to service in the military forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939 (hereinafter referred to as "the 1964 Warrant"):

Our Will and Pleasure is that, notwithstanding anything in the 1964 Warrant, the following provisions of this Our Warrant shall take effect accordingly and, except in the cases stated in the Warrant of Her Majesty Queen Victoria of 27th October 1884, and except as otherwise provided by statute, shall be established and obeyed as the sole authority in the matters herein treated of.

Substitution of Schedules to the 1964 Warrant

1.—(1) For Schedules 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 to the 1964 Warrant (rates of pensions and other grants payable in respect of disablement or death due to service in the military forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939) there shall be substituted the Schedules set out in Part I of the Appendix hereto and numbered 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7, respectively.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, Table 3 of the said Schedule 3 shall continue to apply in relation to an award made before 30th October 1967 as it would have applied had this Our Warrant not issued:

Provided that—

(a) where any part of the sum payable under any such award falls due for payment on or after 30th October 1967 there shall be substituted for that part an amount which bears the same proportion to the sum which would have been payable under that award had it been made on or after that date as the said part bears to the sum payable under the award;

(b) so much of the substituted amount payable to a member under any such award as remains unpaid at any time on or after the said 30th October may, if the member so requests the Minister, be paid to him forthwith as a gratuity.

(a) S.I. 1964 III, p. 5257. (b) S.I. 1964 III, p. 5601; 1966 I, p. 1084; II, pp.2685, 2695.

Amendment of Articles of the 1964 Warrant

2. In Articles 1, 11, 23, 29, 31, 33, 38 and 60 of the 1964 Warrant there shall be made the amendments set out in Part II of the Appendix hereto.

Commencement

3.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, this Our Warrant shall come into operation on 30th October 1967 so, however, that in relation to any award payable weekly the foregoing reference to 30th October 1967, where this is not the normal weekly pay day for that award, shall be construed as a reference to the first normal weekly pay day for that award following 30th October 1967.

(2) Article 1(1) shall come into operation in relation to an officer on 1st November 1967.

(3) In so far as Article 1(1) substitutes the higher rates of allowance for wear and tear of clothing specified in paragraph 4 of Schedule 6 in Part I of the Appendix hereto, it shall come into operation on 1st November 1967.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twelfth day of August 1967, in the 16th Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

Judith Hart.

(a) 1966 c. 20.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Royal Warrant.)

This Royal Warrant further amends the Royal Warrant of 19th September 1964.

Article 1 substitutes new Tables for those contained in Schedules 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 to the 1964 Warrant and has the effect of increasing—

(a) the rates of pensions in respect of 100 per cent. disablement by £43 a year in the case of officers and by 17s. a week in the case of other ranks and the rates of pensions for lower degrees of disablement and awards for cases of minor injuries and other cases of less than 20 per cent. disablement proportionately;

(b) the rates of pensions for certain widows by £31 a year in the case of officers and by 12s. a week or 6s. 8d. a week to 10s. a week in the case of other ranks (according to the rate applicable);

(c) the maximum rates of disablement addition on a pension basis payable to certain officers in receipt of service retired pay by £43 a year;

(d) the normal maximum rate of an allowance payable for constant attendance from £143 a year to £156 a year in the case of officers and from 55s. a week to 60s. a week in the case of other ranks, and the maximum rate for exceptional cases of very severe disablement from £286 a year to £312 a year in the case of officers and from 110s. a week to 120s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(e) the allowances for wear and tear of clothing from £7 10s. and £12 10s. a year to £9 and £14 a year respectively;

(f) the allowance for unemployable pensioners from £227 10s. a year to £253 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 87s. 6d. a week to 97s. 6d. a week in the case of other ranks;

(g) the total additional allowance payable in respect of the wife or adult dependant of an unemployable pensioner and of a pensioner receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) from £130 a year to £145 12s. a year in the case of officers and from 50s. a week to 56s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(h) the allowances payable in respect of children of unemployable pensioners or of pensioners receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) in respect of the first or only child from £58 10s. a year to £65 a year in the case of officers and from 22s. 6d. a week to 25s. a week in the case of other ranks and in respect of other children from £37 14s. a year to £44 4s. a year in the case of officers and from 14s. 6d. a week to 17s. a week in the case of other ranks, but for the fourth and subsequent children in the family these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of officers and 5s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(i) the allowances for comforts from £52 a year and £26 a year to £65 a year and £32 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 20s. a week and 10s. a week to 25s. a week and 12s. 6d. a week in the case of other ranks;

(j) the maximum allowance for lowered standard of occupation from £140 8s. a year to £158 8s. a year in the case of officers and from 54s. a week to 61s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(k) the allowances payable to pensioners who have attained the age of 65 years and whose pensioned disablement is assessed at 40 per cent. or over from between £13 and £39 a year to between £19 10s. and £52 a year in the case of officers and from between 5s. and 15s. a week to between 7s. 6d. and 20s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(l) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who has attained the age of 65 years from £39 a year to £52 a year in the case of officers and from 15s. a week to 20s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(m) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who is not entitled to full sickness benefit under National Insurance provisions from 80s. a week to 90s. a week;

(n) the maximum pensions payable to unmarried dependants who lived as wives of deceased members of the military forces from £279 a year to £309 a year in the case of officers and from 97s. 6d. a week to 109s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(o) the maximum rent allowance payable to certain widows from 40s. a week to 45s. a week;

(p) the allowances payable to elderly widows or unmarried dependants who lived as wives of pensioners, at the age of 70 years or over, from £26 a year to £39 a year where the pensioner was an officer, and from 10s. a week to 15s. a week in other cases;

(q) the maximum pensions payable to certain widowers from £279 a year to £310 a year in the case of officers and from 105s. a week to 117s. a week in the case of other ranks;

(r) the allowances payable to widows in respect of children from £122 10s. a year to £129 a year in the case of officers and from 44s. a week to 46s. 6d. a week in the case of other ranks, but these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of those officers' children and 5s. a week in the case of those other ranks' children who qualify for family allowances at the rate of 15s. a week;

(s) the rates of pensions and allowances payable to or in respect of the children of deceased members of the military forces (such children having become motherless or having ceased to be under the control of their mothers) from £170 10s. a year to £190 a year in the case of children of officers and from 44s. or 62s. a week to 46s. 6d. or 69s. 6d. a week (according to the age of the child) in the case of children of other ranks, but reductions as in (r) above will be made;

(t) the maximum rates of pensions payable to motherless children who, having attained the age of 18 years, are incapable of self-support by reason of infirmity which arose before they attained the normal age limit for pension purposes, from £208 a year to £234 a year in the case of children of officers and from 80s. a week to 90s. a week in the case of children of other ranks.

Article 1 also provides for the making of lump sum payments to other ranks where an interim award is made in respect of disablement assessed at less than 20 per cent. Hitherto a weekly allowance for a limited period (with or without a terminal gratuity) has been paid.

Article 2 makes various further amendments and in particular—

(a) provides for the rate of maintenance payable under a Court Order or being paid by a husband before death to be regarded as a guide in determining the rate of pension or temporary personal allowance payable to a separated widow and not, as hitherto, as the upper limit ;

(b) removes a restriction on the amount of rent allowance payable to a separated widow ;

(c) amends the definition of apprentice ;

(d) applies the provisions of the Warrant to the Territorial and Army Volunteer Reserve ;

(e) substitutes for references to assistance under the National Assistance Act 1948, references to benefit under the Ministry of Social Security Act 1966 ;

(f) corrects minor errors of omission.

PENSIONS

ORDER BY HER MAJESTY

To amend the Order of 24th September 1964, concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement or death due to service in the air forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939.

ELIZABETH R.

Preamble

WHEREAS by Section 2 of the Air Force (Constitution) Act 1917(a) it is provided that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by order signified under the hand of a Secretary of State, to make orders with respect to the government, discipline, pay, allowances and pensions of the Air Force, and with respect to all other matters and things relating to the Air Force, including any matter by that Act authorised to be prescribed or expressed to be subject to orders or regulations:

AND WHEREAS Her Majesty deems it expedient to amend the Order dated 24th September 1964(b), as amended (c), concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement or death due to service in the air forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939 (hereinafter referred to as " the 1964 Order "):

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her as aforesaid and of all other powers whatsoever Her thereunto enabling, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that, notwithstanding anything in the 1964 Order, the following provisions of this Order shall take effect accordingly and, except in the cases stated in the Order by His Majesty King George V of 13th January 1922, and except as otherwise provided by statute, shall be established and obeyed as the sole authority in the matters herein treated of.

Substitution of Schedules to the 1964 Order

1.—(1) For Schedules 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 to the 1964 Order (rates of pensions and other grants payable in respect of disablement or death due to service in the air forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939) there shall be substituted the Schedules set out in Part I of the Appendix hereto and numbered 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7, respectively.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, Table 3 of the said Schedule 3 shall continue to apply in relation to an award made before 30th October 1967 as it would have applied had this Order not issued:

Provided that—

(a) where any part of the sum payable under any such award falls due for payment on or after 30th October 1967 there shall be substituted for that part an amount which bears the same proportion to the sum

(a) 7 & 8 Geo. 5. c. 51. (b) S.I. 1964 III, p. 5361.
(c) S.I. 1964 III, p. 5623; 1966 I, p. 1088; II, pp. 2687,2693.

which would have been payable under that award had it been made on or after that date as the said part bears to the sum payable under the award;

(b) so much of the substituted amount payable to a member under any such award as remains unpaid at any time on or after the said 30th October may, if the member so requests the Minister, be paid to him forthwith as a gratuity.

Amendment of Articles of the 1964 Order

2. In Articles 1, 11, 23, 29, 31, 33, 38 and 60 of the 1964 Order there shall be made the amendments set out in Part II of the Appendix hereto.

Commencement

3.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, this Order shall come into operation on 30th October 1967 so, however, that in relation to any award payable weekly the foregoing reference to 30th October 1967, where this is not the normal weekly pay day for that award, shall be construed as a reference to the first normal weekly pay day for that award following 30th October 1967.

(2) Article 1(1) shall come into operation in relation to an officer on 1st November 1967.

(3) In so far as Article 1(1) substitutes the higher rates of allowance for wear and tear of clothing specified in paragraph 4 of Schedule 6 in Part I of the Appendix hereto, it shall come into operation on 1st November 1967.

By Her Majesty's Command.

Denis Healey,
Secretary of State.

Judith Hart,
Minister of Social Security.

16th August 1967.

"(2) Where payment in respect of a pension is in arrears for any period and benefit under the Ministry of Social Security Act 1966(a) has been paid for that period by reference to the requirements of the person to whom the payment is due, the amount by which the benefit paid exceeds what would have been paid had the said payment not fallen into arrears shall be deemed to have been an over-payment for the purposes of paragraph (1) of this Article.".

(a) 1966 c. 20.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order further amends the Order of 24th September 1964.

Article 1 substitutes new Tables for those contained in Schedules 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 to the 1964 Order and has the effect of increasing—

(a) the rates of pensions in respect of 100 per cent. disablement by £43 a year in the case of officers and by 17s. a week in the case of airmen and the rates of pensions for lower degrees of disablement and awards for cases of minor injuries and other cases of less than 20 per cent. disablement proportionately;

(b) the rates of pensions for certain widows by £31 a year in the case of officers and by 12s. a week or 6s. 8d. a week to 10s. a week in the case of airmen (according to the rate applicable);

(c) the maximum rates of disablement addition on a pension basis payable to certain officers in receipt of service retired pay by £43 a year;

(d) the normal maximum rate of an allowance payable for constant attendance from £143 a year to £156 a year in the case of officers and from 55s. a week to 60s. a week in the case of airmen, and the maximum rate for exceptional cases of very severe disablement from £286 a year to £312 a year in the case of officers and from 110s. a week to 120s. a week in the case of airmen;

(e) the allowances for wear and tear of clothing from £7 10s. and £12 10s. a year to £9 and £14 a year respectively;

(f) the allowance for unemployable pensioners from £227 10s. a year to £253 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 87s. 6d. a week to 97s. 6d. a week in the case of airmen;

(g) the total additional allowance payable in respect of the wife or adult dependant of an unemployable pensioner and of a pensioner receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) from £130 a year to £145 12s. a year in the case of officers and from 50s. a week to 56s. a week in the case of airmen;

(h) the allowances payable in respect of children of unemployable pensioners or of pensioners receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) in respect of the first or only child from £58 10s. a year to £65 in the case of officers and from 22s. 6d. a week to 25s. a week in the case of airmen and in respect of other children from £37 14s. a year to £44 4s. a year in the case of officers and from 14s. 6d. a week to 17s. a week in the case of airmen, but for the fourth and subsequent children in the family these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of officers and 5s. a week in the case of airmen;

(i) the allowances for comforts from £52 a year and £26 a year to £65 a year and £32 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 20s. a week and 10s. a week to 25s. a week and 12s. 6d. a week in the case of airmen;

(j) the maximum allowance for lowered standard of occupation from £140 8s. a year to £158 8s. a year in the case of officers and from 54s. a week to 61s. a week in the case of airmen ;

(k) the allowances payable to pensioners who have attained the age of 65 years and whose pensioned disablement is assessed at 40 per cent. or over from between £13 and £39 a year to between £19 10s. and £52 a year in the case of officers and from between 5s. and 15s. a week to between 7s. 6d. and 20s. a week in the case of airmen ;

(l) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who has attained the age of 65 years from £39 a year to £52 a year in the case of officers and from 15s. a week to 20s. a week in the case of airmen ;

(m) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who is not entitled to full sickness benefit under National Insurance provisions from 80s. a week to 90s. a week.

(n) the maximum pensions payable to unmarried dependants who lived as wives of deceased members of the air forces from £279 a year to £309 a year in the case of officers and from 97s. 6d. a week to 109s. a week in the case of airmen ;

(o) the maximum rent allowance payable to certain widows from 40s. a week to 45s. a week ;

(p) the allowances payable to elderly widows or unmarried dependants who lived as wives of pensioners, at the age of 70 years or over, from £26 a year to £39 a year where the pensioner was an officer, and from 10s. week to 15s. a week in other cases ;

(q) the maximum pensions payable to certain widowers from £279 a year to £310 a year in the case of officers and from 105s. a week to 117s. a week in the case of airmen ;

(r) the allowances payable to widows in respect of children from £122 10s. a year to £129 a year in the case of officers and from 44s. a week to 46s. 6d. a week in the case of airmen, but these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of those officers' children and 5s. a week in the case of those airmen's children who qualify for family allowances at the rate of 15s. a week.

(s) the rates of pensions and allowances payable to or in respect of the children of deceased members of the air forces (such children having become motherless or having ceased to be under the control of their mothers) from £170 10s. a year to £190 a year in the case of children of officers and from 44s. or 62s. a week to 46s. 6d. or 69s. 6d. a week (according to the age of the child) in the case of children of airmen, but reductions as in (r) above will be made ;

(t) the maximum rates of pensions payable to motherless children who, having attained the age of 18 years, are incapable of self-support by reason of infirmity which arose before they attained the normal age limit for pension purposes, from £208 a year to £234 a year in the case of children of officers and from 80s. a week to 90s. a week in the case of children of airmen.

Article 1 also provides for the making of lump sum payments to airmen where an interim award is made in respect of disablement assessed at less than 20 per cent. Hitherto a weekly allowance for a limited period (with or without a terminal gratuity) has been paid.

Article 2 makes various further amendments and in particular—

(a) provides for the rate of maintenance payable under a Court Order or being paid by a husband before death to be regarded as a guide in determining the rate of pension or temporary personal allowance payable to a separated widow and not, as hitherto, as the upper limit;

(b) removes a restriction on the amount of rent allowance payable to a separated widow;

(c) amends the definition of apprentice;

(d) substitutes for references to assistance under the National Assistance Act 1948, references to benefit under the Ministry of Social Security Act 1966;

(e) corrects minor errors of omission.

PENSIONS

At the Court at Balmoral, the 23rd day of August 1967

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act 1865(a) it is enacted that all pay, wages, pensions, bounty money, grants or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Her Majesty's naval or marine force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman or marine, or to the widow or any relative of a deceased officer, seaman or marine, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

AND WHEREAS Her Majesty deems it expedient to amend the Order in Council dated 25th September 1964(b), as amended (c), concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement or death due to service in the naval forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939 (hereinafter referred to as " the 1964 Order "):

NOW, THEREFORE, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her as aforesaid and of all other powers whatsoever Her thereunto enabling, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered that, notwithstanding anything in the 1964 Order, the following provisions of this Order shall take effect accordingly and, except in the cases stated in the Order in Council of 19th December 1881, and except as otherwise provided by statute, shall be established and obeyed as the sole authority in the matters herein treated of.

Substitution of Schedules to the 1964 Order

1.—(1) For Schedules 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7 to the 1964 Order (rates of pensions and other grants payable in respect of disablement or death due to service in the naval forces during the 1914 World War and after 2nd September 1939) there shall be substituted the Schedules set out in Part I of the Appendix hereto and numbered 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7, respectively.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article, Table 3 of the said Schedule 3 shall continue to apply in relation to an award made before 30th October 1967 as it would have applied had this Order not issued:

Provided that—

(a) where any part of the sum payable under any such award falls due for payment on or after 30th October 1967 there shall be substituted for that part an amount which bears the same proportion to the sum which would have been payable under that award had it been made on or after that date as the said part bears to the sum payable under the award;

(a) 28 & 29 Vict. c. 73. (b) S.I. 1964 III, p. 5466.
(c) 1964 III, p. 5651; 1966 I, p. 1096; II, pp. 2689, 2697.

(b) so much of the substituted amount payable to a member under any such award as remains unpaid at any time on or after the said 30th October may, if the member so requests the Minister, be paid to him forthwith as a gratuity.

Amendment of Articles of the 1964 Order

2. In Articles 1, 11, 23, 29, 31, 33, 38 and 60 of the 1964 Order there shall be made the amendments set out in Part II of the Appendix hereto.

Commencement

3.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Article, this Order shall come into operation on 30th October 1967 so, however, that in relation to any award payable weekly the foregoing reference to 30th October 1967, where this is not the normal weekly pay day for that award, shall be construed as a reference to the first normal weekly pay day for that award following 30th October 1967.

(2) Article 1(1) shall come into operation in relation to an officer on 1st November 1967.

(3) In so far as Article 1(1) substitutes the higher rates of allowance for wear and tear of clothing specified in paragraph 4 of Schedule 6 in Part I of the Appendix hereto, it shall come into operation on 1st November 1967.

W. G. Agnew.

(e) the allowances for wear and tear of clothing from £7 10s. and £12 10s. a year to £9 and £14 a year respectively;

(f) the allowance for unemployable pensioners from £227 10s. a year to £253 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 87s. 6d. a week to 97s. 6d. a week in the case of ratings;

(g) the total additional allowance payable in respect of the wife or adult dependant of an unemployable pensioner and of a pensioner receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) from £130 a year to £145 12s. a year in the case of officers and from 50s. a week to 56s. a week in the case of ratings;

(h) the allowances payable in respect of children of unemployable pensioners or of pensioners receiving treatment as defined in Article 21(8) in respect of the first or only child from £58 10s. a year to £65 a year in the case of officers and from 22s. 6d. a week to 25s. a week in the case of ratings and in respect of other children from £37 14s. a year to £44 4s. a year in the case of officers and from 14s. 6d. a week to 17s. a week in the case of ratings, but for the fourth and subsequent children in the family these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of officers and 5s. a week in the case of ratings;

(i) the allowances for comforts from £52 a year and £26 a year to £65 a year and £32 10s. a year in the case of officers and from 20s. a week and 10s. a week to 25s. a week and 12s. 6d. a week in the case of ratings;

(j) the maximum allowance for lowered standard of occupation from £140 8s. a year to £158 8s. a year in the case of officers and from 54s. a week to 61s. a week in the case of ratings;

(k) the allowances payable to pensioners who have attained the age of 65 years and whose pensioned disablement is assessed at 40 per cent. or over from between £13 and £39 a year to between £19 10s. and £52 a year in the case of officers and from between 5s. and 15s. a week to between 7s. 6d. and 20s. a week in the case of ratings;

(l) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who has attained the age of 65 years from £39 a year to £52 a year in the case of officers and from 15s. a week to 20s. a week in the case of ratings;

(m) the maximum of the additional personal treatment allowance payable to a pensioner who is not entitled to full sickness benefit under National Insurance provisions from 80s. a week to 90s. a week;

(n) the maximum pensions payable to unmarried dependants who lived as wives of deceased members of the naval forces from £279 a year to £309 a year in the case of officers and from 97s. 6d. a week to 109s. a week in the case of ratings;

(o) the maximum rent allowance payable to certain widows from 40s. a week to 45s. a week;

(p) the allowances payable to elderly widows or unmarried dependants who lived as wives of pensioners, at the age of 70 years or over, from £26 a year to £39 a year where the pensioner was an officer, and from 10s. a week to 15s. a week in other cases;

(q) the maximum pensions payable to certain widowers from £279 a year to £310 a year in the case of officers and from 105s. a week to 117s. a week in the case of ratings;

(r) the allowances payable to widows in respect of children from £122 10s. a year to £129 a year in the case of officers, from £116 10s. a year to £123 a year in the case of Commissioned Officers (Branch List) and Warrant Officers and from 44s. a week to 46s. 6d. a week in the case of ratings but these increased rates will be reduced by £13 a year in the case of those officers' children and 5s. a week in the case of those ratings' children who qualify for family allowances at the rate of 15s. a week;

(s) the rates of pensions and allowances payable to or in respect of the children of deceased members of the naval forces (such children having become motherless or having ceased to be under the control of their mothers) from £170 10s. a year to £190 a year in the case of children of officers, from £122 10s. or £162 10s. a year to £129 or £182 a year (according to the age of the child) in the case of children of Commissioned Officers (Branch List) and Warrant Officers and from 44s. or 62s. a week to 46s. 6d. or 69s. 6d. a week (according to the age of the child) in the case of children of ratings, but reductions as in (r) above will be made;

(t) the maximum rates of pensions payable to motherless children who, having attained the age of 18 years, are incapable of self-support by reason of infirmity which arose before they attained the normal age limit for pension purposes, from £208 a year to £234 a year in the case of children of officers and from 80s. a week to 90s. a week in the case of children of ratings.

Article 1 also provides for the making of lump sum payments to ratings where an interim award is made in respect of disablement assessed at less than 20 per cent. Hitherto a weekly allowance for a limited period (with or without a terminal gratuity) has been paid.

Article 2 makes various further amendments and in particular—

(a) provides for the rate of maintenance payable under a Court Order or being paid by a husband before death to be regarded as a guide in determining the rate of pension or temporary personal allowance payable to a separated widow and not, as hitherto, as the upper limit ;

(b) removes a restriction on the amount of rent allowance payable to a separated widow ;

(c) amends the definition of apprentice ;

(d) substitutes for references to assistance under the National Assistance Act 1948, references to benefit under the Ministry of Social Security Act 1966 ;

(e) corrects minor errors of omission.

"High Court" means the High Court of the Western Pacific as re-constituted by the Western Pacific (Courts) Order in Council 1961(b);

(a) Rev. IX, p. 655; S.R. & O. 1915 III, p. 315.
(b) S.I. 1961/1506 (1961 II, p. 3066).

" the House of Representatives " means the House of Representatives of the Colony established by section 42 of this Order ;

" oath " includes affirmation ;

" public office " means an office of emolument in the public service ;

" public officer " means a person holding or acting in any public office ;

" public service " means the service of the Crown in a civil capacity in respect of the government of the Colony ;

" the Resident Commissioner " means the Resident Commissioner of the Colony ;

" session " means the sittings of the House of Representatives commencing when the House first meets after the coming into operation of this Order or after its prorogation or dissolution at any time and ending when the House is prorogued or is dissolved without having been prorogued ;

" sitting " means, in relation to the House of Representatives or, as the case may be, the Governing Council, a period during which the House or the Council is sitting continuously without adjournment and includes any period during which the House or the Council is in committee.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to the holder of an office by the term designating his office shall be construed as including a reference to any person who is for the time being lawfully acting in or performing the functions of that office.

(3) For the purposes of this Order a person shall not be treated as holding, or acting in, a public office by reason only that he—

(a) is on leave of absence pending relinquishment of a public office, or is on leave of absence without salary from a public office ;

(b) is receiving a pension or other like allowance from the Crown ;

(c) is receiving any remuneration or allowance as a member of the Governing Council or of the House of Representatives ;

(d) is a retired or reserve member of Her Majesty's forces or a special constable ;

(e) is a member, officer or servant of any Island Council or other local government council, or of any Island Court or Lands Court established under any law for the time being in force in the Colony ; or

(f) is the holder of an office in the service or appointment of the Crown, or is performing any functions on behalf of the Crown, if the only payments he receives in respect of that office or those functions are by way of travelling or subsistence allowances or a refund of out-of-pocket expenses ; and a provision in any law for the time being in force of the Colony that a person shall not be treated as holding, or acting in, a public office for all or any of the purposes of this Order shall have effect as if it were included in this Order.

(4) In this Order any reference to the date on which this Order comes into operation or commences shall be construed as a reference to the " appointed day " as defined in section 1 of this Order.

(5) Where any power is conferred by this Order to make any proclamation, order, regulation or rule, or to give any direction or instructions, the power shall be construed as including the power, exercisable in like manner, to amend or revoke any such proclamation, order, regulation, rule, direction or instructions.

(6) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1915 and this Order, and otherwise in relation thereto, as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of Parliament.

Revocations.

3. Sections V, VII, XI, XII and XIII of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1915, the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1955(b) and the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1963(c) are revoked with effect from the appointed day and, as from that day, the Advisory Council Ordinance 1963(d) and any Ordinance amending the same shall cease to have effect.

CHAPTER II

PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS OF THE INDIVIDUAL

Fundamental rights and freedoms of the individual.

4. Whereas every person in the Colony is entitled to the fundamental rights and freedoms of the individual, that is to say, the right, whatever his race, place of origin, political opinions, colour, creed or sex, but subject to respect for the rights and freedoms of others and for the public interest, to each and all of the following, namely—

(a) life, liberty, security of the person and the protection of the law ;

(b) freedom of conscience, of expression and of assembly and association ; and

(c) protection for the privacy of his home and other property and from deprivation of property without compensation, the provisions of this Chapter shall have effect for the purpose of affording protection to those rights and freedoms subject to such limitations of that protection as are contained in those provisions, being limitations designed to ensure that the enjoyment of the said rights and freedoms by any individual does not prejudice the rights and freedoms of others or the public interest.

Protection of right to life.

5.—(1) No person shall be deprived of his life intentionally save in execution of the sentence of a court in respect of a criminal offence under the law in force in the Colony of which he has been convicted.

(2) A person shall not be regarded as having been deprived of his life in contravention of this section if he dies as the result of the use, to such extent and in such circumstances as are permitted by law, of such force as is reasonably justifiable—

(a) for the defence of any person from violence or for the defence of property ;

(a) 1889 c. 63. (b) S.I. 1955 II, p. 3204. (c) S.I. 1963 III, p. 4822.
(d) Ordinance No. 1 of 1963 of Laws of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands.

(b) in order to effect a lawful arrest or to prevent the escape of a person lawfully detained;

(c) for the purpose of suppressing a riot, insurrection or mutiny; or

(d) in order to prevent the commission by that person of a criminal offence, or if he dies as the result of a lawful act of war.

Protection of right to personal liberty.

6.—(1) No person shall be deprived of his personal liberty save as may be authorised by law in any of the following cases, that is to say—

(a) in consequence of his unfitness to plead to a criminal charge;

(b) in execution of the sentence or order of a court, whether established for the Colony or some other country, in respect of a criminal offence of which he has been convicted;

(c) in execution of the order of a court of record punishing him for contempt of that court or of a court inferior to it;

(d) in execution of the order of a court made to secure the fulfilment of any obligation imposed on him by law;

(e) for the purpose of bringing him before a court in execution of the order of a court;

(f) upon reasonable suspicion of his having committed, or being about to commit, a criminal offence under the law in force in the Colony;

(g) in the case of a person who has not attained the age of eighteen years, under the order of a court or with the consent of his parent or guardian, for the purpose of his education or welfare;

(h) for the purpose of preventing the spread of an infectious or contagious disease;

(i) in the case of a person who is, or is reasonably suspected to be, of unsound mind, addicted to drugs or alcohol, or a vagrant, for the purpose of his care or treatment or the protection of the community;

(j) for the purpose of preventing the unlawful entry of that person into the Colony, or for the purpose of effecting the expulsion, extradition or other lawful removal of that person from the Colony or for the purpose of restricting that person while he is being conveyed through the Colony in the course of his extradition or removal as a convicted prisoner from one country to another; or

(k) to such extent as may be necessary in the execution of a lawful order requiring that person to remain within a specified area within the Colony or prohibiting him from being within such an area, or to such extent as may be reasonably justifiable for the taking of proceedings against that person relating to the making of any such order, or to such extent as may be reasonably justifiable for restraining that person during any visit that he is permitted to make to any part of the Colony in which, in consequence of any such order, his presence would otherwise be unlawful.

(2) Any person who is arrested or detained shall be informed as soon as reasonably practicable, in a language that he understands, of the reasons for his arrest or detention.

(3) Any person who is arrested or detained—

(a) for the purpose of bringing him before a court in execution of the order of a court; or

(b) upon reasonable suspicion of his having committed, or being about to commit, a criminal offence under the law in force in the Colony, and who is not released, shall be brought without undue delay before a court; and if any person arrested or detained upon reasonable suspicion of his having committed or being about to commit a criminal offence is not tried within a reasonable time, then, without prejudice to any further proceedings that may be brought against him, he shall be released either unconditionally or upon reasonable conditions, including in particular such conditions as are reasonably necessary to ensure that he appears at a later date for trial or for proceedings preliminary to trial.

(4) Any person who is unlawfully arrested or detained by any other person shall be entitled to compensation therefor from that other person.

Protection from slavery and forced labour.

7.—(1) No person shall be held in slavery or servitude.

(2) No person shall be required to perform forced labour.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the expression "forced labour" does not include—

(a) any labour required in consequence of the sentence or order of a court;

(b) any labour required of any person while he is lawfully detained that, though not required in consequence of the sentence or order of a court, is reasonably necessary in the interests of hygiene or for the maintenance of the place at which he is detained;

(c) any labour required of a member of a disciplined force in pursuance of his duties as such or, in the case of a person who has conscientious objections to service as a member of a naval, military or air force, any labour that that person is required by law to perform in place of such service;

(d) any labour required during any period of public emergency or in the event of any other emergency or calamity that threatens the life and well-being of the community, to the extent that the requiring of such labour is reasonably justifiable in the circumstances of any situation arising or existing during that period or as a result of that other emergency or calamity, for the purpose of dealing with that situation; or (e) any labour reasonably required as part of reasonable and normal communal or other civic obligations.

Protection from inhuman treatment.

8.—(1) No person shall be subjected to torture or to inhuman or degrading punishment or other treatment.

(2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question authorises the infliction of any description of punishment that was lawful in the Colony immediately before the coming into operation of this Order.

Protection from deprivation of property.

9.—(1) No property of any description shall be compulsorily taken possession of, and no interest in or right over property of any description shall be compulsorily acquired, except where the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—

(a) the taking of possession or acquisition is necessary or expedient in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health, town or country planning or the development or utilisation of any property in such a manner as to promote the public benefit; and

(b) there is reasonable justification for the causing of any hardship that may result to any person having an interest in or right over the property; and

(c) provision is made by a law applicable to that taking of possession or acquisition—

(i) for the prompt payment of adequate compensation; and

(ii) securing to any person having an interest in or right over the property a right of access to the High Court, whether direct or on appeal from any other authority, for the determination of his interest or right, the legality of the taking of possession or acquisition of the property, interest or right and the amount of any compensation to which he is entitled, and for the purpose of obtaining prompt payment of that compensation.

(2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section—

(a) to the extent that the law in question makes provision for the taking of possession or acquisition of any property—

(i) in satisfaction of any tax, rate or due;

(ii) by way of penalty for breach of the law or forfeiture in consequence of a breach of the law;

(iii) as an incident of a lease, tenancy, mortgage, charge, bill of sale, pledge or contract;

(iv) in the execution of judgments or orders of a court in proceedings for the determination of civil rights or obligations;

(v) in circumstances where it is reasonably necessary so to do because the property is in a dangerous state or injurious to the health of human beings, animals or plants;

(vi) in consequence of any law with respect to the limitation of actions or acquisitive prescription; or

(vii) for so long only as may be necessary for the purposes of any examination, investigation, trial or inquiry or, in the case of land, the carrying out thereon—

(A) of work of soil conservation or of conservation of other natural resources; or

(B) of work relating to agricultural development or improvement which the owner or occupier of the land has been required, and has without reasonable excuse refused or failed, to carry out, except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, the thing done under the authority thereof is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society; or

(b) to the extent that the law in question makes provision for the taking of possession or acquisition of—

(i) enemy property;

(ii) property of a deceased person, a person of unsound mind, a person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years or a person who is absent from the Colony, for the purpose of its administration for the benefit of the persons entitled to the beneficial interest therein ;

(iii) property of a person declared to be insolvent or a body corporate in liquidation, for the purpose of its administration for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent or body corporate and, subject thereto, for the benefit of other persons entitled to the beneficial interest in the property ; or

(iv) property subject to a trust, for the purpose of vesting the property in persons appointed as trustees under the instrument creating the trust or by a court or, by order of a court, for the purpose of giving effect to the trust.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the making or operation of any law for the compulsory taking of possession in the public interest of any property, or the compulsory acquisition in the public interest of any interest in or right over property, where that property, interest or right is held by a body corporate established for public purposes by any law and in which no moneys have been invested other than moneys provided by the Government of the Colony.

Protection for privacy of home and other property.

10.—(1) Except with his own consent, no person shall be subjected to the search of his person or his property or the entry by others on his premises.

(2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision that is reasonably required—

(a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality, public health, town and country planning, the development and utilisation of mineral resources, or the development or utilisation of any other property in such a manner as to promote the public benefit ;

(b) for the purpose of protecting the rights or freedoms of other persons ;

(c) for the purpose of authorising an officer or agent of the Government of the Colony, a local government authority or a body corporate established by law for a public purpose to enter on the premises of any person in order to inspect those premises or anything thereon for the purpose of any tax, rate or duty or in order to carry out work connected with any property that is lawfully on those premises and that belongs to that Government, authority or body corporate, as the case may be ;

(d) for the purpose of authorising the entry upon any premises in pursuance of an order of a court for the purpose of enforcing the judgment or order of a court in any proceedings ; or

(e) for the purpose of authorising the entry upon any premises for the purpose of preventing or detecting criminal offences, and except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, anything done under the authority thereof is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society.

Provisions to secure protection of law.

11.—(1) If any person is charged with a criminal offence, then, unless the charge is withdrawn, the case shall be afforded a fair hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial court established by law.

(2) Every person who is charged with a criminal offence—

(a) shall be presumed to be innocent until he is proved or has pleaded guilty;

(b) shall be informed as soon as reasonably practicable, in a language that he understands and in detail, of the nature of the offence charged;

(c) shall be given adequate time and facilities for the preparation of his defence;

(d) shall be permitted to defend himself before the court in person or, at his own expense, by a legal representative of his own choice;

(e) shall be afforded facilities to examine in person or by his legal representative the witnesses called by the prosecution before the court, and to obtain the attendance and carry out the examination of witnesses to testify on his behalf before the court on the same conditions as those applying to witnesses called by the prosecution; and

(f) shall be permitted to have without payment the assistance of an interpreter if he cannot understand the language used at the trial of the charge, and, except with his own consent, the trial shall not take place in his absence unless he so conducts himself as to render the continuance of the proceedings in his presence impracticable and the court has ordered him to be removed and the trial to proceed in his absence.

(3) When a person is tried for any criminal offence, the accused person or any person authorised by him in that behalf shall, if he so requires and subject to payment of such reasonable fee as may be prescribed by law, be given within a reasonable time after judgment a copy for the use of the accused person of any record of the proceedings made by or on behalf of the court.

(4) No person shall be held to be guilty of a criminal offence on account of any act or omission that did not, at the time it took place, constitute such an offence, and no penalty shall be imposed for any criminal offence that is severer in degree or description than the maximum penalty that might have been imposed for that offence at the time when it was committed.

(5) No person who shows that he has been tried by a competent court for a criminal offence and either convicted or acquitted shall again be tried for that offence or for any other criminal offence of which he could have been convicted at the trial for that offence, save upon the order of a superior court in the course of appeal or review proceedings relating to the conviction or acquittal.

(6) No person shall be tried for a criminal offence if he shows that he has been pardoned for that offence.

(7) No person who is tried for a criminal offence shall be compelled to give evidence at the trial.

(8) Any court or other adjudicating authority prescribed by law for the determination of the existence or extent of any civil right or obligation shall be established or recognised by law and shall be independent and impartial; and where proceedings for such a determination are instituted by any person before such a court or other adjudicating authority, the case shall be given a fair hearing within a reasonable time.

(9) Except with the agreement of all the parties thereto, all proceedings of every court and proceedings for the determination of the existence or extent of any civil right or obligation before any other adjudicating authority, including the announcement of the decision of the court or other authority, shall be held in public.

(10) Nothing in the last preceding subsection shall prevent the court or other adjudicating authority from excluding from the proceedings persons other than the parties thereto and their legal representatives to such extent as the court or other authority—

(a) may by law be empowered so to do and may consider necessary or expedient in circumstances where publicity would prejudice the interests of justice or in interlocutory proceedings or in the interests of decency, public morality, the welfare of persons under the age of eighteen years or the protection of the private lives of persons concerned in the proceedings; or

(b) may by law be empowered or required so to do in the interests of defence, public safety or public order.

(11) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of—

(a) subsection (2)(a) of this section to the extent that the law in question imposes upon any person charged with a criminal offence the burden of proving particular facts;

(b) subsection (2)(e) of this section to the extent that the law in question imposes reasonable conditions that must be satisfied if witnesses called to testify on behalf of an accused person are to be paid their expenses out of public funds; or

(c) subsection (5) of this section to the extent that the law in question authorises a court to try a member of a disciplined force for a criminal offence notwithstanding any trial and conviction or acquittal of that member under the disciplinary law of that force, so, however, that any court so trying such a member and convicting him shall in sentencing him to any punishment take into account any punishment awarded him under that disciplinary law.

(12) In this section—

"criminal offence" means a criminal offence under the law in force in the Colony;

"legal representative" means a person entitled to practise in the Colony as an advocate or solicitor.

Protection of freedom of conscience.

12.—(1) Except with his own consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his freedom of conscience, and for the purposes of this section the said freedom includes freedom of thought and of religion, freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others, and both in public and in private, to manifest and propagate his religion or belief in worship, teaching, practice and observance.

(2) Every religious community shall be entitled, at its own expense, to establish and maintain places of education and to manage any place of education which it wholly maintains.

(3) No religious community shall be prevented from providing religious instruction for persons of that community in the course of any education provided at any place of education which it wholly maintains or in the course of any education which it otherwise provides.

(4) Except with his own consent (or, if he is a person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years, the consent of his guardian) no person attending any place of education shall be required to receive religious instruction or to take part in or attend any religious ceremony or observance if that instruction, ceremony or observance relates to a religion other than his own.

(5) No person shall be compelled to take any oath which is contrary to his religion or belief or to take any oath in a manner which is contrary to his religion or belief.

(6) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision which is reasonably required—

(a) in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health ; or

(b) for the purpose of protecting the rights and freedoms of other persons, including the right to observe and practice any religion without the unsolicited intervention of members of any other religion, and except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, the thing done under the authority thereof is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society.

(7) References in this section to a religion shall be construed as including references to a religious denomination, and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Protection of freedom of expression.

13.—(1) Except with his own consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his freedom of expression, and for the purposes of this section the said freedom includes the freedom to hold opinions without interference, freedom to receive ideas and information without interference, freedom to communicate ideas and information without interference and freedom from interference with his correspondence.

(2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision—

(a) that is reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health ;

(b) that is reasonably required for the purpose of protecting the reputations, rights and freedoms of other persons or the private lives of persons concerned in legal proceedings, preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence, maintaining the authority and independence of the courts, or regulating the administration or the technical operation of telephony, telegraphy, posts, wireless, broadcasting or television ; or

(c) that imposes restrictions upon public officers,

and except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, the thing done under the authority thereof is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society.

Protection of freedom of assembly and association.

14.—(1) Except with his own consent, no person shall be hindered in the enjoyment of his freedom of assembly and association, that is to say, his right to assemble freely and associate with other persons and in particular to form or belong to political parties or to form or belong to trade unions or other associations for the protection of his interests.

(2) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision—

(a) that is reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health ;

(b) that is reasonably required for the purpose of protecting the rights or freedoms of other persons ; or

(c) that imposes restrictions upon public officers,

and except so far as that provision or, as the case may be, the thing done under the authority thereof is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a democratic society.

Protection of freedom of movement.

15.—(1) No person shall be deprived of his freedom of movement, and for the purposes of this section the said freedom means the right to move freely throughout the Colony, the right to reside in any part of the Colony, the right to enter the Colony and immunity from expulsion from the Colony.

(2) Any restriction on a person's freedom of movement that is involved in his lawful detention shall not be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section.

(3) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision—

(a) for the imposition of restrictions on the movement or residence within the Colony of any person or on any person's right to leave the Colony that are reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety or public order ;

(b) for the imposition of restrictions on the movement or residence within the Colony or on the right to leave the Colony of persons generally or any class of persons that are reasonably required in the interests of defence, public safety, public order, public morality or public health ;

(c) for the imposition of restrictions on the movement or residence within the Colony of any person who does not belong to the Colony or the exclusion or expulsion from the Colony of any such person ;

(d) for the imposition of restrictions on the acquisition or use by any person of land or other property in the Colony ;

(e) for the imposition of restrictions upon the movement or residence within the Colony of public officers ;

(f) for the removal of a person from the Colony to be tried or punished in some other country for a criminal offence under the law of that other country or to undergo imprisonment in that other country in execution of the sentence of a court in respect of a criminal offence under the law in force in the Colony of which he has been convicted ; or

(g) for the imposition of restrictions, by order of a court, on the movement or residence within the Colony of any person or on any person's right to leave the Colony either in consequence of his having been found guilty of a criminal offence under the law of the Colony or for the purpose of ensuring that he appears before a court at a later date for trial or for proceedings relating to his extradition or lawful removal from the Colony.

(4) If any person whose freedom of movement has been restricted by virtue only of such a provision as is referred to in subsection (3)(a) of this section so requests at any time during the period of that restriction not earlier than six months after he last made such a request during that period, his case shall be reviewed by an independent and impartial tribunal presided over by a person, qualified to be admitted to practise as an advocate or solicitor in the Colony, appointed by the Chief Justice.

(5) On any review by a tribunal in pursuance of the last preceding subsection of the case of a person whose freedom of movement has been restricted, the tribunal may make recommendations concerning the necessity or expediency of continuing the restriction to the authority by which it was ordered but, unless it is otherwise provided by law, that authority shall not be obliged to act in accordance with any such recommendations.

Protection from discrimination of the grounds of race, etc.

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (4), (5) and (7) of this section, no law shall make any provision that is discriminatory either of itself or in its effect.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsections (6), (7) and (8) of this section, no person shall be treated in a discriminatory manner by any person acting by virtue of any written law or in the performance of the functions of any public office or any public authority.

(3) In this section, the expression " discriminatory " means affording different treatment to different persons attributable wholly or mainly to their respective descriptions by race, place of origin, political opinions, colour or creed whereby persons of one such description are subjected to disabilities or restrictions to which persons of another such description are not made subject or are accorded privileges or advantages which are not accorded to persons of another such description.

(4) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any law so far as that law makes provision—

(a) for the imposition of taxation or the appropriation of revenue by the Government of the Colony or any local authority or body for local purposes ;

(b) with respect to persons who do not belong to the Colony ;

(c) for the application, in the case of persons of any such description as is mentioned in the last preceding subsection (or of persons connected with such persons), of the law with respect to adoption, marriage, divorce, burial, devolution of property on death or other like matters that is the personal law applicable to persons of that description ;

(d) with respect to land, the tenure of land, the resumption and acquisition of land and other like purposes ; or

(e) whereby persons of any such description as is mentioned in subsection (3) of this section may be subjected to any disability or restriction or may be accorded any privilege or advantage which, having regard to its nature and to special circumstances pertaining to those persons or to persons of any other such description, is reasonably justifiable in a democratic society.

(5) Nothing contained in any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of subsection (1) of this section to the extent that it makes provision with respect to standards or qualifications (not being standards or qualifications specifically relating to race, place of origin, political opinions, colour or creed) to be required of any person who is appointed to any office in the public service, any office in a disciplined force, any office in the service of a local authority or any office in a body corporate established directly by any law for public purposes.

(6) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to anything which is expressly or by necessary implication authorised to be done by any such provision of law as is referred to in subsection (4) or (5) of this section.

(7) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of this section to the extent that the law in question makes provision whereby persons of any such description as is mentioned in subsection (3) of this section may be subjected to any restriction on the rights and freedoms guaranteed by sections 10, 12, 13, 14 and 15 of this Order, being such a restriction as is authorised by section 10(2), 12(6), 13(2), 14(2) or 15(3), as the case may be.

(8) Subsection (2) of this section shall not affect any discretion relating to the institution, conduct or discontinuance of civil or criminal proceedings in any court that is vested in any person by or under this Order or any other law.

(9) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any law shall be held to be inconsistent with the provisions of this section—

(a) if that law was in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Order and has continued in force at all times since the coming into operation of this Order ; or

(b) to the extent that the law repeals and re-enacts any provision which has been contained in any enactment at all times since immediately before the coming into operation of this Order.

Provisions for periods of public emergency.

17.—(1) Nothing contained in or done under the authority of any regulation made under the Emergency Powers Order in Council 1939(a), as amended(b), shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of section 6, 7(2), 10, 12, 13, 14, 15 or 16 of this Order to the extent that the regulation in question makes in relation to any period of public emergency provision, or authorises the doing during any such period of anything, that is reasonably justifiable in the circumstances of any situation arising or existing during the period for the purpose of dealing with that situation.

(a) See S.I. 1952 I, at p. 621.

(b) The relevant amending instruments are S.I. 1956/731; 1963/88, 1933; 1964/1199 (1956 I, p. 512, 1963, I, p. 105; III, p. 3084; 1964 II, p. 2781).

(2) Where any person who is lawfully detained in pursuance only of such a regulation as is referred to in the last preceding subsection so requests at any time during the period of that detention not earlier than six months after he last made such a request during that period, his case shall be reviewed by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law and presided over by a person, qualified to be admitted to practise as an advocate or solicitor in the Colony, appointed by the Chief Justice.

(3) On any review by a tribunal in pursuance of this section of the case of a detained person, the tribunal may make recommendations concerning the necessity or expediency of continuing his detention to the authority by which it was ordered but, unless it is otherwise provided by law, that authority shall not be obliged to act in accordance with any such recommendations.

Enforcement of protective provisions.

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (6) of this section, if any person alleges that any of the provisions of sections 4 to 17 (inclusive) of this Order has been, is being or is likely to be contravened in relation to him (or, in the case of a person who is detained, if any other person alleges such a contravention in relation to the detained person) then, without prejudice to any other action with respect to the same matter which is lawfully available, that person (or that other person) may apply to the High Court for redress.

(2) The High Court shall have original jurisdiction—

(a) to hear and determine any application made by any person in pursuance of the last preceding subsection;

(b) to determine any question arising in the case of any person which is referred to it in pursuance of the next following subsection, and may make such orders, issue such writs and give such direction, as it may consider appropriate for the purpose of enforcing or securing the enforcement of any of the provisions of sections 4 to 17 (inclusive) of this Order:

Provided that the High Court may decline to exercise its powers under this subsection if it is satisfied that adequate means of redress for the contravention alleged are or have been available to the person concerned under any other law.

(3) If in any proceedings in any subordinate court any question arises as to the contravention of any of the provisions of sections 4 to 17 (inclusive) of this Order, the person presiding in that court may, and shall if any party to the proceedings so requests, refer the question to the High Court unless, in his opinion, the raising of the question is merely frivolous or vexatious.

(4) Any person aggrieved by any determination of the High Court under this section may appeal therefrom to the Fiji Court of Appeal:

Provided that no appeal shall lie from a determination of the High Court under this section dismissing an application on the ground that it is frivolous or vexatious.

(5) A law made under section 23 or 62 of this Order may confer upon the High Court powers additional to those conferred by this section for the purpose of enabling that court more effectively to exercise the jurisdiction conferred upon it by this section.

(6) Rules of court making provision with respect to the practice and procedure of the High Court in relation to the jurisdiction conferred on it by or under this section (including rules with respect to the time within which any application or reference shall or may be made or brought) may be made by the person or authority for the time being having power to make rules of court with respect to the practice and procedure of that court generally.

Interpretation and savings.

19.—(1) In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires—

"contravention", in relation to any requirement, includes a failure to comply with that requirement, and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly;

"court" means any court of law having jurisdiction in the Colony, other than a court established by a disciplinary law, and includes Her Majesty in Council and in sections 5 and 7 of this Order a court established by a disciplinary law;

"disciplinary law" means a law regulating the discipline of any disciplined force;

"disciplined force" means—

(a) any naval, military or air force;

(b) the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Constabulary Force; or

(c) any other constabulary or police force established by a law made under section 23 or 62 of this Order;

"member", in relation to a disciplined force, includes any person who, under the law regulating the discipline of that force, is subject to that discipline.

(2) In this Chapter "a period of public emergency" means any period during which Part II of the Emergency Powers Order in Council 1939, as amended, is in force in the Colony or any part thereof.

(3) For the purposes of this Chapter a person shall be deemed to belong to the Colony if he is a British subject or a British protected person and—

(a) was born in the Colony or of parents who at the time of his birth were ordinarily resident in the Colony; or

(b) has been ordinarily resident in the Colony continuously for a period of seven years or more and since the completion of such period of residence has not been ordinarily resident continuously for a period of seven years or more in any other part of the Commonwealth; or

(c) has obtained the status of a British subject by reason of having been naturalised in the Colony before the British Nationality Act 1948(a) came into force or by reason of his having been naturalised in the Colony under that Act; or

(d) is the wife of a person to whom any of foregoing paragraphs applies not living apart from such person under a decree of a court or a deed of separation; or

(e) is the child, stepchild, or child adopted in a manner recognised by law under the age of eighteen years of a person to whom any of the foregoing paragraphs applies; or

(a) 1948 c. 56.

(f) is a member of any other class of persons that may be prescribed by any law enacted under this Order.

(4) In relation to any person who is a member of a disciplined force raised under a law made under section 23 or 62 of this Order, nothing contained in or done under the authority of the disciplinary law of that force shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter other than sections 5, 7 and 8.

(5) In relation to any person who is a member of a disciplined force raised otherwise than as aforesaid and lawfully present in the Colony, nothing contained in or done under the authority of the disciplinary law of that force shall be held to be inconsistent with or in contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter.

CHAPTER III

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

High Commissioner's powers and duties.

20. The High Commissioner shall have such functions in relation to the Colony as may be conferred upon him by or under this Order or any other law for the time being in force in the Colony and such other functions in relation to the Colony as Her Majesty may assign to him and, subject to the provisions of this Order and, in the case of functions conferred upon him by or under any other law, subject to the provisions of that law or any law amending that law, shall perform all such functions according to such instructions as Her Majesty may give him:

Provided that the question whether or not the High Commissioner has in any matter complied with any such instructions shall not be inquired into in any court.

High Commissioner's powers of pardon, etc.

21. The High Commissioner may, in Her Majesty's name and on Her Majesty's behalf—

(a) grant to any person convicted of any offence against the law in force in the Colony a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions;

(b) grant to any person a respite, either indefinite or for a specified period, from the execution of any punishment imposed on that person for such an offence;

(c) substitute a less severe form of punishment for that imposed on any person for such an offence; or

(d) remit the whole or part of any punishment imposed on any person for such an offence or any penalty or forfeiture otherwise due to Her Majesty on account of such an offence.

High Commissioner's powers as respects offices.

22.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any other law for the time being in force in the Colony, the High Commissioner shall have power, in Her Majesty's name and on Her Majesty's behalf—

(a) to constitute such offices as may lawfully be constituted by Her Majesty and abolish any office so constituted by him;

(b) to make appointments (including appointments on promotion and transfer) to any office so constituted by him; and

(c) to terminate the appointment of or dismiss any person so appointed, or suspend him from performing the functions of his office, or take such other disciplinary action with respect to him as may be necessary.

(2) A person appointed to an office constituted under this section shall, unless it is otherwise provided by law, hold office during Her Majesty's pleasure.

(3) The High Commissioner may delegate to the Resident Commissioner or to any other public officer in such manner and upon such conditions as he may deem fit any of the powers conferred upon him by this section.

Power to make laws.

23.—(1) The High Commissioner may make for the Colony such laws as appear to him to be necessary or expedient in the interests of—

(a) external affairs (which expression shall, without prejudice to its generality, include the implementation or carrying out of agreements and arrangements with, and other obligations towards, any other country or any international or similar organisation);

(2) The provisions of section 70 (which relate to publication and commencement of laws) and of section 71 (which relate to disallowance of laws) of this Order shall apply to laws made under the last preceding subsection as they apply to laws made under section 62 of this Order.

CHAPTER IV

The Resident Commissioner.

24.—(1) There shall be a Resident Commissioner for the Colony who shall be appointed by the High Commissioner in pursuance of instructions given by Her Majesty through a Secretary of State and shall hold office during Her Majesty's pleasure.

(2) The Resident Commissioner shall have such functions as may be conferred upon him by or under this Order or any other law and such other functions as Her Majesty or the High Commissioner may assign to him and, subject to the provisions of this Order and, in the case of functions conferred upon him by or under any other law, subject to the provisions of that law or any law amending that law, shall perform all the functions of his office according to such instructions as may be given to him by Her Majesty or by the High Commissioner:

Provided that the question whether or not the Resident Commissioner has in any matter complied with any such instructions shall not be inquired into in any court.

Performance of functions of office of Resident Commissioner.

25.—(1) Whenever the office of Resident Commissioner is vacant or the holder thereof is absent from the Colony or is for any reason unable to perform the functions of his office, those functions shall be performed by such person as the High Commissioner may appoint.

(2) The holder of the office of Resident Commissioner shall not, for the purposes of this section, be regarded as absent from the Colony or as unable to perform the functions of his office—

(a) by reason only that he is in passage from one part of the Colony to another; or

(b) at any time when there is a subsisting appointment of a deputy under the next following section.

Resident Commissioner's deputy.

26.—(1) Whenever the holder of the office of Resident Commissioner—

(a) has occasion to be absent from Tarawa but not from the Colony; or

(b) has occasion to be absent from the Colony for a period which he has reason to believe will be of short duration; or

(c) is suffering from an illness which he has reason to believe will be of short duration, he may, in his discretion, by instrument under his hand, appoint any person in the Colony to be his deputy during his absence or illness and in that capacity to perform on his behalf such of the functions of the office of Resident Commissioner as may be specified in the instrument.

(2) The powers and authority of the Resident Commissioner shall not be abridged, altered or in any way affected by the appointment of a deputy under this section otherwise than as may be directed by the High Commissioner and the deputy shall conform to and observe all instructions that may from time to time be given to him by the High Commissioner or by the Resident Commissioner:

Provided that the question whether or not the deputy has in any matter complied with any such instructions shall not be inquired into in any court.

(3) A person appointed as deputy under this section shall hold that office for such period as may be specified in the instrument by which he is appointed but his appointment may be revoked at any time by the High Commissioner or by the Resident Commissioner acting in his discretion.

(4) In this section "Resident Commissioner" does not include a deputy appointed under this section.

Resident Commissioner to consult Governing Council.

27.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Resident Commissioner shall consult the Governing Council in the exercise of all powers conferred upon him by or under this Order or any other law for the time being in force in the Colony, except—

(a) any power conferred upon him by this Order which he is empowered to exercise in his discretion; or

(b) any power conferred upon him by any other law which he is empowered, either expressly or by implication, to exercise without consulting the Council.

(2) The Resident Commissioner shall not be required to consult the Governing Council in any case in which, in his judgment—

(a) the service of Her Majesty would sustain material prejudice thereby;

(b) the matters to be decided are too unimportant to require such consultation; or

(c) the urgency of the matter requires him to act before the Council can be consulted.

(3) In every case falling within paragraph (c) of the last preceding subsection the Resident Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable, communicate to the Governing Council the measures which he has adopted and the reasons for those measures.

Resident Commissioner may act against advice of Governing Council.

28.—(1) In any case in which the Resident Commissioner is required by the last preceding section to consult the Governing Council, he may act against the advice given to him by the Council if, in his judgment, it is expedient to do so in the interests of public order, public faith or good government (which expressions shall, without prejudice to their generality, include the responsibility of the Colony as a territory within the Commonwealth and all matters pertaining to the creation or abolition of any public office or to the salary or other conditions of service of any public officer).

(2) Where in any such case as aforesaid the Resident Commissioner considers it desirable to do so for the purpose of determining what advice is given to him by the Council on any matter he may, in his discretion, require a vote of the members of the Council to be taken on the question, and thereupon any advice on that matter shall be regarded as the advice of the Council if a majority of the votes of the members present and voting are cast in favour thereof:

Provided that if the votes cast are equally divided on the question what advice should be given, the Resident Commissioner or other person presiding may give a casting vote.

(3) The Resident Commissioner shall not act in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section against the advice given to him by the Council without first obtaining the approval of a Secretary of State unless, in his judgment, the matter is so urgent that it is necessary for him to act before obtaining such approval, in which case he shall forthwith report his action to a Secretary of State with the reasons therefor.

CHAPTER V

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL

Composition

The Governing Council.

29.—(1) There shall be a Governing Council for the Colony.

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 32 of this Order, the Governing Council shall consist of—

(a) the Assistant Resident Commissioner and the Attorney General, ex officio;

(b) not more than three members (hereinafter referred to as "appointed members"), who shall be appointed from among persons who are public officers by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, by instrument under his hand; and

(c) five elected members, of whom one shall be styled the Chief Elected Member, who shall be elected to the Council in accordance with the provisions of schedule 1 to this Order from among the elected members of the House of Representatives.

(3) An elected member of the Governing Council who holds or is acting in a public office shall not discharge the functions of that office so long as he remains such a member.

Tenure of office of members of Governing Council.

30.—(1) The office of an appointed member of the Governing Council shall become vacant—

(a) if he ceases to be a public officer;

(b) if his appointment to the office of appointed member is revoked by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, by instrument under his hand; or

(c) if he resigns his office of appointed member by writing under his hand addressed to the Resident Commissioner and the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, accepts that resignation.

(2) The offices of all the elected members of the Governing Council shall become vacant—

(a) immediately before a general election of the elected members of the Council is held in accordance with the provisions of schedule 1 to this Order where such an election is held as soon as practicable after a general election of the elected members of the House of Representatives; or

(b) in the circumstances mentioned in the next following section.

(3) The office of an elected member of the Governing Council shall also become vacant—

(a) if he resigns his office of elected member of the Council by writing under his hand addressed to the Resident Commissioner;

(b) if he ceases to be an elected member of the House of Representatives for any reason other than a dissolution of that House;

(c) if he is absent from the Colony for a period of more than two weeks without the written permission of the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion; or

(4) If the office of the Chief Elected Member becomes vacant under the last preceding subsection and one of the other elected members of the Council is elected in accordance with the provisions of schedule 1 to this Order to be the Chief Elected Member, his office as an elected member of the Council other than the Chief Elected Member shall become vacant.

(5)(a) If the office of the Chief Elected Member becomes vacant under subsection (3) of this section or the person holding that office is, by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason, incapable of performing the functions of the office of Elected Member, the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, shall summon a meeting of the other elected members of the Council for the election by them of one of their number to act as Chief Elected Member during the said vacancy or, as the case may be, during the said incapacity of the Chief Elected Member.

(b) The proceedings at any such meeting shall be conducted by the Resident Commissioner in such manner as he may direct and shall be valid notwithstanding any vacancy among the elected members of the Governing Council or the absence of any such member.

(c) The elected member of the Governing Council who receives the greatest number of votes cast at any such meeting shall be deemed to have been elected to act as Chief Elected Member; and if two such members equally receive the greatest number of votes, the Resident Commissioner in his discretion may, if he thinks fit, determine by lot which of them shall be deemed to have been so elected.

Removal of elected members of Council.

31.—(1) If a motion that all the elected members of the Governing Council should be removed from the Council receives in the House of Representatives the affirmative votes of a majority of all the elected members of the House, the offices of all the elected members of the Governing Council shall become vacant.

(2) The House of Representatives shall not proceed upon a motion such as is referred to in the last preceding subsection unless—

(a) notice in writing of that motion has been given to the Resident Commissioner, signed by not less than five of the elected members of the House of Representatives; and

(b) not less than three days have elapsed since that notice was so given.

(3) If when a notice is given as aforesaid the House is not due to meet within ten days, the Resident Commissioner shall summon the House to meet at such time as appears to him, in his discretion, to be reasonably practicable.

Temporary members of Governing Council.

32.—(1) Whenever—

(a) a person holding the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner is performing the functions of the office of Resident Commissioner and no other person has been appointed to act in the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner;

(b) the person holding the office of Attorney General is, by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason, incapable of performing his functions as an ex-officio member and no other person has been appointed to act in the office of Attorney General;

(c) an appointed member of the Governing Council is acting in the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner or Attorney General; or

(d) an appointed member of the Governing Council is, by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason, incapable of performing his functions as a member,

the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may, by instrument under his hand, appoint a person who is a public officer to be temporarily a member of the Governing Council.

(2) An appointment under the last preceding subsection shall cease to have effect if the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, revokes the appointment or when the person appointed is informed by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, that the circumstances giving rise to the appointment have ceased to exist.

(3)(a) Whenever the office of an elected member of the Governing Council (other than the Chief Elected Member) is vacant or such a member is by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason incapable of performing his functions as a member of the Council, the alternate member, if any, elected by the group that elected that member under paragraph 5 of schedule 1 to this Order, shall act as a member of the Governing Council.

(b) Whenever an elected member of the Governing Council has been elected under section 30(5) of this Order to act as Chief Elected Member, the alternate member, if any, elected by the group that elected that member under paragraph 5 of schedule 1 to this Order, shall act as a member of the Governing Council.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of this Order (including the provisions of section 30) shall apply to a person appointed under subsection (1) of this section or to an alternate member as they apply to an appointed member of the Governing Council or, as the case may be, an elected member of the Governing Council.

Determination of questions as to membership of Council.

33.—(1) Any question whether—

(a) a person has been validly elected an elected member of the Governing Council ; or

(b) the office of an elected member of the Governing Council has become vacant, shall be determined in such manner as may be provided by any law for the time being in force in the Colony and, until otherwise provided by any such law, shall be determined by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion.

(2) Any question whether—

(a) a person has been validly appointed an appointed member of the Governing Council ; or

(b) the office of an appointed member of the Governing Council has become vacant,

Oath by members of Council.

34. Before assuming the functions of his office a member of the Governing Council shall make before the Resident Commissioner, or some person authorised in that behalf by the Resident Commissioner, an oath of allegiance and an oath for the due execution of his office in the form set out in schedule 2 to this Order.

General Provisions Relating to Procedure

Summoning of Governing Council.

35. The Governing Council shall not be summoned except by authority of the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion.

Presiding in Governing Council.

36.—(1) The Resident Commissioner shall, so far as is practicable, preside at all sittings of the Governing Council.

(2) In the absence of the Resident Commissioner there shall preside at any such sitting such member of the Council as the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may either generally or specially appoint.

Quorum.

37. No business except that of adjournment shall be transacted in the Council if objection is taken by any member present that there are less than four members present besides the Resident Commissioner or member presiding.

Council may transact business notwithstanding vacancies.

38. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, the Governing Council shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy in its membership, and any proceedings in the Council shall be valid notwithstanding that some person who was not entitled to do so took part in those proceedings.

Summoning of persons to attend Council.

39. The Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, or the member presiding may summon any person to a sitting of the Council, notwithstanding that that person is not a member of the Council, when in his opinion the business before the Council makes the presence of that person desirable.

Privacy of certain proceedings of Council.

40.—(1) Except as provided in section 64 of this Order, all proceedings of the Governing Council shall be held in private.

(2) Where in his opinion it would not be contrary to the public interest so to do, the Resident Commissioner may, to such extent as he may specify, authorise any elected member of the Governing Council to disclose in proceedings of the Governing Council held in public or proceedings of the House of Representatives, or otherwise to make public, the position taken by that member with regard to any matter in proceedings of the Council held in private.

Submission of questions to Governing Council and regulation of procedure.

41.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order and of the rules of procedure of the Governing Council, the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, and any member of the Council may submit any question for consideration by the Council.

(2) Subject as aforesaid, the procedure of the Council at any sitting shall be determined by the person presiding at that sitting.

CHAPTER VI

House of Representatives

Composition

House of Representatives.

42.—(1) There shall be a House of Representatives for the Colony.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the House of Representatives shall consist of—

(a) the Assistant Resident Commissioner and the Attorney General, ex officio ;

(b) such members, not exceeding five in number (hereinafter referred to as " appointed members "), as may be appointed under the next following section ; and

Appointed members.

43. The appointed members of the House of Representatives shall be appointed by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, by instrument under his hand, from among persons who are public officers.

Elected members.

44.—(1) The elected members of the House of Representatives shall be persons qualified for election as such under the provisions of this Order and shall be elected in the manner provided by any law for the time being in force in the Colony.

(2) Of the twenty-three elected members—

(a) one shall be elected for each of the electoral districts specified in Part 1 of schedule 3 to this Order; and

(b) two shall be elected for each of the electoral districts specified in Part 2 of that schedule.

Qualifications for elected membership.

45. Subject to the provisions of the next following section, a person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives if, and shall not be so qualified unless,—

(a) he is a British subject or a British protected person;

(b) he has attained the age of twenty-one years; and

(c) he has resided in the Colony during the three years immediately preceding the date of his election for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to not less than thirty months, or is domiciled in the Colony and is resident there at that date.

Disqualifications for elected membership.

46.—(1) No person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives who—

(a) is, by virtue of his own act, under any acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience or adherence to a foreign power or state;

(b) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law for the time being in force in any part of the Commonwealth and has not been discharged;

(c) is certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any law for the time being in force in the Colony;

(d) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court in any part of the Commonwealth, or is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term of or exceeeding twelve months, imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court, or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended;

(e) is disqualified from membership of the House under any law for the time being in force in the Colony relating to offences connected with elections;

(f) holds, or is acting in, any office the functions of which involve any responsibility for, or in connection with, the conduct of any election or the compilation or revision of any electoral register; or (g) being a public officer, has failed to obtain the written consent of the Resident Commissioner, acting in his discretion, for leave of absence to contest an election.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of the last preceding subsection—

(a) two or more terms of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as a single term of imprisonment for the aggregate period of those terms; and

(b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

Tenure of office of members of House of Representatives.

47.—(1) The seat of an appointed member of the House of Representatives shall become vacant—

(a) if he ceases to be a public officer;

(b) on a dissolution of the House;

(c) if his appointment is revoked by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, by instrument under his hand; or (d) if he resigns his seat by writing under his hand addressed to the Resident Commissioner and the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, accepts his resignation.

(2) The seat of an elected member of the House shall become vacant—

(a) on a dissolution of the House;

(b) if he is absent from the sittings of the House for such period, and in such circumstances, as may be prescribed in the rules of procedure of the House;

(c) if he resigns his seat by writing under his hand addressed to the Resident Commissioner;

(d) if any circumstance arises that, if he were not a member of the House, would cause him not to be qualified for election thereto under paragraph (a) of section 45 of this Order or to be disqualified for election thereto by virtue of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (e) or (f) of subsection (1) of the last preceding section; or (e) in the circumstances specified in the next following section.

Vacation of seat on sentence.

48.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, if an elected member of the House of Representatives is sentenced by a court in any part of the Commonwealth to death or to imprisonment (by whatever name called) for a term of or exceeding twelve months, he shall forthwith cease to discharge his functions as a member of the House, and his seat in the House shall become vacant at the expiration of a period of thirty days thereafter:

Provided that the Resident Commissioner may, at the request of the member, from time to time extend that period of thirty days to enable the member to pursue any appeal in respect of his conviction or sentence, so however that extensions of time exceeding in the aggregate one hundred and fifty days shall not be granted without the approval of the House signified by resolution.

(2) If at any time before the member vacates his seat he receives a free pardon or his conviction is set aside or his sentence is reduced to a term of imprisonment of less than twelve months or a punishment other than imprisonment is substituted, his seat in the House shall not become vacant under the provisions of the last preceding subsection and he may again discharge his functions as a member of the House.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

(a) two or more terms of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as a single term of imprisonment for the aggregate period of those terms; and

(b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

Temporary members of House of Representatives.

49.—(1) Whenever—

(a) a person holding the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner is performing the functions of the office of Resident Commissioner and no other person has been appointed to act in the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner;

(b) the person holding the office of Attorney General is, by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason, incapable of performing his functions as an ex-officio member and no person is acting in the office of Attorney General;

(c) an appointed member of the House is acting in the office of Assistant Resident Commissioner or Attorney General; or

(d) an appointed member of the House is, by reason of his illness or absence from the Colony or for any other reason, incapable of performing his functions as a member,

the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may, by instrument under his hand, appoint a person who is a public officer to be temporarily a member of the House.

(2) An appointment under the last preceding subsection shall cease to have effect if the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, revokes the appointment or when the person appointed is informed by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, that the circumstances giving rise to the appointment have ceased to exist.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of this Order (including the provisions of section 47(1)) shall apply to a person appointed to be temporarily a member of the House as they apply to an appointed member of the House.

Determination of questions as to membership of House of Representatives.

50.—(1) Any question whether a person has been validly appointed as an appointed member of the House of Representatives, or whether an appointed member of the House has vacated his seat therein, shall be determined by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion.

(2) Any question whether a person has been validly elected as a member of the House, or whether an elected member of the House has vacated his seat therein, shall be referred to and determined by the High Court in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force in the Colony and the decision of that Court shall be final and not subject to any appeal.

Penalty for sitting or voting in House of Representatives when unqualified.

51.—(1) Any person who sits or votes in the House of Representatives knowing or having reasonable grounds for knowing that he is not entitled to do so shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each day upon which he so sits or votes.

(2) Any such penalty shall be recoverable by civil action in the High Court at the suit of the Attorney General.

Law as to elections.

52. Subject to the provisions of this Order, a law enacted under Chapter VII of this Order may provide for the election of the elected members of the House of Representatives, and in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may provide for—

(a) the qualifications and disqualifications of voters;

(b) the registration of voters:

(c) the nomination of candidates for election (including the number of persons required to support nominations) ;

(d) the ascertainment of the qualifications of voters and of candidates for election ;

(e) the division of electoral districts for any purpose connected with elections ;

(f) the holding of elections ;

(g) the determination of any question whether any person has been validly elected an elected member of the House or whether an elected member of the House has vacated his seat therein ; and

(h) the definition and trial of offences connected with elections and the imposition of penalties therefor, including disqualification for membership of the House, or for registration as a voter, or for voting at elections, of any person concerned in any such offence.

General Provisions Relating to Procedure and Functions of the House of Representatives

Oath of allegiance.

53. No member of the House of Representatives shall be permitted to take part in the proceedings of the House (other than proceedings necessary for the purpose of this section) until he has made before the House an oath of allegiance in the form set out in schedule 2 to this Order.

Presiding in the House of Representatives.

54.—(1) The Resident Commissioner shall, so far as is practicable, preside at all sittings of the House of Representatives.

(2) In the absence of the Resident Commissioner there shall preside at any such sitting such member of the House as the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may either generally or specially appoint.

Quorum.

55. If objection is taken by any member of the House of Representatives present that there are present in the House (besides the person presiding) less than fifteen members of the House and, after such interval as may be prescribed in the rules of procedure of the House, the person presiding ascertains that the number of members present is still less than fifteen, he shall thereupon adjourn the House.

Voting in House of Representatives.

56.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Order, any question proposed for decision in the House of Representatives shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.

(2) A member of the House other than an elected member thereof shall have no vote on such a motion as is referred to in section 31(1) of this Order.

(3) The person presiding in the House shall have neither an original vote nor a casting vote and if upon any question before the House the votes are equally divided the motion shall be lost.

Regulation of procedure in House of Representatives.

57.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, the House of Representatives may regulate its own procedure and for this purpose may make rules of procedure, but no such rules shall have effect until approved by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion.

(2) The House shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of any vacancy in its membership, and any proceedings in the House shall be valid notwithstanding that some person who was not entitled to do so took part in those proceedings.

Functions of the House of Representatives.

58. The functions of the House of Representatives shall consist of—

(a) considering such draft Bills and other proposals for legislation and such other matters relating to the government of the Colony as the Governing Council may refer to it and advising the Council thereon ;

(b) considering such matters relating to the government of the Colony as any member of the House may, subject to the rules of procedure of the House, propose for consideration therein and, if the House thinks fit, making recommendations to the Governing Council thereon ; and

(c) such other functions as may be conferred upon the House by the provisions of this Order or of any other law for the time being in force in the Colony.

Summoning, Prorogation and Dissolution

Sessions of House of Representatives.

59.—(1) Each session of the House of Representatives shall be held at such place within the Colony and shall commence at such time as the Resident Commissioner may appoint by proclamation published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

(2) The first session of the House of Representatives shall be held within six months after the appointed day, and thereafter sessions shall be held so that a period of twelve months does not intervene between the end of one session and the first sitting of the House in the next session.

Prorogation and dissolution.

60.—(1) The Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may at any time prorogue or dissolve the House of Representatives by proclamation published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

(2) The Resident Commissioner shall dissolve the House of Representatives at the expiration of two years from the date when the House first sits after any general election unless the House has been sooner dissolved under the last preceding subsection.

General elections.

61. A general election shall be held at such time within three months after the appointed day, and thereafter within three months of every dissolution of the House, as the Resident Commissioner shall appoint by proclamation published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

CHAPTER VII

LEGISLATION AND PROCEDURE IN GOVERNING COUNCIL

Power to make laws.

62. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Resident Commissioner, with the advice and consent of the Governing Council, may make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Colony.

Rules of procedure.

63. Subject to the provisions of this Order and of any Instructions under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, the Governing Council may make rules of procedure for the regulation and orderly conduct of its proceedings and the discharge of business at meetings of the Council held in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, and for the passing, intituling and numbering of Bills and for the presentation thereof to the Resident Commissioner for assent; but no such rules shall have effect until approved by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion.

Proceedings of Council under this Chapter to be public.

64. The proceedings of the Governing Council at any meeting held in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter shall be held in public.

Summoning, etc., of meetings of the Council for the purposes of this Chapter.

65.—(1) Any meeting of the Governing Council for the purpose of the exercise of its functions under this Chapter relating to the making of laws shall be summoned by the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, by proclamation published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

(2) Where the Council meets in the pursuance of the last preceding subsection the meeting may be adjourned from time to time to a subsequent time; but for the purposes of that subsection a meeting shall be regarded as having been terminated if the Council is adjourned sine die.

Voting.

66. All questions proposed for decision in the Governing Council at any meeting held in acordance with the provisions of this Chapter shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting:

Provided that if upon any such question the votes cast are equally divided the Resident Commissioner or other person presiding shall have and shall exercise a casting vote.

Council not to proceed on Bills unless proposals previously submitted to House of Representatives.

67.—(1) Except as provided in the next following subsection, the Governing Council shall not proceed upon any Bill introduced in the Council unless the person presiding is satisfied that the provisions of that Bill—

(a) are substantially the same as those of a draft Bill that has previously been submitted to the House of Representatives by the Governing Council and that the House has had a reasonable opportunity of considering that draft Bill; or

(b) are such that they will, if enacted, substantially give effect to any proposals for legislation that have previously been submitted to the House of Representatives otherwise than in the form of a draft Bill and that the House has had a reasonable opportunity of considering those proposals.

(2) The last preceding subsection shall not apply to any Bill if the Resident Commissioner certifies that the need for the passage by the Council of its provisions is too urgent to permit the prior submission of a draft of the Bill or the proposals to which it gives effect to the House of Representatives; but in any such case the Council shall, as soon as practicable, communicate the text of the Bill to the House together with a statement of its reasons for passing it.

(3) Where the Council proceeds upon any Bill in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, nothing in that subsection shall be construed as preventing the Council from proceeding upon any amendment to that Bill.

Resident Commissioner's reserved power.

68.—(1) If the Resident Commissioner considers that it is expedient in the interests of public order, public faith or good government (which expressions shall, without prejudice to their generality, include the responsibility of the Colony as a territory within the Commonwealth, and all matters pertaining to the creation or abolition of any public office, or to the salary or other conditions of service of any public officer) that any Bill introduced or any motion proposed at any meeting of the Governing Council held in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter should have effect, then, if the Council fails to pass the Bill or to carry the motion within such time and in such form as the Resident Commissioner thinks reasonable and expedient, the Resident Commissioner may, at any time that he thinks fit, and notwithstanding any provisions of this Order or of any rules of procedure of the Council, declare that the Bill or motion shall have effect as if it had been passed or carried by the Council either in the form in which it was introduced or proposed or with such amendments as the Resident Commissioner thinks fit that have been moved or proposed in the Council, including any committee thereof; and the Bill or motion shall be deemed thereupon to have been so passed or carried, and the provisions of this Order, and in particular the provisions relating to assent to Bills and disallowance of laws, shall have effect accordingly.

(2) The Resident Commissioner shall forthwith report to a Secretary of State every case in which he makes any such declaration and the reasons therefor.

(3) If any member of the Governing Council objects to any declaration made under this section, he may, within seven days of the making thereof, submit to the Resident Commissioner a statement in writing of his reasons for so objecting and, if he furnishes a copy of that statement and requests the Resident Commissioner to do so, the Resident Commissioner shall as soon as practicable forward the copy to a Secretary of State.

(4) Any declaration made under this section other than a declaration relating to a Bill may be revoked by a Secretary of State and the Resident Commissioner shall forthwith cause notice of the revocation to be published in the Gazette; and from the date of such publication any motion that is deemed to have been carried by virtue of the declaration shall cease to have effect and section 38(2) of the Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply to the revocation as it applies to the repeal of an Act of Parliament.

(5) The powers conferred upon the Resident Commissioner by this section shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

Assent to Bills.

69.—(1) A Bill passed by the Governing Council shall not become a law until—

(a) the Resident Commissioner has assented to it in Her Majesty's name and on Her Majesty's behalf and has signed it in token of his assent; or

(b) Her Majesty has given Her assent to it through a Secretary of State, and the Resident Commissioner has signified that assent by proclamation published together with the law by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

(2) When a Bill is presented to the Resident Commissioner for his assent, he shall, in his discretion but subject to the provisions of this Order and of any Instructions given under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, declare that he assents or refuses to assent to it, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure:

Provided that, unless he has been authorised by a Secretary of State to assent thereto, the Resident Commissioner shall reserve for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure any Bill which determines or regulates the privileges, immunities or powers of the Governing Council or of its members or of the House of Representatives or of its members.

Publication and commencement of laws.

70. A law made under section 62 of this Order—

(a) shall be published in the Colony by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner; and

(b) shall come into operation on the date of such publication or, if it is enacted either in the law or in some other law, that it shall come into operation on some other date, on that date.

Disallowance of laws.

71.—(1) Any law made under section 62 of this Order may be disallowed by Her Majesty through a Secretary of State.

(2) Whenever any law has been disallowed by Her Majesty the Resident Commissioner shall cause notice of the disallowance to be published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner.

(3) A law disallowed by Her Majesty shall be annulled with effect from the date of the publication of the notice of the disallowance.

(4) Section 38(2) of the Interpretation Act 1889 shall apply to the annulment of any law under this section as it applies to the repeal of an Act of Parliament, save that any enactment amended or repealed by or in pursuance of that law shall have effect as from the date of the annulment as if that law had not been made.

CHAPTER VIII

Miscellaneous and Transitional Provisions

Concurrent appointments.

72.—(1) When the holder of any office constituted or deemed to be constituted by or under this Order is on leave of absence pending relinquishment of his office, it shall be lawful for another person to be appointed substantively to the same office.

(2) When two or more persons are holding the same office by reason of an appointment made pursuant to the last preceding subsection, then for the purpose of any function conferred upon the holder of that office the person last appointed to the office shall be deemed to be the holder of the office.

Privileges, etc., of Governing Council and House of Representatives.

73.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) and (3) of this section, a law made under section 62 of this Order may determine the privileges, immunities and powers of the Governing Council in legislative session and of its members and of the House of Representatives and of its members.

(2) No civil or criminal proceedings may be instituted against any member of the Governing Council or House of Representatives for words spoken before, or written in a report to, the Governing Council in legislative session or the House of Representatives or a committee of either body, or by reason of any matter or thing brought by him in the Governing Council in legislative session or in the House of Representatives or in a committee of either body.

(3) No process issued by any court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction shall be served or executed within the precincts of the Governing Council while the Council is sitting in legislative session or within the precincts of the House of Representatives while the House is sitting.

(4) In this section any reference to the Governing Council in legislative session shall be construed as a reference to proceedings of the Council held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VII of this Order.

Executive Council.

74. Notwithstanding the revocation by this Order of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1963, the Executive Council established by that Order—

(a) shall continue on and after the appointed day to exist as if the provisions of Part II of that Order were still in force, until such time as the Governing Council established by this Order has been constituted ; and

(b) shall until that time perform its functions and be consulted by the Resident Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of that Order and of the Instructions given under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet in relation to that Order.

Electoral regulations.

75. Until such time as it is otherwise provided under section 52 of this Order, any regulations made under the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony (Electoral Provisions) Order 1967 and in force immediately before the appointed day shall have effect on and after that day as if they were a law made in pursuance of that section :

Provided that, until such time as the Governing Council established by this Order has been constituted, the Resident Commissioner, in his discretion, may by regulations amend or revoke those regulations.

Existing offices and officers.

76.—(1) Any office constituted by the High Commissioner under section V or VII of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order in Council 1915 and subsisting immediately before the appointed day shall, on and after that day, be deemed to be an office constituted by the High Commissioner under section 22 of this Order.

(2) Any person who, immediately before the appointed day, holds or is acting in any such office shall, on and after that day, continue to hold or to act in his office as if he had been appointed to it in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(3) Any person to whom the last preceding subsection applies who, before the appointed day, has made any oath required to be made by him before assuming the functions of his office shall not, by reason only of that subsection, be required to make a like oath.

Existing laws.

77.—(1) The existing laws shall, as from the appointed day, be construed with such adaptations and modifications as may be necessary to bring them into conformity with the provisions of this Order.

(2) (a) The Resident Commissioner may, by order published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner, at any time within twelve months after the appointed day provide that any existing law shall be read and construed with such adaptations and modifications as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for bringing that law into conformity with the provisions of this Order or otherwise for giving effect or enabling effect to be given to those provisions; and any existing law shall have effect accordingly from such date as may be specified in the order.

(b) An order made under this subsection may be amended or revoked in relation to any law affected thereby by the authority competent to amend or revoke that law.

(3) In this section "existing law" means any law made for the Colony by the High Commissioner or the Resident Commissioner or any rule, regulation, order or other instrument made thereunder, that has effect as part of the law of the Colony immediately before the appointed day.

Proclamations, etc. to be printed in the Gazette.

78. Where in this Order it is provided that any proclamation, notice, law or order shall be published by exhibition at the Public Office of the Resident Commissioner then such proclamation, notice, law or order shall be printed in the Gazette as soon as may be after the date of such publication.

Power reserved by Her Majesty.

79. There is reserved to Her Majesty full power to make laws from time to time for the peace, order and good government of the Colony, including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, laws amending or revoking this Order.

W. G. Agnew.

Section 29(2)(c) SCHEDULE 1

ELECTION OF ELECTED MEMBERS OF GOVERNING COUNCIL

1.—(1) In this schedule unless the context otherwise requires—

"bye-election" means an election to fill a vacancy among the elected members of the Governing Council occurring under section 30(3) or (4) of this Order;

"general election" means an election of all the elected members of the Governing Council.

(2) For the purposes of this schedule, the electoral districts numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 14 in schedule 3 to this Order are in the Northern Gilbert Islands, the electoral districts numbered 5, 6, 7, 8 and 15 in that schedule are in the Central Gilbert Islands, the electoral districts numbered 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 16 in that schedule are in the Southern Gilbert Islands and the electoral districts numbered 17 and 18 in that schedule are in the Ellice Islands.

2. Subject to the provisions of this schedule, the Resident Commissioner may make rules for the election of the elected members of the Governing Council.

3. Elections of elected members of the Governing Council shall be conducted by the Resident Commissioner and, subject to the provisions of this schedule and of any rules made under paragraph 2 thereof, shall be conducted in such manner as he may direct.

4.—(1) The Resident Commissioner shall cause an election of the Chief Elected Member to be held—

(a) in the case of a general election, as soon as practicable after the holding of a general election of the elected members of the House of Representatives and before the House first meets after that general election or, as the case may be, as soon as practicable after the removal under section 31 of this Order of all the elected members of the Governing Council; and

(b) in the case of a bye-election to the office of Chief Elected Member, as soon as practicable after that office has become vacant.

(2) In respect of any election of the Chief Elected Member, any elected member of the House shall be entitled to nominate from among the elected members of the House, other than a member who is a public officer, one candidate for election as Chief Elected Member.

(3) Any meeting of the elected members of the House held for the purpose of electing the Chief Elected Member shall be summoned by the Resident Commissioner, and the precedings at any such meeting shall be valid notwithstanding any vacancy among the elected members of the House or the absence of any such member.

(4) A list of the candidates nominated for election under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be prepared, and each elected member of the House present at the meeting shall have one vote and shall be entitled to cast it for one candidate on the list so constituted.

(5) The vote of every such elected member shall be given by ballot in such a manner as not to disclose how that member voted.

(6) No other business than the holding of the election of the Chief Elected Member may be transacted at any meeting of the elected members of the House summoned under sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph and such a meeting shall not be regarded as a meeting of the House for the purposes of any other provision of this Order.

(7) The candidate on the list constituted in accordance with the foregoing sub-paragraphs of this paragraph who receives the greatest number of votes shall, subject to the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph, be deemed to have been elected.

(8) When two or more candidates equally receive the greatest number of votes, no candidate shall be deemed to have been elected and a further ballot or, if necessary, ballots, shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this schedule:

Provided that—

(i) for the purposes of any such further ballot only those candidates who received the greatest number of votes in the preceding ballot may stand as candidates; and

(ii) where in two successive ballots the same two or more candidates equally receive the greatest number of votes, the Resident Commissioner may determine by lot which of those candidates is deemed to be elected instead of holding a further ballot.

5.—(1) The Resident Commissioner shall cause elections to be held—

(a) in the case of a general election, of four other elected members of the Governing Council as soon as practicable after the election of the Chief Elected Member;

(b) in the case of a bye-election to the office of elected member of the Governing Council other than the Chief Elected Member, as soon as practicable after that office has become vacant.

(2) For the purposes of elections under sub-paragraph (1)(a) of this paragraph, the elected members of the House of Representatives shall be divided into four groups, the said groups consisting of the members who have been elected for electoral districts in the Northern Gilbert Islands, the Central Gilbert Islands, the Southern Gilbert Islands and the Ellice Islands respectively; and each group shall elect one member of the Governing Council.

(3) An election under sub-paragraph (1)(b) of this paragraph shall be by the group which had elected the person in respect of whom the vacancy has occurred.

(4) A meeting of the group shall be summoned by the Resident Commissioner to elect one member of the Governing Council, and the proceedings of any such meeting shall be valid notwithstanding any vacancy among the members of the group or the absence of any such member.

(5) In respect of an election by a group—

(a) any member of the group shall be entitled to nominate one candidate for election from among the members of the group;

(b) a list of candidates nominated for election shall be prepared and each member of the group present at the meeting shall have one vote and shall be entitled to cast it for one candidate on the list so constituted;

(c) the vote of every such member shall be given by ballot in such a manner as not to disclose how that member voted; and

(d) when the votes have been cast, the candidate on the list constituted in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph who receives the greatest number of votes shall, subject to the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph, be deemed to have been elected as a member of the Governing Council.

(6) When two or more candidates equally receive the greatest number of votes, the provisions of paragraph 4(8) of this schedule shall apply.

6.—(1) If at a meeting of any group summoned under paragraph 5 of this schedule, a majority of the members of the group present at the meeting inform the Resident Commissioner that they desire that the group should, in addition to electing a member of the Governing Council under that paragraph (in this paragraph referred to as "the group's substantive member"), elect an alternate member to act as a member of the Governing Council during any period when the group's substantive member is incapable of performing his functions as a member of the Council, the meeting shall proceed to the election of such an alternate member immediately after the election of the group's substantive member has been concluded, and the provisions of paragraph 5(5) and (6) of this schedule shall apply to the election of the alternate member as they apply to the election of the substantive member.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 30(2), (3) and (4) as applied to an alternate member by section 32 of this Order, whenever a group meets for the purpose of the holding of a bye-election under paragraph 5 of this schedule any alternate member previously elected by that group shall vacate his office as such.

7. The powers conferred upon the Resident Commissioner by this schedule shall be exercised by him in his discretion.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order makes new provision for the government of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony. It establishes a Governing Council, consisting of official and elected members, which replaces the existing Executive Council and has legislative as well as executive functions. The Order also establishes a House of Representatives, the greater number of members thereof being elected under the principle of universal adult suffrage. The House will advise the Governing Council on proposed legislation and other public matters referred to it by the Council or raised by individual members of the House. It also contains provisions relating to the fundamental rights and freedoms of the individual.

PACIFIC ISLANDS

The Gilbert and Ellice Islands Royal Instructions 1967

Dated: 30th August 1967. ELIZABETH R.

INSTRUCTIONS to Our High Commissioner for the Western Pacific or other Officer for the time being performing the functions of the office of High Commissioner.

We do hereby direct and enjoin and declare Our will and pleasure as follows :—

Citation, publication, commencement and revocation.

1.—(1) These Instructions may be cited as the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Royal Instructions 1967.

(2) These Instructions shall be published in the Gazette and shall take effect on the day appointed by the Resident Commissioner for the coming into operation of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order 1967(a) (in these Instructions referred to as " the Order of 1967 ").

(3) Without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, the Instructions under Our Royal Sign Manual and Signet issued to the High Commissioner and dated 23rd October 1963(b) shall, subject to the provisions of section 74 of the Order of 1967, cease to have effect on the taking effect of these Instructions.

Interpretation.

2. The provisions of section 2 of the Order of 1967 shall apply for the purpose of interpreting these Instructions as they apply for the purpose of interpreting that Order.

Instructions to be observed by Assistant High Commissioner.

3.—(1) These Instructions, so far as they apply to any functions of the office of High Commissioner to be performed in relation to the Colony by an Assistant High Commissioner appointed under the Pacific Order in Council 1893(c), shall be deemed to be addressed to, and shall be observed by, the Assistant High Commissioner.

(2) The Assistant High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, apply to Us through a Secretary of State for instructions in any matter ; but he shall forthwith transmit to the High Commissioner a copy of every despatch or other communication so addressed to Us.

High Commissioner to communicate Instructions to the Resident Commissioner and Governing Council.

4. The High Commissioner shall forthwith communicate to the Resident Commissioner and to the Governing Council these Instructions and all such others as he shall from time to time find it convenient for Our service to impart to them.

(c) Rev. VIII, p. 597; S.R. & O. 1893, p. 312.

Rules for the making of laws.

5. In the making of laws under the powers conferred by the Order of 1967 the following rules shall be observed as far as practicable :—

(a) All laws shall be styled " Ordinances " and the words of enactment shall be—

(i) in the case of any law made by the High Commissioner under section 23 of the Order of 1967 " Enacted by the High Commissioner for the Western Pacific " ; and

(ii) in the case of any other law " Enacted by the Resident Commissioner with the advice and consent of the Governing Council " :

Provided that in the case of any law made by the Resident Commissioner under section 68 of the Order of 1967 the words of enactment shall be " Enacted by the Resident Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of section 68 of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands Order 1967 ".

(b) All Ordinances shall be distinguished by titles, and shall be divided into successive sections consecutively numbered, and to every section there shall be annexed in the margin or at its head a short indication of its contents.

(c) All Ordinances shall be numbered consecutively in a separate series for each year, commencing with the number one, so that—

(i) an Ordinance enacted by the High Commissioner or passed by the Governing Council (or by the Resident Commissioner under section 68 of the Order of 1967) and assented to by the Resident Commissioner is included in the series for the year in which it is so enacted or passed, as the case may be, and its position in the series is determined with reference to the day on which it has been so enacted or on which the Resident Commissioner has assented to it, as the case may be ;

(ii) an Ordinance assented to by Us through a Secretary of State is included in the series for the year in which the Resident Commissioner has signified Our assent by proclamation, and its position in the series is determined with reference to the day on which Our assent has been so signified.

(d) Matters having no proper relation to each other shall not be provided for by the same Ordinance ; no Ordinance shall contain anything foreign to what the title of the Ordinance imports ; and no provision having indefinite duration shall be included in any Ordinance expressed to have limited duration.

Certain Ordinances or Bills not to be enacted or assented to without instructions.

6.—(1) Without having previously obtained Our instructions through a Secretary of State the High Commissioner shall not enact any Ordinance and the Resident Commissioner shall not assent to any Bill within any of the following classes, unless the Ordinance or Bill contains a provision suspending its operation until the signification of Our pleasure, that is to say, any Ordinance or Bill—

(a) for the divorce of married persons ;

(b) whereby any grant of land or money or other donation be made to the High Commissioner or to the Resident Commissioner ;

(c) affecting the currency of the Colony or relating to the issue of bank notes ;

(d) establishing any banking association, or altering the constitution, powers or privileges of any banking association;

(e) imposing differential duties;

(f) affecting the discipline or control of Our naval, military or air forces;

(g) the provisions of which appear to him to be inconsistent with obligations imposed on Us by treaty, convention, agreement or arrangement relating to any country or international or similar organisation outside the Colony;

(h) of an extraordinary nature and importance whereby Our prerogative, or the rights or property of Our subjects not residing in the Colony, or the trade, transport or communications of any part of Our dominions or any territory under Our protection or in which We have for the time being jurisdiction, may be prejudiced; and

(i) containing provisions to which Our assent has been refused or which have been disallowed by Us.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last preceding paragraph, if on any matter in respect of which the High Commissioner is empowered by the Order of 1967 to make laws he is satisfied that it is urgently necessary in the public interest that an Ordinance falling within any of the said classes (other than an Ordinance falling within sub-paragraph (g) of that paragraph) be brought into immediate operation, he may enact the Ordinance without such instructions as aforesaid and although the Ordinance contains no such provision as aforesaid; but he shall forthwith transmit to Us the Ordinance together with his reasons for so enacting it.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Clause, if the Resident Commissioner is satisfied that it is urgently necessary in the public interest that a Bill falling within any of the said classes (other than a Bill falling within sub-paragraph (g) of that paragraph) be brought into immediate operation, he may assent to that Bill without such instructions as aforesaid and although the Bill contains no provision as aforesaid; but he shall forthwith transmit to Us the Bill together with his reasons for so assenting to it.

Ordinances and Bills to be sent through a Secretary of State.

7. When any Ordinance has been enacted or any Bill has been reserved for the signification of Our pleasure, the High Commissioner, or the Resident Commissioner, as the case may be, shall forthwith transmit to Us through a Secretary of State, for the signification of Our pleasure, a transcript in duplicate of the Ordinance or Bill, duly authenticated, in the case of an Ordinance enacted by the High Commissioner, by his own signature, or, in the case of any other Ordinance or Bill, by the signature of the Resident Commissioner, together with an explanation of the reasons and occasion for the enactment of the Ordinance or the passing of the Bill.

Collection of Ordinances to be published annually.

8. As soon as practicable after the commencement of each year the Resident Commissioner shall cause a complete collection of all Ordinances enacted during the preceding year to be published for general information.

Purchase of property by High Commissioner.

9. Neither the High Commissioner nor the Resident Commissioner shall, directly or indirectly, purchase for himself any land or building in the Colony to Us belonging without Our special permission given through a Secretary of State.

Oath of allegiance by public officers.

10. The Resident Commissioner may, whenever he thinks fit, require any person in the public service of the Colony to make an oath or affirmation of allegiance in the form set out in Schedule 2 to the Order of 1967 together with any other oath or affirmation that may be prescribed by any law for the time being in force in the Colony.

Power of pardon in capital cases.

11.—(1) Whenever any offender has been condemned by any civil court to suffer death, in respect of any offence against the law in force in the Colony, the High Commissioner shall cause a written report of the case of that offender from the judge who tried the case, together with such other information derived from the record of the case or elsewhere as the High Commissioner may require, to be taken into consideration at a meeting of a committee consisting of not more than four persons whom he shall appoint.

(2) The High Commissioner shall not pardon or respite the offender unless it appears to him expedient to do so upon receiving the advice of the committee thereon; but he is to decide either to extend or to withhold a pardon or respite according to his own deliberate judgment, whether the members of the committee concur therein or not; causing, nevertheless, to be entered in the minutes of the committee his reasons, in case he should decide any such question in opposition to the judgment of the majority of the members of the committee.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this thirtieth day of August 1967 in the sixteenth year of Our Reign.
