And Whereas by an ordinance enacted by the legislature of the Colony of North Borneo, the short title of which is the Extradition Ordinance, 1951, it is provided that all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1935, are thereby vested in, and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Deputy of the Governor thereto authorised in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts:

And Whereas it is further provided by the said ordinance that the said ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870, but that the said ordinance shall thereafter come into operation on the day on which such Order in Council is published in the Government Gazette:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act, 1870, and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, directs that the said ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of North Borneo without modification or alteration, as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.

This Order may be cited as the Extradition (North Borneo) Order in Council, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order gives effect in the Colony of North Borneo to the Extradition Ordinance, 1951, of the Colony as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.

The Fugitive Offenders (North Borneo) Order in Council, 1951

1951 No. 1947

Made - - - -	14*th November*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	15*th November*, 1951
Coming into Operation	16*th November*, 1951

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of November, 1951

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by Section 32 of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881(a), it is, amongst other things, enacted that if the Legislature of a British Possession pass any Act or Ordinance for determining the court, judge, magistrate, officer or person by whom and the manner in which any jurisdiction or power under the said Act is to be exercised, or in any manner for the carrying of the said Act or any part thereof into effect in that Possession, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council to direct, if it seems to His Majesty in Council necessary or proper for carrying into effect the objects of the said Act, that such Act or Ordinance as aforesaid or any part thereof shall with or without modification or alteration be recognised and given effect to throughout His Majesty's dominions and on the high seas as if it were part of the said Act:

And Whereas by an Ordinance enacted by the Governor of North Borneo with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, the short title of which is the Fugitive Offenders Ordinance, 1951, provision has been made that all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by the Governor under the Fugitive Offenders Acts, 1881 and 1915(a), in relation to the return of a fugitive may within the Colony be exercised and done by any Deputy of the Governor thereto authorized:

And Whereas it is provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within North Borneo as if it were part of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation on the day on which such Order in Council is published in the Government Gazette:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, direct that the North Borneo Fugitive Offenders Ordinance, 1951, shall without modification or alteration be recognised and given effect to throughout His Majesty's dominions and on the high seas as if it were part of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881.

This Order may be cited as the Fugitive Offenders (North Borneo) Order in Council, 1951, and shall come into operation on the 16th day of November, 1951.
