EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Gaming (Bingo) Act 1985 comes into force on 9th June 1986 (S.I. 1986/832). It alters the law relating to gaming to allow licensed bingo clubs in Great Britain to join together for the purpose of playing games of multiple bingo for maximum prizes of £50,000.

These Regulations make provision with respect to the management and conduct of games of multiple bingo. Regulation 2 provides that only one game of multiple bingo can be played in any licensed bingo club on any one day. Regulation 3 provides that the period allowed for the playing of a game of multiple bingo is to be 30 minutes.
