EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of these regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations prescribe six months as the period within which the stockholders' representative of a company to which Part II of the Gas Act, 1948, applies, and which has suffered loss of revenue from war causes, may make representations to the Minister of Fuel and Power for an increase in the value of securities of the company (other than debentures, debenture stock or mortgages) for the purpose of compensation under that Act.

The Gas (Security Values) (No. 1) Order, 1949

1949 No. 750

Made - - - -	14*th April*, 1949
Laid before Parliament	20*th April*, 1949
Coming into Operation	23*rd April*, 1949

The Minister of Fuel and Power in pursuance of the Second Schedule to the Gas Act, 1948,(a) hereby makes the following order :—

1. It is hereby declared that the value of each of the securities specified in the first column of the schedule to this order, being a security in respect of which compensation is payable under Part II of the Gas Act, 1948, has been determined under that part of that Act before the vesting date. The values which have been determined are those specified in relation to the securities in the second and third columns respectively of the said schedule.

2. This order shall come into operation on the twenty-third day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, and may be cited as the Gas (Security Values) (No. 1) Order, 1949.

Dated this fourteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Hugh Gaitskell,
Minister of Fuel and Power.
