(5) Where, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, a nomination of any candidate is, by virtue of paragraph (4)(ii) of this rule, invalid, the Returning Officer shall forthwith notify the candidate to that effect and within one week after the publication of the list of the duly nominated candidates under paragraph (9) of this rule the candidate may, either personally or by her agent, appointed in writing, notify in writing to the Returning Officer that she considers her nomination valid.

(6) If after further consideration of the contention disclosed in such notice, and after taking such legal advice as he thinks fit the Returning Officer is satisfied that the nomination paper was valid he shall cause the name of the candidate to be included in the list of duly nominated candidates.

(7) If after further consideration of the contention disclosed in the notice the Returning Officer is satisfied that the nomination was invalid he shall forthwith so certify. In that event he shall forward a copy of his certificate to the candidate for nomination, who may within 7 days of receiving such copy, appeal to the Secretary of State for Social Services and notify the Returning Officer accordingly.

(8) The Secretary of State shall consider any appeal made under sub-paragraph (7) hereof and the Returning Officer shall forthwith forward to the Secretary of State a copy of his certificate given under sub-paragraph (7) hereof together with any comments he wishes to make and the Secretary of State's decision as to whether the appellant was validly nominated shall be final. In the event of the Secretary of State deciding that the appellant was validly nominated and in the event that the election shall have taken place a fresh election in respect of that area or class shall take place.

(9) As soon as possible after the time fixed for the receipt of nomination papers has expired and notwithstanding any notifications under paragraph (5) of this rule the Returning Officer shall publish at the offices of the Council a list of the duly nominated candidates and on the same day shall send a copy of that list by registered post to each of them. Before 12 noon on the 7th day from the date of publication of the list, a candidate may withdraw from the poll by delivering by post or otherwise to the Returning Officer a written notice of withdrawal and on receipt thereof the Returning Officer shall expunge the name of such candidate from the list. No notice of withdrawal received after 12 noon on the 7th day from the date of publication of the list shall be valid.

(10) After the period for withdrawal has expired under paragraph (9) of this rule, should there be no valid nomination or insufficient valid nominations in respect of any area or class, the Returning Officer shall publish at the offices of the Council a list of the areas or classes for which there are no duly nominated candidates and the Returning Officer shall allow one further period, until noon on the 14th day after publication of that list, for the receipt of nomination papers in respect of such areas or classes.

(2) If the number of duly nominated candidates in respect of any one area does not exceed 1, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidate to be elected.

Ballot papers shall contain the names, addresses and requisite qualification or qualifications of all the persons who have been nominated and whose names have not been expunged from the list and shall state the last day on which ballot papers may be received, and the place to which they are to be returned. Ballot papers and identification envelopes shall be, as nearly as may be, in the forms marked D and E in the Appendix to this Scheme.

(4) The Returning Officer shall, 21 clear days at least before the last day fixed for the receipt of ballot papers, cause a ballot paper to be forwarded by post to each person qualified to vote in the election at her registered address, together with an identification envelope. Each elector shall be entitled to receive 1 ballot paper and 1 identification envelope and no more, and votes shall not be given except upon the ballot papers provided by the Returning Officer.

(5) Each elector shall mark the ballot paper delivered to her with a X against the name or names of the person or persons (not exceeding the number of persons to be elected), for whom she votes and shall not mark the ballot paper in any other way; she shall then place her ballot paper in the identification envelope, and securely fasten the same. The elector shall sign the declaration printed on the said envelope, place it inside a covering envelope, and send it by post or otherwise to the Returning Officer at the place named in the ballot paper as the place to which it is to be returned. Every ballot paper in respect of which any requirement of this Scheme has not been complied with, or which is not received by the Returning Officer before 12 noon on the last day fixed for the receipt of ballot papers, shall be invalid.

(6) The Returning Officer, immediately after the last day fixed for the receipt of ballot papers, shall cause the validity of the votes to be ascertained by an examination of the identification envelopes and by such other evidence, if any, as he may think necessary, and shall cause such of the identification envelopes as are found to be valid to be opened, and the ballot papers withdrawn, and placed in a ballot box. When all the ballot papers have been transferred to the ballot box they shall be examined and counted, and the number of valid votes given for each candidate shall be ascertained. Any candidate, or agent appointed by her in writing to represent her, may be present during the examination of the identification envelopes and the counting of the ballot papers and accordingly the Returning Officer shall notify each candidate of the time and place of the examination and counting.

(7) In each of the 15 areas, the candidate having the greatest number of votes shall be declared elected for that area by the Returning Officer. If an equality of votes is found to exist between any of the candidates, in any one of the areas and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the Returning Officer shall determine by lot which of the candidates whose votes are equal shall be declared elected.

7. The foregoing provisions with regard to the conduct of the election of registered general nurses shall apply with the necessary modifications to the election of registered mental nurses, registered nurses for the mentally subnormal, registered sick children's nurses, enrolled general nurses, enrolled mental nurses and enrolled nurses for the mentally subnormal.

Powers of Returning Officer

Subject to any decision given by the Secretary of State on an appeal made to him under rules 5 or 11 of these Rules any question arising with regard to the validity of a nomination or ballot paper, or otherwise in connection with any election held under this Scheme, shall be determined by the Returning Officer.

Notice of result of election

9. The Returning Officer shall forthwith give to every candidate whose name has not been expunged from the list written notice of the result of the election, and shall furnish the Council with a list of the persons certified by him to have been duly elected, showing the number of votes cast for each of such persons.

Secrecy of ballot

10. The Returning Officer, and every officer, clerk, or servant employed in connection with the election shall maintain, and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the ballot, and shall not communicate to any person any information as to the manner in which any elector has recorded her vote.

Validity of election

11.—(1) Any candidate unsuccessful at the poll may either personally or by her agent appointed in writing notify the Returning Officer within 14 days after the declaration of the result of the election that she contests the validity of that part of the election in respect of which she was unsuccessful on the grounds of non-compliance with the provisions of this Scheme, or of any misdescription or miscount, or of the non-delivery, loss or miscarriage of any document.

(2) If after consideration of the contention disclosed in the notice, the Returning Officer is satisfied in respect of that part that the election was conducted substantially in accordance with the provisions of this Scheme and that any non-compliance, misdescription, miscount, non-delivery, loss or miscarriage did not affect the result of that part of the election, he may, within 14 days of receiving such notice, so certify. In that event he shall forward a copy of his certificate to the unsuccessful candidate, who may within 7 days of receiving such copy, appeal to the Secretary of State for Social Services.

(3) Where the Returning Officer does not so certify, he shall not later than the 15th day after receiving the notice forward a copy thereof to the Secretary of State for Social Services together with such comments as he shall think fit.

(4) The Secretary of State shall consider any appeal made under paragraph (2) or any notice received under paragraph (3) of this rule and his decision as to whether the result of the relevant part of the election was affected by any non-compliance, misdescription, miscount, non-delivery, loss or miscarriage, shall be final. In the event of the Secretary of State deciding that the result of the relevant part of the election was so affected, a fresh election in respect of the seat in that part of the election shall take place.
