SCHEDULE

THE GENERAL NURSING COUNCIL FOR SCOTLAND RULES, 1948, dated 23rd January, 1948, made by the General Nursing Council for Scotland under Section 3 of the Nurses Registration (Scotland) Act, 1919 (9 and 10 Geo. 5. Ch. 95).

The General Nursing Council for Scotland in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 3 of the Nurses Registration (Scotland) Act, 1919, hereby make the following Rules:—

1.—(a) These Rules may be cited as the General Nursing Council for Scotland Rules, 1948, and shall come into operation on the 27th day of February, 1948.

(b) These Rules shall be read as one with the existing Rules made by the General Nursing Council for Scotland under section 3 of the Nurses Registration (Scotland) Act, 1919.

2. Any person being not less than twenty-one years of age who holds the certificate of the Royal Medico-Psychological Association and who desires to obtain admission to the supplementary part of the Register containing the names of mental nurses or to the supplementary part of the Register containing the names of nurses for mental defectives shall before the thirty-first day of March, 1952, or such later date as the Council may determine in any particular case, make application to the Registrar on the appropriate form to be obtained from the Council and shall comply with the following conditions:—

(a) the applicant shall exhibit to the Registrar the certificate of the Royal Medico-Psychological Association or such other evidence as the Council may require that she is the holder of such a certificate;

(b) the applicant shall exhibit to the Registrar an extract from the Register of Births of the entry of the applicant's birth and, if she is married or a widow, an extract from the Register of Marriages of the entry of the applicant's marriage;

(c) the applicant shall furnish the Registrar with the names and addresses of two persons willing and able to give evidence of her good character. One of such persons shall be a householder, not being a relative of the applicant, who has known her personally for not less than three years, and the other shall be a matron or chief male nurse of a hospital, a registered medical practitioner or other responsible person under whom the applicant has worked: provided that if at the date of her application the applicant is employed by any hospital, institution or infirmary the Council may dispense with any such evidence of good character.

(a) 6 & 7 Geo. 6. c. 33.

3. An applicant who complies with the foregoing Rules shall, upon payment to the Registrar of a fee of two guineas, be registered in the supplementary part of the Register containing the names of mental nurses or, as the case may be, in the supplementary part of the Register containing the names of nurses for mental defectives.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the General Nursing Council for Scotland this 23rd day of January, 1948.

(L.S.)

R. H. Pecker,
Registrar,
General Nursing Council for Scotland.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Instrument, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Rules of the General Nursing Council for Scotland which are approved by this Instrument provide for the admission of holders of the certificate of the Royal Medico-Psychological Association to the appropriate supplementary parts of the Council's register, without the period of training and the examinations which are normally required by the Council.
