CHAP. lxxiv.

An Act for extending the time limited for Compulsory Purchase of Lands by the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866; and for other purposes. [29th June 1871.]

A.D. 1871

WHEREAS by the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866, the Lord Provost, magistrates, and council of the city of Glasgow were empowered to make divers new streets and improvements, and to take lands for the purposes thereof: 29 & 30 Vict. c. lxxv.

And whereas that Act provided that their powers for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of that Act should not be exercised after the expiration of five years from the passing thereof:

And whereas it is expedient that the time limited as aforesaid be extended:

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short titles.

1. This Act may be cited as The Glasgow Improvements Act, 1871, and the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866, and this Act may be cited together as The Glasgow Improvements Acts, 1866 and 1871.

Effect of schedule, and interpretation of "deposited plans."

2. The schedule to this Act shall be deemed part thereof, and in that schedule the expression "the deposited plans" shall be taken to mean the plans deposited with the principal sheriff clerk of the county of Lanark for the purposes of the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866, and in that Act referred to as the deposited plans.

Extension of time for compulsory purchase.

3. The time limited by section 12 of the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866, for the compulsory purchase of property for the purposes of that Act is hereby extended as regards the lands described and the works specified in the schedule to this Act, so as to continue as regards those lands for a period of five years after the expiration of the period by that section limited.

Saving for title of Corporation, &c.

4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to take away or abridge any estate, title, interest, right, or power before the passing of this Act vested in the Lord Provost, magistrates, and council of the city of Glasgow by virtue of the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866, or otherwise.

Expenses of Act.

5. The costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act shall be paid by the Lord Provost, magistrates, and council of the city of Glasgow out of moneys belonging to them as trustees for executing and carrying into effect the provisions and purposes of the Glasgow Improvements Act, 1866.
