CHAPTER c.

An Act to extend the Municipal Boundaries of the City of Glasgow; and for other purposes. [17th June 1878.]

A.D. 1878.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend "the Municipal Boundaries of the city of Glasgow, to amend the "Acts relating to the Police and Statute Labour of the said city "and adjoining districts, and for other purposes in relation to "the municipality and police of the said city," the municipal boundaries and limits of the city of Glasgow were extended: 9 & 10 Vict. c. cclxxxix.

And whereas the city having since the passing of that Act greatly increased in extent and population, and spread beyond the boundaries and limits then fixed, the municipal boundaries of the city were further extended by the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872: 35 & 36 Vict. c. xli.

And whereas it is expedient that the municipal boundaries of the said city should be further extended, and the municipal franchises, rights, privileges, and immunities of the said city, and the powers and jurisdictions of the lord provost and magistrates, and of the magistrates and council, and of the burgh and dean of guild courts thereof, should be extended over the lands herein-after described, and the inhabitants of the same, and that the powers and provisions of various Acts relating to the said city should be in some respects amended and made applicable to the said extended burgh, and that there should be one municipal government therefor:

And whereas these purposes cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

to a point where the same is intersected by the boundary between the property feued by the trustees of the late William Dixon, Esquire, of Govanhill, to William Weir, and the property of the Incorporation of Hutcheson's Hospital; thence northward and north-eastward along the said boundary to a point where the same is intersected by a line parallel to and one hundred and five feet or thereabouts west of the central line of the statute labour road now called Langside Road; thence northward along the last-mentioned line to a point where the same is intersected by a line parallel to and one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts north of the central line of the street called Calder Street, sixty feet wide; thence eastward along the last-mentioned line to a point where the same is intersected by a line parallel to and one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts west of the central line of a street, sixty feet wide, agreed to be formed by the trustees of the late William Dixon, of Govanhill, and the Incorporation of Hutcheson's Hospital, conform to contract of excambion between them; thence northward along the last-mentioned line to the point first described.

Tithes, &c. not to be affected.

6. Nothing in this Act shall affect the tithes payable out of the lands situated within the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, or the rights, privileges, and emoluments of the ministers, kirk sessions, schoolmasters, and session clerks of the parishes within the same, or the parochial boards of said parishes.

Poors rates, &c. not to be affected.

7. As respects the settlement of the poor and their consequent right to claim relief, the power to impose rates or assessments for their relief, and the mode of laying on, levying, distributing, or managing the said poors rates or assessments, or any other matter relative thereto, the lands within the district added shall remain a part and portion of the parish of which they now form a part and portion respectively, and shall not be affected by any of the provisions of this Act, which in so far as the poor or the said poors rates or assessments are concerned shall be of no force or effect.

As to tenures of lands, &c.

8. Nothing in this Act shall alter or affect the holdings or tenure of any lands or heritages, or the records wherein the rights thereof or any deed or writing affecting the same may be registered.

Thirlage not to extend to district added.

9. No part of the district added nor any persons therein shall be subjected to any thirlage existing within the royalty of the city to which such district or persons were not subjected previous to the passing of this Act.

Qualification of electors.

10. The right of electing the town council in the city and royal burgh of Glasgow shall be in and belong to all such persons as have or shall have the qualifications specified and described in the third section of the Municipal Elections Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1868. 31 & 32 Vict. c. 108.

As to valuation roll.

11. The assessor for the burgh under the Acts in force for the time being for the valuation of lands and heritages in Scotland shall, at the same time as he makes up the valuation roll for the existing burgh for the year from Whitsunday one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight to Whitsunday one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, make up also a valuation roll for the district added; and the assessor for the city and royal burgh of Glasgow shall annually thereafter make up a valuation roll for the city and royal burgh of Glasgow; and the procedure and right of appeal and forms shall be such and the same as are provided by the said Acts in relation to the burgh; and for all municipal and other purposes, and for all assessments, the said rolls shall be deemed to be the valuation rolls under the said Acts, and all other Acts general or local, and the expense of making up such roll shall be paid out of the assessments authorised to be levied by the Corporation under the powers of the Valuation Acts and this Act: Provided, that so long as it shall be necessary to include the lands and heritages within the district added by this Act, and by the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872, in the county of Lanark, for the purposes of the County Voters Registration (Scotland) Act, 1861, or of any other Act which may be passed for similar purposes, the valuation roll for these districts respectively shall be made up in the same form as the valuation roll for the county of Lanark, and in virtue of the provisions of clause 7 of the County Voters Registration (Scotland) Act, 1861, such assessor shall be subject to the orders of the assessor or assessors of the county of Lanark, appointed under and acting in terms of the said County Voters Act, and shall take his instructions from such county assessor or assessors, and shall be bound to act on such instructions so far as consistent with the provisions of the said County Voters Act, and such burgh assessor shall also supply all necessary details and information to such assessor or assessors as will enable him or them to make up his or their lists of county voters for the district added, as well as for the district added under the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872. 35 & 36 Vict. c. xli. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 83. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 83. 35 & 36 Vict. c. xli.

As to register of voters.

12. In addition to the register of voters for members of Parliament made up for the burgh in terms of the Acts in force in Scotland for the registration of voters, and the list of voters made up for the burgh under the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872, the assessor for the burgh under these Acts shall on or before the fifteenth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred 35 & 36 Vict. c. xli.

and seventy-eight, and the assessor for the city and royal burgh of Glasgow shall on or before that day in every year thereafter, make out or cause to be made out according to the form in Schedule (A.) of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-eight, intituled "An Act to amend the law for the registration of persons entitled to vote in the election of members to serve in Parliament for burghs in Scotland," or as near thereto as may be, a list of all persons in the district added who may be entitled to vote in the election of councillors for the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, and the same procedure shall be followed in reference to such list as is provided by the said Act in reference to the preparation, publication, completion, and otherwise of the register of parliamentary voters for burghs in Scotland as amended by the Representation of the People (Scotland) Act, 1868, and on such list being completed and lodged with the town clerk, the town clerk shall sign the same, and the said register and list, and the list made up under the Glasgow Municipal Act, 1872, shall together form the list or roll of persons entitled to vote at the next ensuing election and all future elections of town councillors for the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, and the expenses of making up such lists shall be paid out of the assessments authorised to be levied by the Corporation under the powers of the Registration Acts and this Act: Provided always, that all appeals and other proceedings before the sheriff under those Acts shall be taken and had to and by the sheriff of Lanarkshire.

31 & 32 Vict. c. 48.

35 & 36 Vict. c. xli.

Jurisdiction of lord provost, magistrates, &c. extended, and certain other jurisdictions to cease.

13. The lord provost, magistrates, and councillors as such, and as the police commissioners, the water commissioners, the gas trustees, the improvement trustees, the markets commissioners, and the parks and galleries trustees, and the lord provost, magistrates, and dean of guild of the city and royal burgh of Glasgow respectively, and their respective courts, shall have, possess, and exercise the same jurisdictions, powers, rights, and authorities, and powers of assessment respectively over the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, and over the inhabitants thereof, as the lord provost, magistrates, and councillors as such, and as the police commissioners, the water commissioners, the gas trustees, the improvement trustees, the markets commissioners, and the parks and galleries trustees, and the lord provost, magistrates, and dean of guild of the burgh respectively, and their respective courts, now have, possess, and exercise, either within the royalty or within the burgh, and that whether at common law or by statute, including all powers of assessment, appeal, and otherwise, and all subordinate magistrates and jurisdictions shall from and after the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine cease and determine, saving and reserving always the existing authority and jurisdiction within the city and royal burgh of Glasgow of the justices of the peace of the county of Lanark, except in so far as the same are hereby altered or affected.

Lord provost and magistrates to continue in office.

14. The lord provost, magistrates, and councillors of the burgh, and the dean of guild of the burgh, and the deacon convener of the Trades' House of the city of Glasgow respectively in office at the date of the passing of this Act shall exercise similar duties and jurisdictions respectively within the city and royal burgh of Glasgow for the like periods and subject to the same conditions as, but for the passing of this Act, they would have been entitled to exercise in the existing burgh.

Statute labour abolished.

15. The powers of the statute labour road trustees for the parish of Govan with regard to levying, managing, and applying the statute labour, and the conversion thereof, shall not be exercised or applicable within the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, and the powers of the said trustees within the district added shall wholly cease and determine from the date of this Act coming into operation, excepting for the recovery of the statute labour conversion money, and any debts or penalties due or incurred or ordered to be levied and collected at and prior to the Act coming into operation, or the enforcement or fulfilment of any existing contract, obligation, or deed entered into or executed by or with the said trustees, or granted to them, all which shall continue valid and effectual, and shall be due, levied, and recovered by such ways and means and under such restrictions and regulations as are at present competent under the Acts regulating the same, and all decrees or warrants granted or that may be granted for recovering of such arrears, debts, and penalties, or the enforcement of such contract, obligation, or deed, shall remain valid and effectual.

Jurisdiction under 9 G. 4. c. 58., 16 & 17 Vict. c. 67., 25 & 26 Vict. c. 35., 39 & 40 Vict. c. 26., and 40 & 41 Vict. c. 3.

16. It shall be lawful for the magistrates of the city and royal burgh of Glasgow, and for them only, to grant and renew within the city and royal burgh of Glasgow certificates in terms of the public and general Acts following, (that is to say,) the Act ninth George the Fourth, chapter fifty-eight, the Act sixteenth and seventeenth Victoria, chapter sixty-seven, the Public Houses Acts Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1862, the Publicans' Certificates (Scotland) Act, 1876, and the Publicans' Certificates (Scotland) Act, 1876, Amendment Act, 1877, subject to the right of appeal provided by the said Acts in reference to the granting, renewing, or refusing or otherwise disposing of applications for such certificates under the said Acts, and all offences against such certificates or the provisions of said

A.D. 1878.

Acts shall be tried and dealt with under the provisions of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, as amended by this Act.

that the School Board of the said parish of Govan should be relieved of a part of the said borrowed sum: Be it therefore enacted, that the School Board of the burgh of Glasgow shall within three months from and after the passing of this Act become liable to pay to the Public Works Loan Commissioners and in exoneration of the School Board of the said parish of Govan a sum of nine hundred and fifty pounds payable with interest by the same instalments and in the same way as the said debt of fifty-two thousand pounds is payable.

Compensation to be made to Commissioners of Supply of the county of Lanark. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 83.

21. So long as it shall be necessary to include the lands and heritages within the district added in the county of Lanark for the purposes of the County Voters Registration (Scotland) Act, 1861, or of any other Act which may be passed for similar purposes, the Corporation shall pay to the Commissioners of Supply for the county of Lanark annually, beginning the first annual payment at the term of Whitsunday one thousand eight hundred and eighty, such proportion of the total expenses annually incurred by the said Commissioners under the said Act for the Lower Ward of the county of Lanark as the number of voters in the district added bears to the total number of voters in the district of North Lanarkshire, and the Corporation shall charge the said annual payments upon the assessments leviable for the purpose of registration of voters in Glasgow under the Act 19 and 20 Victoria, cap. 58, intituled "An Act to amend the law for the registration of persons entitled to vote in the election of members to serve in Parliament for burghs in Scotland," and Acts amending the same; and in the event of the said sum not being paid at the time when the same becomes due as herein-before provided, the Corporation shall farther pay to the said Commissioners interest thereon at the rate of five pounds per centum per annum till payment thereof, and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Supply to levy any assessment under the County Voters Registration (Scotland) Act, 1861, upon any lands and heritages within the district added in respect of any period after Whitsunday one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

24 & 25 Vict. c. 83.

Further provisions as to compensation to Commissioners of Supply of the county of Lanark.

22. And whereas the Commissioners of Supply of the county of Lanark have contributed certain sums towards the cost of enlarging and improving the prison of Glasgow, and incurred for that purpose a debt charged on the Lower Ward of the said county, the balance of which is six thousand two hundred and four pounds, and the said Commissioners have also expended certain sums in erecting police stations within the said Lower Ward, and incurred for that purpose a debt charged on that ward, the balance of which

A.D. 1878.

(Scotland) Act, 1862, Order Confirmation (Glasgow) Act, 1877, shall at the said term pay to the said Commissioners the said sums of nine pounds and ninepence three farthings and thirty-four pounds eight shillings, and in the event of any of the sums payable as aforesaid to the said Commissioners of Supply not being paid at the time when it becomes due as herein-before provided, the Corporation or the magistrates and council acting in the execution of the Police and Prisons Acts aforesaid (as the case may be), by whom such sum is so payable, shall further pay to the said Commissioners interest thereon at the rate of five pounds per centum per annum till payment thereof, and the Corporation and the magistrates and council acting in the execution of the Glasgow Police and Prisons Acts aforesaid respectively shall charge such respective payments upon the assessments herein-before prescribed in relation thereto respectively.

As to alteration of wards.

23. Whereas the district proposed to be annexed belongs in property almost entirely to the Corporation and to the patrons of the Royal Incorporation of Hutcheson's Hospital, and it is expedient that the same should be added to and form portion of the wards of the city immediately adjoining the same: Be it therefore enacted, that as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act the district added shall, by the lord provost, magistrates, and council of the said city, be added to and incorporated with the wards of the city immediately adjoining thereto, in such proportions as the lord provost, magistrates, and council shall determine, and the said lord provost, magistrates, and council shall cause the proposed division to be delineated upon a plan, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons concerned for the space of fourteen days, and notice shall be given previously to the first of the said fourteen days in one or more newspapers published within the city of Glasgow of the place where such plan is to be seen, and upon a day after the expiry of the said fourteen days, to be specified in the said notice, the said lord provost, magistrates, and council, or any committee of their number to be nominated by them for that purpose, shall hear all concerned for their interests, and thereupon the said proposed division shall be finally adjusted by the said lord provost, magistrates, and council, and the said proposed division being so adjusted and authenticated by the signatures of the lord provost and town clerk shall be published once at least in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in some one of the newspapers published within the city of Glasgow, and such adjusted and authenticated new boundaries of the wards shall thereafter take effect, and shall be substituted for the existing boundaries of the said wards in making up the roll of municipal electors for the burgh.

Power to Corporation and municipal trust to borrow from each other.

24. The Corporation as such, and as police commissioners, water commissioners, gas trustees, improvement trustees, markets commissioners, and parks and galleries trustees, or any one or more of them, may (but so as not in any case to borrow more than the sums of money they are respectively authorised to borrow) from time to time borrow from and lend to each other such sums of money, for such times, in such manner, and on such terms and conditions as they respectively mutually agree.

Expenses of Act.

25. The costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to, and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act shall be paid equally, one half by the Corporation as such, and as water commissioners, gas trustees, improvement trustees, markets commissioners, and parks and galleries trustees, and one half as police commissioners.
