ANNO QUARTO & QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. xlix.

An Act for maintaining Gourdon Harbour in the County of Kincardine. [21st June 1841.]

WHEREAS James Farquhar of Hallgreen in the County of Kincardine in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland is Heritable Proprietor of the Village of Gourdon, in the Parish of Bervie in the County of Kincardine aforesaid, and of the Harbour, Ship Station, and Moorings of Gourdon, commonly called or known by the Name of Gourdon Harbour, and the Shore thereof, and the Pier and Breakwater therein or thereupon, and is also entitled to the exclusive Right and Privilege to demand and receive and exact the whole Duties, Customs, Anchorages, Emoluments, and Casualties of whatsoever Nature, and Rights and Privileges belonging to the same, or which are known to belong to any free Port and Harbour in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland: And whereas it would be of great Advantage to the Public, and especially to those using the said Harbour, if the same were to be improved by deepening and enlarging the Entrances and Approaches thereto, and by extending the said Pier and the existing Breakwater: And whereas the said James Farquhar is willing to make and maintain the aforesaid Improvements at his own Expence: And whereas, in consideration of the Expence which the said James Farquhar will incur in making and maintaining the aforesaid Improvements, it is reasonable that the said James Farquhar, and his Heirs and Successors, should receive the Tolls, Rates, and Dues herein-after mentioned or referred to: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, in consideration of the Expence which the said James Farquhar will incur in executing and maintaining the aforesaid Works and Improvements, it shall and may be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, and his or their Collectors, Receivers, or Lessees, or such Person as the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, shall appoint for that Purpose, from Time to Time, and at all Times after the Sum of Two thousand Pounds shall have been expended on the said Harbour, to demand and receive, instead of the Rates now payable to him and them for every Vessel which shall enter within the said Harbour, any Sum not exceeding the several Rates specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed.

Power to levy Rates on Vessels.

II. And be it enacted, That a Certificate under the Hand of Two Justices of the Peace for the County of Kincardine shall be conclusive Evidence of the Sum of Two thousand Pounds having been expended on the Works of the said Harbour, and any such Justices shall sign such Certificate on proper Proof being adduced to them respectively that such Sum has been expended.

Certificate to be Evidence of Expenditure.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Vessel, for which the Rates herein-before mentioned and authorized to be taken shall have been paid, shall, after leaving the said Harbour, be obliged from Stress of Weather or other Cause to return with the same Cargo, the Rates so paid shall not again be payable in respect of such Vessel.

Exemption for Vessels returning from Stress of Weather, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Tonnage of every British Vessel liable to the Payment of any Tonnage Rate under this Act, and duly registered according to Law, shall be ascertained according to the certified Tonnage in the Register; and the Tonnage of all other Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Rule of Admeasurement established by an Act of Parliament passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Admeasurement of the Tonnage and Burden of the Merchant Shipping of the United Kingdom, or any Law for the Time being regulating such Admeasurement.

For ascertaining the Tonnage of Vessels.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 56.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful, at all Times after the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds shall have been expended on the said Harbour as aforesaid, for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, or such Persons as he or they shall appoint for the Purpose, to demand and receive, for all Goods, Articles, or Things in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, which shall be shipped or unshipped, received or delivered within the said Harbour, any Sum not exceeding the several Rates in the said Schedule specified.

Rates on Goods shipped and unshipped within the Harbour.

Rates for the Use of Cranes and Weighing Machines.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, or such Persons as he or they shall appoint for that Purpose, to demand and take, for the Use of any Cranes and Weighing Machines erected by him or them, of and from the Owner or Person having the Charge of any Goods, Articles, or Things loaded or unloaded, weighed or measured by means of the same, such reasonable Rates as the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, shall from Time to Time appoint.

Lords of the Treasury may reduce Rates on the Foreign Vessels.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by an Order in Council, or for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, by any Order in Writing, from Time to Time to reduce any of the Rates hereby made payable on Foreign Vessels or Goods to the same Rates as shall be payable in respect of British Vessels or Goods.

Rates to be charged equally.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Rates authorized to be taken by this Act shall at all Times be charged equally and after the same Rate in respect of the same Description of Vessels and Goods.

Master of Vessel to produce Certificate of Registry.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Master of every registered Vessel shall, on Demand, produce the Certificate of the Registry of such Vessel to any Person authorized by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to collect the Rates in respect of such Vessel; and if any such Master shall refuse or neglect to produce such Certificate to any such Person on Demand, he shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Recovery of Rates by Distress on Ship and Tackle.

X. And be it enacted, That if the Master of any Vessel in respect of which any Rates shall be payable to the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same, then it shall be lawful for the Person appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to collect such Rates, to go on board of such Vessel and demand such Rates, and on Nonpayment thereof, or any Part thereof, to seize, take, and detain, preferably to and notwithstanding of any Attachment, Arrestment, or other Right whatsoever claimable by or due to any other Person or Persons, such Vessel, and all the Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture belonging thereto, or any Part thereof, until the Rates shall be satisfied or paid; and in case any of the said Rates shall remain unpaid for the Space of Seven Days next after such taking, seizing, and detaining as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said Collector to cause the same to be appraised by Two or more sufficient Persons, and afterwards to sell the same, either by public Roup or private Sale, and out of the Proceeds of such Sale to satisfy the Rates so unpaid, and all the Expences of taking, detaining, appraising, and selling as aforesaid, the said Person so appointed as aforesaid rendering the Overplus, if any, to the Master of such Vessel, upon Demand; or it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to recover such Rates by Action in common Form.

XI. And

Masters of Vessels to give Account of Goods intended to be unshipped within the Harbour.

XI. And be it enacted, That when the Cargo of any Vessel arriving within the said Harbour, or any Part of such Cargo, shall be intended to be unshipped within the said Harbour, the Master of such Vessel shall, within Twelve Hours after the Arrival of such Vessel within the said Harbour, deliver to the Person for the Time being appointed to collect the Rates mentioned in the Schedule (B.) the following Particulars; that is to say,

The Name of the Consignee of the Cargo or Part of the Cargo of such Vessel intended to be unshipped within the said Harbour;

And if the whole Cargo of such Vessel shall be intended to be unshipped within the said Harbour, a Copy of the Bill of Lading or Manifest of the Cargo of such Vessel;

Or if Part only of the Cargo of such Vessel is intended to be so unshipped, a true Account in Writing of the Kinds, Weights, and Quantities of the several Goods, Articles, and Things intended to be so unshipped;

And every such Master shall, if required by the Person appointed to collect the Rates aforesaid, give to such Person Twelve Hours Notice of the Time at which the Cargo of such Vessel or any Part of the same is intended to be unshipped.

Penalty on Masters for Default.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Master of any Vessel, the Cargo or Part of the Cargo of which is intended to be unshipped within the said Harbour, who shall fail to deliver or give any of the Particulars or the Notice herein-before required to be delivered or given by such Master, or shall deliver or give any false Particular or Notice, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Master of Vessel to give an Account of Goods intended to be shipped.

Penalty for Default.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Master of any Vessel within the said Harbour, on board of which any Goods, Articles, or Things shall be shipped, shall give to the Person for the Time being appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, to collect the last-mentioned Rates, a true Account, signed by the Consignor, of the Kinds, Quantities, and Weights of such Goods, Articles, or Things before the same shall be shipped in such Vessel; and any Master who shall fail to give such Account, or shall give a false Account, and any Consignee who shall give a false Account of any such Goods, Articles, or Things, shall respectively for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

In case of Dispute Goods to be weighed or measured.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any Difference shall arise between the Person for the Time being appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, to collect the last-mentioned Rates, and the Master of any Vessel, or the Owner, Consignor, or Consignee of any Goods, concerning the Weight or Quantities of any Goods, Articles, or Things in respect of which any Rates are payable by this Act, it shall be lawful for such Collector to cause all such Goods, Articles, or Things to be weighed or measured, as the Case may require, and, if necessary, to detail the Vessel in which such Goods, Articles, or Things may be until the same shall have been weighed or measured.

Expences of weighing and measuring.

XV. And be it enacted, That if the Goods, Articles, or Things so weighed or measured shall be of greater Weight or Measure (shall be be of greater Weight or Measure) than shown from the Manifest, Account, or Statement delivered or made by the Master of the Vessel in which the same may be, or by the Owner, Consignor, or Consignee thereof, the Expences of such weighing or measuring shall be borne by the said Master, Owner, Consignor, or Consignee, and shall be recoverable by the same Means as herein provided for the Recovery of Rates due in respect of such Goods, Articles, and Things; but if such Goods, Articles, and Things shall be of the same or less Weight or Quantity than shown by the Manifest, Account, or Statement so delivered or made as aforesaid, the Expences of such weighing or measuring shall be borne by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors.

Rates on Goods by whom and when payable.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Rates payable to the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, in respect of any Goods, Articles, or Things shipped or unshipped within the said Harbour, shall be paid as follows; that is to say, if such Goods, Articles, or Things shall be shipped, such Rates shall be paid by the Owner or Consignor of such Goods, Articles, or Things previous to the Shipment of the same; or if such Goods, Articles, or Things shall be unshipped, such Rates shall be paid by the Owner or Consignee of such Goods, Articles, or Things previous to the Removal thereof from the said Harbour.

Recovery of Rates on Goods.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if Default be made in the Payment of any Rates payable under this Act in respect of any Goods, Articles, or Things, it shall be lawful for the Person for the Time being appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to collect such Rates or Dues, to seize, take, and detain, preferably to and notwithstanding of any Attachment, Arrestment, or other Right whatsoever claimable by or due to any other Person or Persons, such Goods, Articles, or Things; or if the same shall be removed without the Limits of the Harbour or other Premises of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to seize, take, and detain any other Goods, Articles, or Things within the Limits of the Harbour or other Premises of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, belonging to the Person liable to pay such Rates, until such Rates shall be satisfied or paid; and in case any of the said Rates shall remain unpaid for the Space of Seven Days next after such taking, seizing, and detaining as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said Collector to cause the same to be appraised by Two or more sufficient Persons, and afterwards to sell the same, either by public Roup or private Bargain, and out of the Proceeds of such Sale to satisfy and pay the Rates due to the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, or it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, to recover such Rates by Action in common Form; provided that the Person collecting any such Rates shall, before carrying through any such Sale as aforesaid, pay all Duties which may be payable to Her Majesty in respect of the Goods, Articles, or Things so taken, seized, and detained, and he shall be entitled to retain the Amount of Duties so paid out of the first and readiest of the Proceeds arising from such Sale.

Collector may enter and examine Vessels.

XVIII. And to the end that the Rates by this Act imposed may be effectually levied, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person

Person appointed to collect any such Rates to enter, either alone or with any other Persons, into any Vessel within the said Harbour, and to examine such Vessel, and ascertain the Goods, Articles, or Things therein, and the Rates payable in respect of such Vessel, or of such Goods, Articles, or Things.

Penalty on evading Payment of Rates.

XIX. And be it enacted, That if the Master of any Vessel shall evade the Payment of any Rates payable to the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, he shall pay to him or them Three Times the Amount of such Rates, and the same shall be recovered from such Master in the same Manner as Penalties imposed by this Act are directed to be recovered, or by Action in common Form.

Collector of Customs may withhold a Discharge to any Vessel until Rates are paid.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Collector or other proper Officer of Her Majesty's Customs at or for the said Harbour, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, to refuse to receive any Entry, or give any Cocket, Discharge, or Clearance, or to take any Report inwards or outwards for any Vessel liable to the Rates imposed by this Act, until the Master of such Vessel shall produce to such Collector or Officer a Certificate under the Hand of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, or the Person for the Time being appointed by him or them to collect such Rates, that the Rates payable under this Act in respect of such Vessel, or of any Goods, Articles, or Things imported or exported, have been paid.

Disputes concerning Rates and Seizure to be settled by a Justice.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise concerning the Amount of any Rates, or the Charges occasioned by any Seizure or Sale to be made by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Person seizing or selling to detain the Vessel, Goods, Articles, or Things seized, or the Proceeds of the Sale thereof, until the Amount of the Rates due, or the Charges of such Seizure or Sale (as the Case may be), shall be ascertained by the Sheriff of the County of Kincardine, or by any Justice of the Peace for the said County, who, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, shall summarily determine the Amount of the Rates or Dues or Charges aforesaid, and award such Costs to be paid by either of the Parties to the other of them as he shall think reasonable; and such Costs, if not paid on Demand, shall be levied by Poinding, and the said Sheriff or any Justice of the said County shall issue his Warrant accordingly.

List of Rates to be set up.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, shall from Time to Time cause to be painted on a Board, in large and legible Characters, and affixed in some conspicuous Place in or near the said Harbour, a List of the several Rates which shall be from Time to Time payable as aforesaid, and no Rates shall be payable in respect of the said Harbour during such Time as such List shall not continue so affixed, or for any Matter or Thing not specified in such List: Provided always, that if any such List shall be destroyed, injured, or obliterated, the Rates shall continue to be payable during such Time as may be reasonably required for the Restoration or Reparation of such List, in the same Manner as if such List had continued affixed and in the State required by this Act.

Power to license Pilots.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, and his Heirs and Successors, and he and they are hereby authorized to license, appoint, and regulate such Number of Persons, duly qualified, as he or they shall think fit, to act as Pilots for the said Harbour, and to fix reasonable Rates of Pilotage to be paid to the said Pilots, and to remove and displace such Pilots at Pleasure; but no Person shall be appointed to act as such Pilot unless he shall have been at least Three Years regularly engaged as a Fisherman or Sailor at or frequenting the said Harbour, or any other Harbour in the Counties of Kincardine, Aberdeen, or Forfar in North Britain; and if any Person shall act as a Pilot within the Limits of the said Harbour without being licensed and appointed as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for each Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds Sterling: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or interfere with the Provisions of any general Act to be hereafter passed for regulating Pilots or Pilotage in Scotland.

Power to appoint Meters and Weighers.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, and his Heirs and Successors, and he and they are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint and regulate a sufficient Number of Persons to be Meters and Weighers of Grain, Lime, and Coals imported into the said Harbour, and to fix the Rates to be paid to the said Meters and Weighers, and to remove and displace them at Pleasure; and if any Person, not being a Meter or Weigher appointed by the Commissioners of Customs, shall act as a Meter or Weigher at the said Harbour without being licensed and appointed as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for each Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds Sterling; and the Measurements of an unlicensed Meter or Weigher, not being a Meter or Weigher appointed by the Commissioners of Customs, shall be deemed illegal; but it shall not be imperative on Importers of Grain, Lime, or Coals to employ Meters or Weighers where the Grain, Lime, or Coals are to be delivered from the Vessels without being measured or weighed.

Additional Rates for Articles remaining above a certain Time on the Quays.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any Goods, Articles, or Things whatsoever shall remain on any Part of the Pier or Quays of the said Harbour for a longer Period than Twenty-four Hours from the Time when the same shall have been placed thereupon, then it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, and his Heirs and Successors, and their Lessees, or for the Persons appointed by them, to levy a Sum not exceeding the Amount of the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed on the said Goods, Articles, and Things, and that over and above the said Rates and Duties; and it shall be lawful to exact the said additional Rates and Duties for each and every successive Period of Twenty-four Hours during which the said Goods, Articles, and Things shall remain on the said Pier or Quays.

XXVI. And

Power to remove Articles.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the said James Farquhar, or his Heirs or Successors, or any Person employed or authorized by them in virtue of this Act, shall have Power, if they shall see Cause, to remove or cause to be removed all such Goods, Articles, or Things as shall be allowed to remain on the said Piers or Quays; and all Horses and Live Stock shall be immediately removed, and be carried to any Warehouse, Yard, or other Place of Safety, and be detained and kept till Payment of the Charges incurred by such Removal, keeping, and Detention, together with the Rates and Duties hereinbefore authorized to be levied on the same as aforesaid.

Powers of Harbour Masters.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time to appoint a Harbour Master, if the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, shall think it necessary, and at Pleasure to remove any such Harbour Master; and it shall be lawful for the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, or for the Harbour Master for the Time being to be appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, to give Directions for all or any of the following Purposes; (that is to say,)

For regulating the Time and Manner in which any Vessel shall enter into, go out of, or lie in the said Harbour, and the Position, mooring or unmooring, placing, and removing of any Vessel within the same:

For regulating the Manner in which any Vessel shall take in or discharge its Cargo, or any Part thereof, or shall take in or deliver Ballast within the said Harbour:

For regulating the Government of any Vessel within the said Harbour.

Penalty for exercising Powers unreasonably.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Harbour Master appointed by the said James Farquhar, or his foresaids, shall, without reasonable Cause, exercise any of the Powers or Authorities vested in him by this Act, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on not complying with Directions of the Harbour Master.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the Master of every Vessel within the said Harbour shall regulate such Vessel according to the Directions of the Harbour Master for the Time being, made in conformity with this Act; and the Master of any Vessel who, after Notice in Writing, signed by the said Harbour Master, of any such Direction, served upon him, who shall not forthwith regulate such Vessel according to such Direction, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Power of Harbour Master to remove Vessels.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if the Master of any Vessel within the said Harbour shall not moor, unmoor, place, or remove such Vessel according to the Directions of the said Harbour Master for the Time being in Writing given to the said Master, it shall be lawful for any such Harbour Master to cause such Vessel to be moored, unmoored, placed, or removed according to the Directions aforesaid, and to employ a sufficient Number of Persons for that Purpose;

Purpose; and the Expences attending such mooring, unmooring, placing, or Removal shall be paid by such Master, and shall, together with the Costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered from any such Master in the same Manner as any Damages, for the ascertaining and recovering of which no special Provision is contained in this Act are hereby directed to be ascertained and recovered.

Penalty on Master or Commander for obstructing Harbour Master.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if the Master of any Vessel within the said Harbour, or any Person on board the same, shall obstruct or hinder the said Harbour Master, or any Person employed by him, in mooring, unmooring, placing, or removing such Vessel in manner aforesaid, such Master or other Person shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Harbour Master may cut Ropes.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if the Master or other Person on board of any Vessel which shall be moored or fastened within the said Harbour shall not, upon Demand of the said Harbour Master, unloose or slacken the Rope or Chain by which such Vessel shall be moored or fastened, or if there shall be no Person on board of any such Vessel so moored or fastened, it shall be lawful for the said Harbour Master to cut the Rope or slacken the Chain by which such Vessel shall be so moored or fastened as aforesaid: Provided always, that before the Harbour Master shall cut any Rope or slacken any Chain by which any Vessel without any Person on board shall be moored or fastened, he shall cause a sufficient Number of Persons for the Protection of the same to be put on board such Vessel, and all Expences thereby incurred shall be paid by the Master of such Vessel.

Harbour Master may remove Wrecks, &c.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Harbour Master for the Time being to remove any Wreck or other Obstruction to the said Harbour, and also any floating Timber which may impede the Navigation thereof; and the Expence of removing any such Wreck, Obstruction, or floating Timber shall be repaid by the Owner of the same.

Combustible Matter on Quays, &c. to be removed

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Tar, Pitch, Resin, Spirituous Liquors, Turpentine, Oil, or combustible Thing, being on any Quay, Dock, or Wharf, or other Premises connected with the said Harbour, or on the Deck of any Vessel within the said Harbour, shall not be removed to a Place of Safety, within Two Hours after Notice in Writing signed by the said Harbour Master for the Time being shall have been served on the Owner or Person having charge of the same, every such Owner or Person shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Hour such combustible Thing shall remain in any such Place as aforesaid after the Expiration of Two Hours from the Service of the said Notice.

Penalties for certain Offences.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall commit any of the following Offences shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds; (that is to say,)

1. Every Person who shall boil any Pitch, Tar, Resin, Turpentine, Oil, or other combustible Matter in any Vessel lying in the said Harbour,

Harbour, or in any Place within the said Harbour, except in such Place and in such Manner as shall be specially appointed by the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, for that Purpose.

2. Every Person who shall have or cause to be had any Fire or lighted Candle or Lamp in any Vessel within the said Harbour, except with the Permission of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors.
3. Every Person who shall bring any loaded Gun on the Piers, Quays, or Works of the said Harbour, or shall leave or suffer to remain any loaded Gun in any Vessel in the said Harbour.
4. Every Person who shall, without the Permission of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, bring or suffer to remain any Gunpowder on the Quays, Piers, or Works of the said Harbour, or in any Vessel within the said Harbour.

Penalty for throwing Ballast, &c. into the Harbour, or other Injury.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall throw or put any Ballast, Earth, Dust, Ashes, Stones, or other Thing into the said Harbour, or into or upon any of the said Works, to the Injury or Prejudice thereof, or do any other Injury to the same, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalty for cutting Ropes.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any Person, other than the Harbour Master in execution of the Powers of this Act, shall wilfully cut, break, or destroy any Rope or other Thing by which any Vessel lying in the said Harbour shall be moored or fastened, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Remedies for Damage to Harbour, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That every Master, Pilot, or other Person having the Charge of any Vessel or Float of Timber through whose wilful Act or Negligence any Damage shall be done to the said Harbour, or to the Piers, Quays, Wharfs, Machinery, or other Works or Property of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, by means of such Vessel or Float of Timber, shall pay for and repair all such Damage; and all such Damage, if the Amount claimed does not exceed Twenty Pounds, shall be ascertained and recovered in the same Manner as any Damages, for the Recovery of which no special Provision is contained in this Act, are hereby directed to be recovered; and in addition to the Remedies hereby provided for the Recovery of the same, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Justice before whom the same is recovered to cause the Vessel or Float of Timber causing such Damage, and any Tackle and Furniture thereof, to be seized and detained until the Amount of Damage and Costs awarded by him shall be paid; and if the same shall not be paid within Seven Days after the Seizure, to cause the Property so seized, or any Part thereof, to be sold, and out of the Proceeds of such Sale to pay the Amount of Damage and Costs awarded by such Sheriff or Justice, and all the Charges incurred by the Seizure, Detention, and Sale of such Property.

Owner or Master of Vessel answerable for Servants.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Owner or Master of every Vessel or Float of Timber shall be answerable to the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors, for any Damage done by such Vessel or Float of Timber, or any Person employed about the same, to the said Harbour, or any Quays, Piers, Wharfs, Machinery, or other other Works or Property of the said James Farquhar, his Heirs and Successors; and all such Damage, in case the Amount claimed in respect thereof shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, shall be ascertained and recovered in the same Manner as any Damages, for the ascertaining or Recovery of which no special Provision is herein contained, are hereby directed to be ascertained and recovered; and it shall be lawful for the Harbour Master for the Time being to detain any such Vessel or Float of Timber until sufficient Security shall have been given for the Amount of the Damage done by the same, or by any Persons employed therein.

Masters may recover from Servants.

XL. And be it enacted, That if the Owner or Master of any Vessel shall make Satisfaction for any such Damage as aforesaid done by any Person employed in such Vessel, the Person doing such Damage shall repay to the said Owner or Master the Amount of the Damage so paid, together with the Costs, if any, incurred by him in respect of such Damage; and the Amount of such Damage, together with the Costs, shall, if such Damage does not exceed Twenty Pounds, be ascertained by and recovered before any Justice of Peace, or before the Sheriff of the County of Kincardine, or other Judge Ordinary.

Respecting Damages not otherwise provided for.

XLI. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Compensation, Damages, or Expences are by this Act directed or authorized to be paid, and the Method of ascertaining the Amount thereof is not provided for, such Amount, in case of Nonpayment thereof, or of any Dispute respecting the same, shall be ascertained and determined by any Justice of the Peace for the County of Kincardine, or by the Sheriff of the said County, or other Judge Ordinary; and when by this Act any Damages or Charges are directed to be paid in addition to the Penalty for any Offence, the Amount of such Damages and Charges, in case of Nonpayment thereof or of any Dispute concerning the same, shall be determined by the Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary by whom the Offender shall be convicted of such Offence, and on Nonpayment of the Damages or Charges in any of the Cases aforesaid, on Demand, the same shall be levied by Arrestment or Poinding and Sale, and such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall issue his Warrant accordingly.

Judge to examine Parties and Witnesses.

XLII. And be it enacted, That where in this Act any Question as to Damages or Charges is referred to the Determination of any Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, it shall be lawful for such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary to summon any Person to appear before him to testify the Truth in any such Matter, and to examine the Parties to such Question, and their Witnesses, on Oath, and to administer the Oaths necessary for that Purpose; and the Costs of every such Inquiry shall be in the Discretion of such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary; and if either Party to any such Question fail to appear at the Time and Place appointed by the Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary for going into any such Question, without reasonable Excuse to the Satisfaction of such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, due Notice of such Appointment having been given to such defaulting Party, it shall be lawful lawful for such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary to proceed ex parte.

Publication of Penalties.

XLIII. And for the Purpose of providing for the due Publication of all Penalties exigible under this Act, be it enacted, That from Time to Time the said James Farquhar, and his foresaids, shall publish the short Particulars of the several Offences for which any such Penalty is imposed by this Act, and of the Amount of every such Penalty, and shall cause such Particulars to be painted on a Board, or printed upon Paper and pasted thereon, and shall cause such Board to be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous Part within or adjacent to the said Harbour; and such Particulars shall be renewed as often as the same or any Part thereof are obliterated or destroyed; and no such Penalty shall be recoverable unless it shall have been published and kept published in the Manner herein-before required.

Defacing Boards.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if any Person pull down or break or deface any Board put up or affixed as required by this Act for the Purpose of publishing any Rate or Penalty, or shall obliterate any of the Letters or Figures thereon, he shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and he shall also defray the Expences attending the Restoration of such Board; and such Expences shall be recoverable as any Penalty by this Act imposed may be recovered.

Penalties may be summarily recovered.

XLV. And for the Purposes of providing for the Recovery of Penalties imposed by this Act the Recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, be it enacted, That every such Penalty may be recovered by summary Proceeding, upon Complaint made before any Justice of Peace for the said County, or the Sheriff of the said County, or other Judge Ordinary; and on the Complaint being made to any such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary he shall issue a Summons or Order requiring the Party complained against to appear on a Day and at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons or Order, and every such Summons or Order shall be served upon the Party complained against either in Person or by leaving the same with some Inmate at his usual Place of Abode; and either upon the Appearance or upon the Default to appear of the Party complained against, it shall be lawful for any Justice, or for the said Sheriff or other Judge Ordinary, to proceed to the Hearing of the Complaint, and that although no Information in Writing or in Print shall have been exhibited before them; and upon Proof of the Offence, either by the Confession of the Party complained against, or upon the Oath of One credible Witness, or other competent Evidence, it shall be lawful for any such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary to convict the Party complained against, and upon such Conviction to adjudge the Offender to pay the Penalty incurred, as well as such Costs attending the Conviction as such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall think fit.

Penalties to be levied by Arrestment or Poinding.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That if, forthwith upon any such Adjudication as aforesaid, the Amount of the Penalty and of such Costs as aforesaid be not paid, the Amount of such Penalty and Costs, together with the Costs of the Diligence, shall be levied by Arrestment or Poinding, and any such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall issue their Warrant accordingly.

Imprisonment in default of Arrestment or Poinding.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary to order any Party complained against, so convicted as aforesaid, to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to the Warrant of Arrestment or Poinding and Sale, if any, to be issued for levying such Penalty and Costs, unless the Offender find sufficient Caution, or give other sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of the said Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, for his Appearance before him on the Day appointed for such Return, such Day not being more than Eight Days from the Time of taking such Security; but if before issuing such Warrant of Arrestment or Poinding and Sale it shall appear to the Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, by the Admission of the Offender or otherwise, that no sufficient Arrestment or Poinding can be had whereon to levy such Penalty and Costs, such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary may, if he think fit, refrain from issuing such Warrant of Arrestment or Poinding and Sale, and in such Case, or if such Warrant shall have been issued, and upon the Return thereof such Insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, then such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall, by Warrant, cause such Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, for any Term not exceeding Three Months, unless such Penalty and Costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

Application of Penalties.

XLVIII. And with respect to the Application of any Penalties recovered by virtue of this Act, be it enacted, That the Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary by whom any such Penalty shall be imposed shall award One Half thereof to the said James Farquhar, and his Heirs and Successors, and the other Half to the Kirk Session of the Parish of Bervie, for the Benefit of the Poor of the said Parish.

Penalties to be sued for within Six Months.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be liable to the Payment of any Penalty imposed by virtue of this Act for any Offence herein-before made cognizable, unless the Complaint respecting such Offence shall have been made as aforesaid within Six Months next after the Commission of such Offence.

Penalty on Witnesses making Default.

L. And be it enacted, That if any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness before any Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary, touching any Offence committed against this Act, or any other Matter over which such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall have Jurisdiction by the Provisions of this Act, shall, without reasonable Excuse, refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable Sum for his Expences, or if any Person appearing shall refuse to be examined upon Oath, or to give Evidence, before such Justice, Sheriff, or Judge Ordinary, every such Person shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence.

Transient Offenders.

LI. And with respect to Offenders whose Names and Residences are not known, be it enacted, That any Officer or Agent or Servant of the said James Farquhar or his foresaids, and all Persons called by him or them to his or their Assistance, may seize and detain any Person who shall have committed any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, and whose Name and Residence shall be unknown to such Officer, Agent, or Servant, and may convey him with all convenient Despatch before any Justice or before the said Sheriff or other Judge Ordinary, without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act, and such Justice, Sheriff, or other Judge Ordinary shall proceed with all convenient Despatch to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Sheriffs may proceed under Small Debts Act.

LII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall render it incompetent for the Sheriff to hear and determine any Civil Causes or Prosecutions for Rates, Penalties, Damages, or Charges on account of any of the Matters herein-before enacted, according to the Provisions of any Act for the Recovery of Small Debts in the Sheriff Courts of Scotland, or under the Jurisdiction or Authority competent otherways to such Sheriff by the Common or Statute Law of Scotland.

Parties may appeal to Quarter Sessions on giving Security.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any Determination or Adjudication of any Justice under the Provisions of this Act, he may appeal to the General Quarter Sessions for the County in which the Cause of Appeal shall have arisen, but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within Four Months next after the making of such Determination or Adjudication, and unless Ten Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to the Party against whom the Appeal shall be brought, and unless the Appellant forthwith after such Notice shall lodge with the Clerk to the said Justices of Peace a Bond of Caution, duly executed by Two sufficient Sureties, to abide the Order of the Court on such Appeal.

Court may make such Order as they think reasonable.

LIV. And be it enacted, That at the Quarter Sessions for which such Notice shall be given the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the Appeal in a summary Way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following Sessions; and upon the Hearing of such Appeal the Court may, if they think fit, mitigate any Penalty or Forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the Adjudication, and order any Money paid by the Appellant, or levied by Sale of his Goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured as they may judge reasonable; and they may make such Order concerning the Costs, both of the Adjudication and of the Appeal, as they may think reasonable.

Saving of Rights.

LV. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any of Her Majesty's Ships of War, or any Vessel employed in the Service of Her Majesty, or of the Ordnance, Customs, Excise, or of Her Majesty's Postmaster General, or to prejudice or derogate from any of the Rights or Privileges, Jurisdiction or Authority, of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses.

LVI. Pro-

No Works below High-water Mark without the Consent of the Admiralty.

LVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the said James Farquhar, his Heirs or Successors, to make or maintain any Works below the ordinary High-water Mark at Spring Tides, without the previous Consent of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Offices of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom for the Time being, signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being.

Saving of the Viscount of Arbuthnott's Rights.

LVII. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prejudice or derogate from the Right and Privilege belonging to the Right Honourable John Viscount of Arbuthnott, and his Heirs and Successors, to transport and ship Grain, exclusively on his or their own Account, from the said Harbour, free from all Charges or Claims for Shore Dues or other Dues, and also to import at the said Harbour, free from all Shore Dues and all other Charges, Coal and Lime for his own Use and that of his aforesaid, whether such Importation shall take place by Vessels freighted by him or them, or specially on his or their Account, or by Orders given by him or them to Shipmasters or others, for the whole or Part of a Cargo to be imported by such Shipmasters or others in Vessels freighted or navigated by themselves and at their own Risk.

Interpretation.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That in this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; that is to say, Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number; Words importing the Masculine Gender shall include Females; the Word "Month" shall mean Calendar Month; the Word "Oath" shall include Affirmation in the Case of Quakers, or other Declaration or Solemnity lawfully substituted for an Oath in the Case of Persons exempted by Law from the Necessity of taking an Oath; the Word "Justice" shall mean Justice of the Peace for the County or Place where the Matter requiring the Cognizance of any Justice shall arise, and who shall not be interested in the Matter; the Word "Vessel" shall include Ship, Lighter, Vessel, Barge, and Boat; the Word "Harbour" shall include the Piers, Breakwaters, Entrance, and Fairway to the Harbour, and Works therewith connected; the Word "Master" shall include every Person having Command of any Vessel.

Public Act.

LIX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
