The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State, acting jointly in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by sections 11, 13 and 23 of the Agriculture and Horticulture Act 1964(a) and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations after consultation with such organisations as appear to either of them to be representative of interests affected by the regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Grading of Produce (Apples) (Amendment) Regulations 1969; and shall come into operation on 21st July 1969.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Amendment of the Grading of Produce (Apples) Regulations 1967

2. The Grading of Produce (Apples) Regulations 1967(c), as amended (d), shall be further amended as follows:—

(a) by substituting in Schedule 2 thereto (which contains the definition of the grade of quality—CLASS 1) for the final sentence of the paragraph headed "Development and ripeness" the following sentence:—

"Each apple of a dessert variety shall be sufficiently developed to ensure the proper completion of the ripening process and the state of development and ripeness of each apple of any variety shall be such as to allow it to remain in good condition during the normal period of distribution.";

(b) by substituting in Schedule 3 thereto (which contains the definition of the grade of quality—CLASS 2) for the final sentence of the paragraph headed "Development and ripeness" the following sentence:—

"Each apple of a dessert variety shall be reasonably well developed and the state of development and ripeness of each apple of any variety shall be such as to allow it to remain in reasonably good condition during the normal period of distribution.".
